

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Work has been resumed on the road to Tusseyville, which is being heavily graded.

Mrs. C. E. Fair and son William, of Reading, are visiting Mrs. Fair's brother, John Kreamer.

Miss Ruth Smith left last week for Atlantic City and other points in New Jersey, for a short vacation.

Dr. J. V. Foster is remodeling the property on Allen street, State College, to which he recently acquired title.

The Centre Hall Boy Scouts enjoyed a week's outing, tenting in Scout Master C. E. Flink's woods, near Tusseyville.

Mrs. J. S. Getchell and two children, of Greensburg, are visiting at the parental home of Mrs. Getchell, in Centre Hall.

Rev. R. R. Jones attended a committee meeting in the interest of the Reformed church, in Philadelphia, the latter part of last week.

Moses Hurwitz, in business for nine years at State College, died Saturday a week ago in Clearfield hospital following an operation for goiter.

Irvin Emery and five children, of Mazepa, motored here on Sunday, spending the day with Mr. Emery's brother, C. F. Emery, and family.

There were nine ministers in town on Sunday, and at a time when two of the regular pastors were absent, so Centre Hall's religious needs were well supplied.

Penns Cave was thronged with visitors on Sunday, Brush valley road being the avenue for many large busses, trucks and touring cars on their way to the cave.

C. E. Flink offers for sale his home near Colyer and advertises to that effect in this issue. There are twelve acres of land, house and barn, and a lot of fruit trees growing nicely.

Carpenter Aaron Thomas this week commenced work on the remodeling of the rear portion of the Methodist church to put it into suitable condition for quarters for the primary grade of the public schools.

Merchant A. Kessler and daughter, Miss Jeanne, of Millheim, just returned from a trip to New York and Philadelphia, where they did the buying of their fall merchandise, having purchased a beautiful line of goods.

The office of Dr. H. H. Longwell has been a busy place since the order for vaccination was issued by the local Board of Education. It's better to have the children vaccinated now and avoid all unpleasantness later on.

There are quite a number of strangers in town. Most of them are here because they have been told and now know that Centre Hall is the most delightful country town in all Pennsylvania and that the Reporter always tells the truth.

Rev. G. W. McInay, of Danville, is enjoying his vacation among his many friends and former parishioners thruout the Penns Valley charge. The reverend preached a very interesting sermon in the local M. E. church on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis and little daughter, Velma, of O'hanter, Clearfield county, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank McClellan from Friday until Monday. The McClellan and Lewis families lived neighbors in Oshanter at one time.

There is an abundance of fruit of all kinds this year. Summer apples especially were never more plentiful and local hucksters who find ready sale for farm and orchard products in the Lewistown region, state that the market there is glutted with apples.

Walter W. Kerlin, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is enjoying his first trip back home in ten years, and is the guest of his brother, A. E. Kerlin. Mr. Kerlin is with the Braunwart & Brockhoff Company, commercial and catalog printers, with whom he holds a responsible office position.

Misses Nellie and Mabel Lohr, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Lohr, of Philadelphia, are guests at the C. D. Bartholomew home for a week. The young ladies, Sunday evening, rendered a vocal duet in the Methodist church that highly pleased those fortunate to hear it.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith, of Indianapolis, Indiana, and daughter, Mrs. Julia Peacock, of Cleveland, Ohio, were arrivals in Centre Hall last Friday, having made the trip east in their handsome Nash car. The doctor is spending some time on his farm at Centre Hill, where extensive improvements are in progress.

C. W. Weaver, of Philadelphia, a son of Mrs. Louisa Weaver, after enjoying a month's vacation on the farms with his father, H. E. Schreckengast and A. J. Weaver, in Potter township, returned to his home this week. The young man says that it's a great life, especially for developing the physique, and will carry back with him ten pounds more brawn by reason of his stay in the country.

The dead body of Allen Weimer, an electrician employed at the Standard Steel Works at Burnham, was found stretched out in an automobile standing in the streets of Lewistown. His family was away on a visit, and Weimer, complaining to a friend of not feeling well and unable to bear the heat of his room, decided to sleep in the auto. Fellow workers on their way to the Standard Works, early Saturday morning, discovered the dead body.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A. N. Neese and son Paul, of near Hartleton, were in Penns Valley recently.

M. T. Zubler, of Spring Mill, was a business caller at this office on Wednesday.

This is the last call for the 25 per cent. reduction sale at the Nieman Department, Millheim. See adv.

W. G. Grossman, at Tusseyville, will have peaches for sale next Wednesday and Thursday, at his orchard.

Prof. and Mrs. L. O. Packer and children of Pittsburgh passed through town on Tuesday evening, by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert motored to Cresson the latter part of last week and visited the latter's sister, Mrs. James Spicher.

Mrs. G. O. Benner will leave to-day to visit her sick father, J. Q. Miles, at Martha, and also to attend the family reunion, on Saturday.

