

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brides and roses—June is a great month.

C. F. Emery intends building an addition to his home.

Special sale of hats at the Cross Roads Hat Shop, June 5th.—Myra Kimport.

Miss Lola Ulrich is visiting relatives and friends at Sanbury and Millinburg.

Read Clyde A. Smith's new ad. in this issue. It is of importance to auto owners.

Ed. L. Bartholomew and daughter, of Altoona, were here over Saturday and Sunday.

An auction sale will be held at Meiss' store at Colyer, on Saturday evening. All are invited to get bargains.

Prof. and Mrs. N. L. Barges and daughter are spending a week visiting Mrs. Barges' parents in Nippenose Valley.

Warren S. Krise, of Johnstown, was in town on Monday and in the evening attended a meeting of the Masonic lodge.

Miss Elizabeth Booser, who had been at the home of her brother, R. C. Booser, at Wilmette, Ill., came to her home in Centre Hall, last week.

Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Bitner, of Lewisburg, were in Centre Hall on Friday to look after the graves of departed relatives in the local cemetery.

Rev. R. R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher are attending the sessions of West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church, at Lewistown, this week.

Leroy Puff, clerk in the local railroad station, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation in Freeport, Illinois, where he will be the guest of his step-uncle, Jacob Derstine.

Misses Elizabeth Royer, Mabelle Sharer and Ruth Schreckengast, students at the Lock Haven Normal, were at their respective homes over Saturday and Sunday.

The mail planes this week have been sailing over Main street in Centre Hall, for Bellefonte, and have become so common a sight as to arouse only passing interest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliot Smith visited their parental homes in this place for several days. Mr. Smith is attending school near Pittsburgh, while Mrs. Smith is engaged at nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Askins and daughter, Ruth, all of New Bloomfield, were an auto party who spent a day at the home of Mrs. Lucy Henney.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Heckman and daughter, Miss Katharine, and Miss Tacy Kreamer, motored here from Johnstown, on Saturday, and spent several days with relatives and friends.

Miss Bertha Miller, one of Potter township's former successful school teachers, and who for the past few years has been holding a responsible clerical position in Washington, D. C., under the U. S. government, is enjoying a ten days' vacation at her home in Tusseyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Erdman West and little son, of New Brunswick, New Jersey, were arrivals in Centre Hall on Saturday and will spend some time with their mothers, Mrs. West and Mrs. Lambert, on East Church street. Mr. West is a plant pathologist and his work takes him to all parts of the state of New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Milton Bradford, of Williamsport, came to Centre Hall on Saturday, and while Mrs. Bradford and children are remaining at the home of Mrs. Bradford's mother, Mrs. Maynard Meecker, in Centre Hall, Mr. Bradford is working in the Coburn station during the enforced idleness of Ralph Brandt, the telegraph operator, who was injured in an auto accident one day last week.

William F. McKinney, of Potters Mills, who as a ranger takes a live interest in the protection of the State forests in this part of Centre county, was a business caller at this office on Tuesday. Mr. McKinney reported the erection of a sixty-five foot steel fire tower on Poe Mountain, about five miles east of Potters Mills, which mountain is really but a continuation of well known Sand Mountain. The tower is equipped with telephone facilities, and commands a view eastward as far as Lewisburg. The discovery of forest fires is made easy and the work of directing the fire fighting is also expedited by means of this tower.

A suspicion that the escaped convict from the pen at Rockview was on the premises at the Frank Carson farm, below Potters Mills, one evening last week, is entertained by the people of that section. The farm is tenanted by William Sweeney, and several of the children in going out for a drink, encountered a strange man, who in his haste to get away, rudely pushed one of the small girls aside with enough force to throw her down. The convict who made his escape from the pen on Monday of last week is D. M. Sarren, who was sentenced from Venango county for a term of not less than two years and six months nor more than three years. The usual reward of fifty dollars is offered for information that will lead to his arrest. Sarren is of stout build, weighs about 200 pounds and is nearly five feet, nine inches in height. He has brown and grey hair and dark blue eyes. He was considered trustworthy and was exercising a bull, which he tied and left, his absence being discovered a short time after he had gone.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

It is hot and dry, and a good rain is much needed.

