THE DEATH RECORD.

TATE.—William S. Tate, formerly of Pine Grove Mills, died at Bellwood last Friday after a brief illness with heart trouble and complications. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tate and was born at Shiloh, Oct. 1, 1863. In 1892 he married Miss Jane Archey and engaged in farming near town. His wife died in 1913. He was a member of the Pine Grove Mills Presbyterian church. Politically a staunch Democrat, a good neighbor and friend. These brothers and sisters survive: Thomas, of Freeport, Ill.; A. J., State College; George, of Pittsburgh; Wesley, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Sadie Smith, of Scranton, and Mrs. Margaret Lee, of Centre Hall. Burial was made by the side of his wife in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills on Monday morning; services in the Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. Barber, of Bellwood, officiating. Six nephews acted as pall bearers.

Will Cross the Atlantic.

Nedson W. Keller, former Lieutenant in the U. S. army, with an enviable overseas record, will set sail for Europe on Wednesday of next week, having recently signed up for a year's work as director of physical education in a Roumanian college.

Mr. Keller is well known to most Reporter readers. He is a son of Mrs. J. W. Keller, of Linden Hall, and following his discharge from service in the late World War, accepted a position as physical director with the Y. M. C. A. at Moline, Illinois. Not many months ago he was chosen by the city authorities of Moline to direct similar work, and the nature of his work and the success with which he was meeting was contained in an article which appeared in a recent issue of the Reporter. Then came an offer from across the broad Atlantic so flattering in its terms that Mr. Keller simply couldn't turn it down. The Roumanian government, admiring the athletic prowess of the American soldiers during their stay in Europe, has decided upon giving more attention to this form of education, and it was but natural to choose an American to organize and carry on the work. The choice of Mr. Keller speaks volumes for his ability as a physical director, and his friends have confidence in his ability to make good.

At present he is visiting his home in Linden Hall, but will leave in a few days for New York, from which point he will set sail for Europe.

Palmer Property Sold.

A sale of real estate not previously mentioned was that of the Palmer property, sold by James W. Swabb, J. P., of Linden Hall. In addition to the Palmer place, Mr. Swabb sold ten acres of land from other holdings, making a total of fifty acres. The purchaser is Clarence Blazer, who is now a tenant farmer on the Wieland farm, at Linden Hall. Mr. Blazer will take possession next April.

Musser Garage Burned.

The Musser auto garage, at State College, was set on fire by the explosion of an oil stove Friday afternoon of last week. Most of the property, as well as the cars stored there were saved from the flames. The building was entirely gutted and will have to be torn down.

REBERSBURG.

Calvin Weaver and wife are at present visiting relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. William Bair was called to Easton the latter part of last week to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Thorp.

Howard Homan, of Orange county, California, is visiting relatives at this place.

Mrs. Howard Miller, who has been in ill health for some time, was on last Thursday taken to Pitcairn where her daughter, Mrs. Loyd Walker, will take care of her.

Charlie Smull is making preparations to build a manure shed at the east end of his barn.

Mrs. Albert Reed and two daughters, of Millinburg, are spending a week at the Samuel Mowery home.

On last Wednesday C. L. Gramley and wife and other relatives of this place went to North Bend to attend the funeral of Charles Klinefelter.

We are reliably informed that the Livona school at the extreme end of this valley will be abandoned and the scholars will be taken to the Brungart school. The Gramley school will also be abandoned and the scholars will be brought to Rebersburg.

Theodore Royer, whose barn was destroyed by lightning several weeks ago quite recently bought a vacant barn near this place from Mrs. Ida Harter. Mr. Royer will tear the barn down and have it placed near the place of the one that was destroyed by fire.

Samuel Hubler, son of William Hubler, who holds a lucrative position in Pittsburg and who several weeks ago was elected by our school directors to teach the intermediate grade at this place, has made it known that he has decided to continue his work at Pittsburg and therefore will not accept the position offered him here. Harold Hackenburg has been chosen to take his place in the school room.

