TAFT OR JOHNSON?

Predicting Senator Harding's election former President Taft says: "We shall have the League of Nations with the reservations necessary for the guidance and protection of our country."

Holding that Senator Harding's speech of acceptance makes Republican success certain, Hiram Johnson congratulates the candidate upon "his firm and emphatic stand against the proposed League."

Mr. Taft is in favor of the League and Mr. Johnson would kill it outright. Here are their differing interpretations of Senator Harding's position, both assuming to speak for him and their sadly divided party.

But where do you stand, Senator Harding? Are you with Taft or are you with Johnson?

Typhoid Outbreak at Mill Hall.

The outbreak of typhoid fever at Mill Hall seems to have been checked, with the total number of cases held at seven. Six of the cases are being taken care of at the Lock Haven hospital. One case originated last week, the others occurring during the past few days.

Dr. John B. Critchfield, of Lock Haven, district medical superintendent stated that the source of the epidemic had not been ascertained. It is believed, however, that it is traceable to an old well at a farm from which the families affected receive their milk. The utensils used in caring for the milk are washed in water from this well.

Tyrone Has Disastrous Fire.

Fire which for a time threatened to sweep Tyrone's business district Monday morning caused damage estimated to be $250,000. The fire broke out in the warehouse of the Templeton Department Store and the flames swept the entire Templeton block and the LaMor apartments before being subdued.

Eleven business firms suffered loss and nine families are homeless. Clair Templeton, a member of the Templeton firm, was hurt when hit by flying debris.

Country weeklies are pre-eminently the home papers of newspaperdom. They are not hurriedly scanned while men travel to business, then left to brake men to gather up. They go directly to homes where their close reading is a duty as well as a pleasure. Hence their peculiar value as an advertising medium.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Ill But a Day, Death Comes Suddenly to Mrs. W. B. Mingle.—Wm. H. Blausser, Merchant, Passes Away.

MINGLE.—It was truly a shock to the community to learn early on Monday morning that Mrs. William B. Mingle had died after an illness which began on Saturday forenoon. On that morning Mrs. Mingle arose earlier than usual so that her brother, P. Gross Yearick, who had been visiting her, could have his breakfast before taking his departure for his home in Philadelphia. She was apparently in the best of spirits and after giving her brother an affectionate farewell, resumed her household duties. It was about nine o'clock, when in conversation with a neighbor that she made it known that she had been suddenly seized with severe pains, and shortly thereafter she was put to bed and a physician summoned. Her condition was considered quite serious on Saturday and the following night. Sunday morning her two children came to her bedside and this brought great cheer to the heart of the devoted mother. Sunday reports came from the sick chamber that the patient was much at ease and this was encouragement to friends that complete recovery would come. Early Monday morning she fell into a natural sleep—a sleep from which she never awoke.

Mrs. Mingle's maiden name was Elizabeth M. Yearick, a daughter of Thomas and Phoebe Yearick, and was born in Kratserville and spent her youth with her parents at Aaronsburg. Her marriage occurred November 10th, 1869, and upon the opening of the Penns Valley Bank, in 1873, the family moved to Centre Hall. Mr. Mingle died December 27, 1912. Mrs. Mingle's age was past seventy-one years.

Mrs. Mingle was held in high esteem by a large number of acquaintances. She was most hospitable in her home—a perfect home-maker—and thoroughly devoted to the welfare of her two children, Mrs. J. Emory Hoy and W. Gross Mingle, both of Philadelphia. She was an active member of the Reformed church during the whole of her life and was a regular attendant at all services. She will be greatly missed in all church circles.

Beside the two children named above there survive two brothers, Harry H. and P. Gross Yearick, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, interment in the local cemetery. The officiating minister was Rev. R. R. Jones, pastor of the deceased.

BLAUSER.—William H. Blausser, a well known merchant, died at his home at Potters Mills on Sunday about the noon hour, after a short illness. He was born in York county on April 7, 1851, which makes his age past sixty-nine years. His father's name was John R. Blausser. The deceased, for the past eight years, conducted a general store at Potters Mills. He was a member of three fraternal orders—the Eagles, Elks and Odd Fellows.