Mrs. Clyde Dutrow is ill at her home in Centre Hall.

Irvin M. Burris recently purchased a home in Yeagertown and last week moved into it.

Rev. R. P. Miller will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit in Centre Hall on Sunday evening.

Although the days have been extremely hot, mercury reaching near the 90 mark, nights have been cool.

Mrs. M. L. Emerick, who has been quite ill for several weeks, has recovered sufficiently to be enabled to be downstairs.

Dairyman W. J. Smith is carrying a discolored left eye which he received in attempting to crank the Franklin car. His hand-hold slipped and he fell forward on the swinging crank.

Mrs. S. W. Smith and Harvey Flink attended the sessions of the Northern Conference of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Lutheran church, at Millheim, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

A hammock, as well as a number of cushions, were removed from the porch of M. L. Emerick, late one night last week, in the spirit of mischief, it is presumed. Believing that their identity had been discovered, the boys, late the following night, returned the stolen property to the porch.

William S. Walker, who underwent an operation for appendicitis, is recuperating his health at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Larimer, at Bellefonte, having left the hospital on Sunday. He will be unable to do any hard work for some time, and his blacksmith shop on the farm will therefore be closed for the present. Neighboring farmers who have been having work done there will please take notice of this fact.

Mrs. Charles Kuhn and son, Harry Kuhn, and Miss Emma Rowe, of Boalsburg, and Mrs. William H. Lacy, of Jamestown, New York, were in Centre Hall last week to spend an evening with friends. Mrs. Lacy is a daughter of William P. Emert, of Freeport, Illinois, formerly a resident of Penns Valley, and it was much to her delight to come in contact with persons, places and things of which her father frequently spoke to her about.

Train Hits Auto at Mill Hall; 3 Killed.

Thomas R. Harter, of Lock Haven, president of the Loganton National Bank and prominent lumber dealer, his wife and daughter, Miss Helen, were killed and John Lucas, of Philadelphia, a graduate of State College, and Miss Harter's fiancée, and Mrs. Paul Harter, a daughter-in-law were seriously injured when Harter's automobile was struck by the Easton-Pittsburgh westbound flyer at Mill Hall, four miles from Lock Haven, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harter were killed instantly and Miss Harter died while being taken to the hospital. Mrs. Paul Harter and Lucas are in the Lock Haven hospital in a serious condition, but Lucas will probably recover. The automobile was thrown 40 feet from the track.

How to Lower Your Meat Bills

Hints From the Department of Justice

SPECIALIZE IN BUYING MEAT AND SAVE MONEY.

The housewife of the present generation and particularly of the past year or so, during which money has been rather plentiful, has been demanding meats from one or two cuts of beef; that is, cuts from the loin for steak and cuts from the ribs for roasts. This has created a tremendous demand for the loins and ribs, leaving an oversupply of the major portion of the carcass, which the retailer must dispose of at a disadvantage, owing to the lack of demand.

If Mrs. Housewife would take more interest and specialize in her buying, and would read carefully the articles that have been and are being published, calling her attention to the cheaper meats, she would realize a substantial saving. She would soon become convinced that there is exceptionally good meat in the round, rump, plates, chuck, etc.

In the olden days Mrs. Housewife would call for a chuck steak, round steak, as well as an occasional porterhouse. Mrs. Housewife now knows only one steak, and that is the porterhouse, which is naturally the most expensive, as it is the most called for, and it logically must stand the extra expense. It is the world old law of supply and demand.

How many housewives know that from the chuck they can get steaks, boiling beef, pot roasts and stew meats? The carcass (excepting the loins and ribs) contains meats that are just as appetizing, delicious and nutritious as the more expensive cuts, which are the ribs and loins. Unfortunately, however, custom recently has dictated that the ribs and loins be considered the more popular, hence the cheaper cuts have really gone out of their own.

