Place your order early if you want a supply of fertilizer for your fall seeding.—R. D. Foreman.

Unclaimed letters at Centre Hall post office: Kathryn Russler, William Boope, J. W. Walker.

Women who expect to vote in November must not overlook the payment of taxes prior to October 2.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shadle, of Charleston, West Virginia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford, this week.

Miss Margaret Emery, who since June was employed at Atlantic City, N. J., returned to her home here last Friday.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin T. Stover, of Philadelphia, will find them located at their new address, 1618 Green street, Philadelphia.

Miss Anna Burkins, of Milroy, is teaching the Colyer school, the regularly elected teacher having resigned at the opening of the school term.

A regular meeting of Progress Grange will be held on Saturday evening. New members will be taken in at that time and a good attendance is desired.

Mrs. George E. Heckman has the distinction of being the first woman in Potter township to pay the 15 cents tax which entitles her to the vote this fall.

Miss Belle Meeker, and sister, Mrs. Harry Hipple, of near Baltimore Md., are expected in Centre Hall this week where they will visit their mother, Mrs. Maynard Meeker, and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shaeffer and daughter, Mrs. Ethel Bowser, of Altoona, were delightfully entertained for a few days the latter part of last week by Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Foreman.

Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs and sister, Mrs. Ellen Stuart, of State College, left this week for Steubenville, Ohio, where they will visit the former's son, Guy W. Jacobs, and family, for a short time.

Rev. R. R. Jones left for New York on Tuesday morning in order to attend the meeting of "Town and Country Committee of the Home Mission Council" as the representative of the Reformed church.

Squire Cyrus Brungart, J. C. Rossman and R. M. Smith made a trip to the Buffalo Valley Fruit Farm, near Millinburg, on Monday, where the picking of peaches is at its height. They report that 15,000 bushels have already been picked and sold, and the immense orchard promises about 10,000 bushels more.

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Hosterman and son Phyllis, came in from Crystal City, Missouri, last Friday, arriving at Bellefonte, from which point the doctor's brother, Thomas A. Hosterman, conveyed them to his home in Centre Hall, where they will remain until some time next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Dinges, Mrs. D. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliot Smith, on Wednesday of last week, motored to New Bloomfield, and were royally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Stuart. Mr. Smith visited one of his pals of the World War, who was taken prisoner by the Germans. They had a very interesting talk.

Several weeks ago Miss Marion Bible, daughter of J. Frank Bible, of near Centre Hall, began teaching an intermediate grade in the Loysville Orphans' Home, a Lutheran institution. She reports fine progress and as liking her work very much. Miss Bible is quite young, having had but two years in the Centre Hall High school, but passed a most creditable examination for a teacher's certificate.

Mr. and Mrs. "Dick" Custer and party of friends, of Johnstown, traveling in the Custer's handsome Cadillac car, stopped off for a short time Sunday in Centre Hall, the former home of Mrs. Custer, nee Miss May M. Miller, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Miller. Their son, Philip, matriculated at Penn State college this year, at the age of seventeen years, having won high scholastic honors in the Johnstown High school.

The Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Democratic war horse, addressed a big gathering in the Auditorium in Millheim, on Wednesday evening of this week. Tickets sold for $2.00 each and the committee sold a sufficient number to more than pay the $300.00 for the Bryan lecture. Millheim is to be commended for its effort to secure so prominent a personage as the Commoner from Nebraska. In addition to the Bryan lecture, Millheim has a sullen lecture course for the season 1920-21.

Last Wednesday morning a heavy fog made the landing of two mail aviators at Bellefonte almost a physical impossibility, and one of the flyers looking for a "hole" in the fog landed in Stoner's field, at the Centre Hall station. The other mistook a column of smoke which is oftentimes sent up as a guide to the aviators on the aviation field, during fog, and landed on the penitentiary grounds at Rockview. He had rough landing, so it was said. The pilot who landed here stopped off until after dinner, refreshing himself at the Centre Hall hotel. From the number of times aviators have sought out the Stoner fields for ideal landing places, when fogs and other conditions made the regular fields look risky, it would appear that the best spot in Centre county was passed up when a desirable field was sought.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Fisher is visiting friends in New York City.

Tuesday, the first day of the autumn season, was a perfect day.

Home-made ice cream at the parlors of William McClenahan on Saturday evening.