Our farmers are at present harvesting a heavy oats crop. Some are finding it very difficult to cut their oats owing to the oats being lodged by the late heavy storms, accompanied by rain and hail. Some fields look as if some one had rolled them with a land roller.

Penn State Freshman Class Now Filled.

The freshman class at the Pennsylvania State College is now filled. Seven hundred and fifty applicants have been admitted and it is not yet known how many will have to be turned away by lack of necessary teaching and classroom facilities. The task of admitting this number was of such importance as to overshadow the records of all previous years. It is estimated that applications were received from nearly 2000 high and preparatory school graduates, resulting in the burning of much midnight oil on the part of college officials to properly and in all fairness make up the personnel of the incoming class.

In placing the limit of new students for the coming year at 750, the trustees had only one course to follow—relief for already overcrowded class-rooms and laboratories. With even this number enrolled at Penn State next fall the remaining classes will bring the total student attendance to over 3300, greater than last year when 3165 made the record enrollment.

Shoots Himself at Brother's Home.

John Beish, a resident of Wallaceon, near Philipsburg, committed suicide by shooting himself, on last Thursday morning at the farm home of his brother, Isaac Beish, at Salem, west of Wallaceon.

The deceased, aged about 50 years and unmarried, had long been employed at the fire brick works in Wallaceon, where he lived alone. It is said he brooded over the thought that a cancer on his face would lead to suffering and death in the near future, and no doubt, the rash act was committed while in a melancholy mood.

Items from the Millheim Journal.

A Gaugh, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of S. P. Springer, where Mrs. Gaugh and their three children have been visiting for some time.

Miss Elizabeth Reifsnnyder accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Gensler, to her home at Harrisburg the latter part of last week for a visit.

Prof. and Mrs. R. U. Wasson, of Saltsburg, where the Prof. is a teacher in the Kiskimineas school, are enjoying a vacation at Coburn, their former home.

F. C. Richey, of York, motored to Millheim Saturday night and spent several days at the P. B. Musser home, where Mrs. Richey and their two sons are visiting.

Miss Mary Gutelius, of Harrisburg, accompanied by her friend, Miss Thelma Mankamer, of Huntingdon, spent Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Gutelius.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Boob, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Boob and two children, of Millheim, and R. H. Boob, of Aaronsburg, visited at Bunkertown, Juniata county, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse, of Aaronsburg, accompanied by Paul Krape, of that town, and Mrs. J. C. Hosterman, of Millheim, enjoyed an automobile trip to Williamsport and return Friday.

State Agricultural Notes.

Successful agriculture constitutes the very foundation of a nation's prosperity.

The domestic turkeys seem to be declining in numbers from year to year in Pennsylvania. This is unfortunate, as this American bird is a foe to insect pests and particularly to grasshoppers.

Word comes from Lehigh county that potatoes are in splendid condition and a full crop is expected. Reports indicate that potatoes are in good condition pretty generally over the State and August 1st reports will likely forecast a larger yield in Pennsylvania than earlier reports. Late blight and drought are about the only things to be feared now.

FARM FACTS

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College

GRASSHOPPERS and army worms may become dangerous. If they get too numerous use poison bran mash scattered thinly over the field.

ORCHARD—If winter varieties of apples have a heavy set of fruit and thinning is necessary, it should be started now.

In sod apple orchards the grass should again be cut if it shows signs of going to seed. Do not let grass go to seed!

GARDEN—Lovers of good tomatoes can save seed now for next year. Look for the best plants, not only the finest fruits.

FARM CROPS—Sow some turnips in your corn or spare lots of land for fall stock feed.

POULTRY—For the best yield, do not change the food or management of the flock. Eliminating the use of dry mash or beef scrap in the ration may reduce poultry profits to a great extent.

DAIRY—Get the cattle in show condition for fall fairs. Linseed oil meal puts a gloss on the hair and corn meal will put on flesh. Brush cows twice a day, use a curry comb only on dirty spots. Rubbing with bare hands helps bring out the oil in the hair, and blanketing helps it to lie smooth.

HOGGING-OFF CORN is becoming a common practice. It is well to have a field set aside for this purpose. Also arrange to have hog fence to enclose the field when the time comes.