John M. Blauser publishes an executor's notice on the estate of William H. Blauser, late of Potter township, deceased, in this issue.

A handsome Rishel cabinet phonograph was sold last week to Thomas Decker, at Spring Mills, by F. V. Goodhart, the local dealer.

Thirteen counties in Pennsylvania have petitioned to have closed season to hunting quail and various game birds found as of value to farmers as insect destroyers. Centre county is not among the number.

W. E. Shultz, on the I. J. Zubler farm, near Farmers Mills, and brother-in-law Chas. F. Shook, of Penn Hall, were business callers at this office on Monday. The Reporter was pleased to enroll Mr. Shultz as a subscriber.

Patrons on Rural mail routes who have guests expecting mail, should place their names in the mail box with a statement that they are temporary patrons. If this was done on all mail routes, much better service could be rendered in the delivery of mail of all classes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Martz, of Tusseyville, were callers at this office on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Martz began farming on the Spangler farm near Tusseyville, where they now live, twenty-five years ago, which indicates that their work has been satisfactory as tenant farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doerr, of Chicago, were guests of the latter's brother, S. C. Brungart, in Centre Hall. Mr. Doerr is a real estate agent in America's foremost city. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Brungart also entertained Mrs. Emeline Brungart and daughters, Misses Tacy and Celia, of Rebersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Musser, of Penns Cave.

A day after Nedson W. Keller left his home for New York City to prepare for sailing for Europe, a telegram was received allowing him a few days longer stay in the good old U. S. A. He will now sail today (Thursday), for Roumania, where he has accepted the position of director of physical education in that country's leading educational institution.

The local hotel this week has a large number of summer boarders, among whom are a sociable lot from Williamsport and Milton, who are having a real vacation. In the party are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gardner, of Williamsport. Mr. Gardner is chief accountant of the Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Yerg and son Fuller, and Miss Christine Kistner, represent the office force of the Milton manufacturing company, at Milton. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hartman are also residents of Williamsport, Mr. Hartman being a traveling salesman for the Keystone Furniture company.

New Forester Assigned to This District.

A new State Forester has been assigned to this district and will in all probability be located at Centre Hall. He is W. Harold Horning and is now located at Keewaydin, this state.

POTTERS MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Fetterolf, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at this place. Revs. Catterman and McAlay spent Sunday evening at the J. G. Bual home.

Frank Smith left for Altoona to visit his mother before starting for the West. Mrs. Witmer Lee spent last week with her sister, at Barham.

Mrs. George Klinefelter and children, of Mill Hall, spent Sunday with Mrs. William Blauser.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farnor returned to their home in Philadelphia, on Saturday.

Emerson Egnist returned to his home on Wednesday from the Bellefonte hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Oria Reish, of Centre Mills, spent Sunday at the Elmer Noll home.

Mrs. John Bowersox, of near State College, and Miss Bell Snyder, of Tyrone, visited their aunt, Mrs. Carson, from Saturday until Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Gibbony, of Altoona, spent the past week with her grandfather, Samuel Bitner.

Burd Stover and aunt, Miss Kohler, of Milroy, are visiting at the John Blauser home.

Miss John Wilkinson is at Reedsville helping to care for her daughter, Mrs. Ammon Bubb, who is seriously ill.

The Reporter, $1.50 a year.

Altoona's SUBURBAN DAY Wednesday

You Are Entitled to The BEST!

Every man or woman with money to spend demands the very best that it can buy!

Whether you buy from your home merchant or come to Altoona to make your purchase—you are in the market for the BEST!

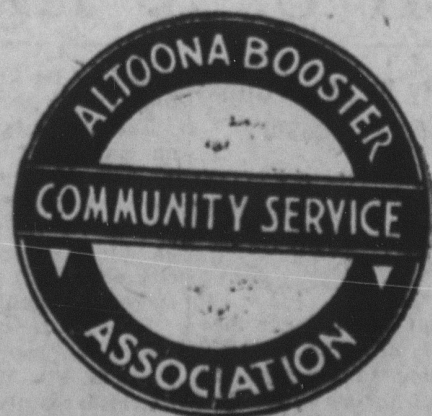

Altoona stores have a reputation for fair dealing and Altoona Booster merchants conceal nothing that the customer wants to know about his purchase.

Whatever you purchase—necessity or luxury—you KNOW it is dependable.

Because "truth in advertising and business dealing" is embodied in the printed resolution of Altoona BOOSTER Merchants.

BUY IN YOUR DISTRICT!
BUY IN ASSOCIATION STORES!
BOOSTER MERCHANTS STAND
BACK OF THEIR MERCHANDISE!
BY THIS SIGN YOU KNOW THEM.

Every Wednesday Is Suburban Day

Look for Our Emblem

ALTOONA BOOSTER ASSOCIATION