Never make a mistake in your calling. If you have grain get into business; if you haven't get into society.

Rev. W. C. Welsch, of Mt. Union, will preach in the local Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Cleveland D. Mitterling was confined to bed for several days the past week suffering from an attack of grip, but is about again.

Merchant C. F. Emery made a trip to State College on Tuesday where he is having his eyes treated by Dr. J. V. Foster.

Shannon Boozer is taking his last year's work at the State College High school, making the trip daily from Centre Hall in his Ford runabout.

John McClenahan raised a stalk of potatoes this week which had 15 tubers, all nice size, hanging to the roots, and wants to know who can beat it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wachter motored here from Willow Grove, Philadelphia, on Saturday, and are visiting relatives of Mrs. Wachter, who is a daughter of the late John Potter.

Mrs. M. N. Miller, of near Centre Hall, who has been ill for some weeks, is not improving. In fact, her condition during the past week has been of a nature to alarm her family and friends.

The financial statement of the First National Bank at Spring Mills appears in this issue, and the steady growth in resources, as shown by the figures, indicates that the institution rests on a solid foundation.

The Stuart home on East College avenue, State College, has been sold by Mrs. Stuart to Drs. Grover and W. H. Glenn, who have remodeled the ground floor rooms, and each occupies a suite of fine offices.

If troubled with your eyes, remember that Gohl, Rouse & Poor, the Harrisburg eye specialists, will be in Centre Hall next Thursday, on their regular monthly visit. They have been coming here at regular intervals for the past two years and are reliable optometrists and opticians. For further information consult their ad. in this issue.

The citizens of Philipsburg have become righteously and justly indignant over the flagrant and wanton violation of the national constitution in the sale of intoxicating beverages and have also about reached the stage where action will be taken to bring to justice all offenders of the law. With their patience has ceased to be a virtue.—Philipsburg Journal.

Home Coming Day Big Event At State College.

The largest assemblage of Penn State alumni that has ever been held will take place on the college campus on October 8, 9 and 10 when the first annual "Alumni Home Coming celebration will be held. Extensive preparations are under way for the attendance of at least 1500 former students and graduates of Penn State. The big attraction for the occasion will be a football game between Penn State and Dartmouth, to be played on Saturday, the 9th.

The assemblage at that time will be strictly "stag" as a ban has been placed on the usual house party, and the entire campus and town will be turned over to the alumni. An attendance of over 10,000 is expected at the football game, and the largest crowds ever handled in the town will be there. Alumni Secretary E. N. Sullivan is preparing no set program for the home coming event, other than a general parade and stunts at the game, for the entire time of returning alumni will be taken up with social gatherings and "open house" where old friends and classmates may meet after years of separation.

Cox hits straight from the shoulder and talks to the hearts as well as the minds of his hearers. Roosevelt puts himself on friendly terms with his audience and talks a language they can understand as easily as they can understand Governor Cox. Senator Harding shifts from one foot to the other and changes his mind as often as he changes his shirt. What he says is less like a speech than a political shimmy.

EVERY BOY & GIRL HAS AN EQUAL CHANCE

Pony, Cart, Harness, Wagon, Sled and Sleigh, Free to Boy or Girl Writing Best Essay on "Advantages Of Buying In Altoona Booster Stores"

BOOSTER PONY & OUTFIT

Here is a picture of the Pony Outfit to be given away by the Altoona Booster Association, Saturday, October 2.

Every boy and girl in Central Pennsylvania has an equal chance. The winner of this handsome little outfit will be the boy or girl not yet 15 years of age who writes the best story on "Advantages of Buying in Altoona Booster Stores." Story must contain not over 200 words and must be written on one side of paper only.

Boy or girl must not yet be 15 years old.

Copy must be in Booster Association headquarters, Goldschmid Building, Altoona, not later than Saturday, September 25.

The Pony's name is Booster and must not be changed by the winner.

The age of the winner will be proven before the pony is awarded and every contestant's age must accompany the composition. It is not expected that a child of 6 or 7 years will write a story equal to the child of 12 or 13, and the judges will so consider each essay.

The pony and cart will be displayed on the main streets of Altoona during the Style Show, which is always an event of importance in Booster Stores, and at the Blair County Fair this week.

No child in any way connected with a member of the Booster Association will be permitted to compete.

The time is short, so GET BUSY and do it today.