A few years ago the average housewife usually called for a chuck steak or round steak as a matter of course. In fact, it was the daily diet and one seldom thought of ordering sirloin or porterhouse steak, except on special occasions. A good comparison would be that of ordering chicken or turkey for every day of the week just because it happens to be a "treat" or a special delicacy, and if chicken or turkey were thus ordered the outcome would simply be higher prices, due to the demand being larger than the supply. The round makes wonderful steaks, pot roast or corned beef. It represents approximately 23 per cent of the entire beef carcass, and the chuck represents approximately 34 per cent. The loins represent 17 per cent and the ribs 9 per cent, and of the entire carcass there is actually less than 5 per cent porterhouse steak, 3 per cent of club steak and about 9 per cent of sirloin steak.

Among the many appetizing uses of the chuck are roasts, steaks, pot roasts, stews, boiling beef, pot pie meat and hamburger, with the fore Shank for soup meat and soup bones. There has lately arisen such a remarkable demand for one or two expensive kinds of meats that people who formerly were entirely satisfied with what represents the less expensive portions never even think of calling for them. At the same time they continually complain of their meat bills without stopping to analyze the reason.

"Is that the best you have?" seems to be the by-word. The more it costs the more people want it. The less expensive (although often very good articles), go begging. If a dealer has to buy a certain portion of the cheaper articles along with his good articles and he cannot sell the cheaper ones, YOU pay the price for what he is obliged to lose. The same applies to meats. The butcher pays a certain price for the cattle and he must get that price out of them. If the demand, as stated above, all runs to one or two different cuts, those cuts that are in demand must make up the loss on so-called cheaper meats, while if there was an equal selling distribution on the entire carcass, there would not be so much complaint of the high cost of meat.

Every housewife personally should make inquiries of her butcher as to the different cuts of meat.

Chopped Beef Au Casserole.
1 1/2 lbs. clod of beef, ground,
1/2 c. tomato relish,
Tabasco sauce,
1 can beans.
Mix chopped beef with tomato relish. Add 1/4 teaspoonful tabasco sauce (more if desired). Season well with salt. Put in glass casserole and bake two hours, basting frequently with a high quality of table sauce. A few strips of bacon across the top of any meat loaf adds to its richness and improves flavor. Serve garnished with beans, quartered. Serves 5 people.

CHILDREN OF THE RICH SUNDAY SCHOOL SLACKERS

Poor East Side Churches Have Much Better Attendance Than Old Trinity, the World's Wealthiest Parish.

The little son of poverty is a regular attendant at Grace Chapel, East Side, N. Y. The son of wealth is not so regularly seen at Sunday School.

The children of the poor are better Sunday School scholars than the sons and daughters of the rich, surveys of over 100 New York City parishes of the Episcopal Church indicate.

The surveys which are a part of the Church's Nation-Wide Campaign to be waged Sunday, December 7, for a minimum of $62,000,000 from Episcopalians only, developed that children are neglecting Sunday School; and that of those who do go, the children of the poor show to much better advantage than do those of the rich.

Old Trinity at Broadway and Wall Street, rated the wealthiest individual parish in the world, with realty investments of over $20,000,000, reported a Sunday School enrollment of only 100 children to over 1,000 communicants. Grace Church with a budget in 1918 of $390,041.83 reported an equally small percentage.

A few blocks away where children through the tenement houses of the lower East Side, little Grace Church Chapel has a Sunday School of 450. St. Bartholomew's Church at Fifth Street and Park Avenue, a mecca of fashionables has only a five per cent. Sunday School enrollment. Well-to-do St. Ignatius' parish at East End Avenue and 87th Street, has only thirty-seven children in its Sunday School compared with 600 communicants.

Rehabilitation of its Sunday Schools is one of the purposes of the Episcopal Church's Nation-Wide Campaign.