Two daughters preceded him in death, but there survive his wife, who was Rebecca Jane Auman, and two daughters—Mrs. R. A. Coldron of Huntingdon and Mrs. J. C. Brown, of Youngstown, Ohio; and a son, John V., of Potters Mills; also one brother, Eli Blausser, and seven sisters: Mrs. Anna Ream, Mrs. Hettie Ream, Mrs. Elizabeth Wallie, Mrs. Liddy Minnick, Mrs. Amanda Gingerich, Mrs. Jane Gephart, and Mrs. Rebecca Layland, all of York county. Eleven grandchildren are also left.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning at 9:30 o'clock, and burial made in Georges Valley. Rev. Drumm, of the Lutheran church, of which the deceased was a member, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Catherman.

Passed Up to High School.

The following boys and girls have passed the required examination for entrance to the Centre Hall High school, the list having been made up by County Superintendent D. O. Etters:

From Potter township—Luella Bloom, Lila Brooks, Stanley Brooks, Ellen Burkholder, Harold Durst, Gladys Garbrick, Harrison Grove, Margaret Keller, Ellen Meeker, James Royer, Miles Snyder, Sarah Snyder, Mildred Duck, Edward Foust, Zella Ripka, Helen Glasgow.

Encampment and Grange Fair.

The plans for the 1920 Encampment and Fair, on Grange Park, Centre Hall, among other improvements, called for a new headquarters or administration building, conceded by every one badly needed. But the illness of the chairman, who had made the plans and hoped to carry them out, was prolonged until finally when death came it was too late. However much needed repairs have been made to various buildings, painting done, and best of all over one hundred trees planted, the majority of which are growing nicely.

The committee is making every effort to make this even a better and bigger picnic than last year, which was the most successful gathering we have ever had. The committee appeals to the farmers and public generally for their hearty support in every way.

Since this is the only fair in Centre county and central Pennsylvania, it is up to us to display the best and finest of our products from the farm and garden to the visitors.—Secretary.

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. George Brachbill has returned from a visit to Pittsburgh. Mifflin Moyer transacted business at Bellefonte on Monday.

Floyd Gramley and family, of Horsehead, N. Y., are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Floyd Bowersox and family, who resided on a farm near Mifflinburg, were visitors on Sunday at this place.

James Miller and family, after visiting relatives for several days at this place, left on Monday for their home in Sunbury.

Our farmers, having stored away their hay and wheat crops, are spending some time gathering huckleberries, which are very plentiful in the mountains at the eastern end of the valley.

Curtis Bierly has been chosen cashier of the Rebersburg bank, which is now a sure thing. The building known as the brick store building is being put in shape for a bank building.

Harry Smull, the blacksmith, would be very much pleased if the party who borrowed his pipe wrench some time ago would return the same at once as he needs it very badly.

During an electrical storm on last Saturday evening, the barn owned by Theodore Royer at this place, was struck by lightning and was entirely destroyed. Mr. Royer had the barn jammed full of hay and grain, which was quickly licked up by the flames, as well as a large wagon shed, which was full of almost new farming implements; a hog stable and other outbuildings fell prey to the destructive flames. One of Mr. Royer's horses perished in the flames. George Wate's barn which was closely built to the Royer barn, was also consumed with all its contents, as well as a scale shed belonging to Samuel Beirly. Mr. Royer's loss is about $2500, with $325 insurance. Mr. Wate's loss is about $1000 with no insurance.

$12,000,000 Available For State Road Work.

The sum of $12,000,000 has been made available for the commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the bank in Philadelphia, which acts as its fiscal agent, as the result of the bond sale a few days ago, although not a bond has been issued. Instead the state has arranged for issuance of certificates which will be held until the bonds are issued in denominations desired. The big sum of money will be placed to the credit of the highway department for road construction.

Gasoline Causes Fire. While pouring gasoline from one can to another, Elmer Benner, who resides on a farm one mile east of Mifflinburg, was severely burned when the gasoline ignited in his hands, setting fire to the shed.

The shed, a Ford car and the farm implements were burned. The home was threatened several times, but was saved by the hard work of the fire fighters who formed a bucket brigade. The fire occurred one evening last week.

Col. Spangler Writes from Land of Earthquakes.

In a letter to the Centre Democrat from San Francisco, California, in which State Colonel J. L. Spangler and wife have been sojourning since the Democratic national convention and during the time the Colonel has been attending to his duties on the National Mediation Commission. Mr. Spangler writes as follows:

"Last some of our friends back home should feel any concern on reading about earthquakes in Los Angeles last Friday. I wish to assure them that Mrs. Spangler and myself luckily escaped the 'shaking up' at Los Angeles—we beat the earthquake just two hours and ten minutes. We took the train at Los Angeles that day at 8 a. m. for San Francisco. At 10:19 a. m., when the first quake occurred, we were one hundred miles north of Santa Barbara. Five distinct shocks were felt, the last at 6 p. m., the most violent at 1:25 p. m. This last was a jolt and straight uplift. Of course high chimneys, parts of buildings, telephone wires, etc., came down but no great damage to big buildings. The terror and excitement of the people rushing into the streets, screams of women and children, and the hysteria of certain persons created a frightful situation all day Friday. Next day the city of Los Angeles, 600,000 people, resumed their annual pursuits and are talking over their experiences during the confusion.

"We have met a number here who give us the serious and comic side of it. The blind man on the corner of Spring and Fifth streets, selling shoestrings, etc., grabbed his kit when the first shock came and rushed down the street without interfering or hitting anybody. He was blunder no longer. The barber with a patron in the chair getting shaved dropped his razor when the building began to rock, and fell to his knees, crying: 'I knew it, I knew something would happen. I didn't go to church last Sunday. I will never miss church again.' Many women were taken to the hospitals for treatment.

"These people say they are used to quakes here, but give me old Centre county, buttressed on good old limestone rock, with nothing more disturbing than an occasional thunder and lightning storm. Sincerely,
"J. L. SPANGLER."

FARM FACTS

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College

SPRAYS.—Red mites are causing severe damage to the apple orchards in southern counties. Control them and the second brood codling moth at the same time with lime-sulphur and lead arsenate.

Immediate application of Bordeaux 3-4-50 will check bitter rot of apples in southern Pennsylvania. Repeat in 3 or 4 weeks unless weather conditions make an outbreak improbable.

Cool weather and frequent rains make an epidemic of late blight of potatoes very probable. Keep vines thoroughly covered with 1-4-50 Bordeaux, spraying every 10 to 14 days until vines are dead.

POULTRY.—Begin to cull the flock at once. Every molting hen should be eliminated. Early molting hens are poor layers. It pays to cull regularly.

FARM CROPS.—Now is a good time to start that field of alfalfa. Sow 15 to 20 pounds of inoculated seed per acre. Have field well drained, fertilized and limed.

ORCHARD.—If plums and peaches need thinning, and it has not been done, it is best to do so at once.

CANNING.—Fruits and berries will keep whether canned with or without sugar, if the product is completely sterilized and the jars perfectly sealed. Proceed exactly as when syrup was used.

HOGS that breathe with difficulty should be culled out and sold at this time; there is little chance of their surviving the August heat.

Mingle Home for Sale.

One of the most desirable homes in Centre Hall, known as the Mingle home, is offered for sale. Large corner lot, good ten-room house, with bath, hot water heat, electricity, good stable or garage, chicken house, etc. Immediate possession. Inquire of W. Gross Mingle or C. D. Bartholomew.

Printing Brings Clients

Not every business has a show window. If you want to win more clients, use more printing and use the kind of printing that faithfully represents your business policy. You save money and make money for your patrons. Do the same for yourself by using an economical high grade paper—Hammermill Bond—and good printing, both of which we can give you. If you want printing service and economy—give us a trial.

A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE YOU. NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.
