WHOM DO YOU PREFER?
At the last May Primary Election Thomas Beaver was nominated on the Republican ticket as candidate for General Assembly from Centre county over the Hon. Ives L. Harvey who had served only one term. Harvey won his nomination two years before over the united effort of the Republican organization to renominate Harry Scott for a third term. Harvey was nominated on a platform pledging himself to support the ratification of the 18th Amendment which of course was distasteful to the Scott-Quigley element of the party.
It is a time honored custom to accord a representative a renomination, but this custom was disregarded when Mr. Harvey asked for a second term. It was noised about that Beaver might seek the nomination, whereupon Mr. Harvey consulted Beaver who left Harvey under the impression that he (Beaver) would not be a candidate. After Harvey announced his candidacy Beaver was forced into the field against his personal desire and became the hand-picked nominee of the organization for that office thus endeavoring to administer a stinging rebuke for the good Harvey had done in voting as he did and punish him for nominating himself two years ago against the protest of the organization.
Frank E. Naginey, the Democratic nominee for that office, represents neither clique, faction nor organization, but is elected will be free to represent and will represent the people of Centre county and will not be under any obligation to any one except his constituents generally. Whom do you prefer?

THE DEATH RECORD.

MILLER.—Squire John H. Miller, one of the best known residents of Ferguson township, died at his home in the Glades at four o'clock on Tuesday afternoon of last week. While he had not been in the best of health the past year or so he was able to be around until about two weeks ago when he contracted a bad cold and complications developed which caused his death at the time above stated.

He was the oldest son of George and Mary Mosses Miller and would have been seventy-six years old on the 2nd day of November.

He married Miss Sarah Elizabeth Watt, oldest daughter of James and Sarah Taylor Watt, of Rock Springs, on November 18th, 1869. Mrs. Miller died twenty-two years ago. Surviving him are six children: Carrie M., wife of F. E. Wieland, of Linden Hall; Sarah Taylor, wife of C. L. Lemon, of Monessen; James Sumner, living at Pleasant Gap; George Blain, of Holidaysburg; Misses Gertrude and Maud, at home. There are also ten grandchildren and three brothers: James and Robert, of Freeport, Illinois; Charles, in Iowa. Mrs. Tammie Keller, Linden Hall; and Mrs. Ida Williams, at Pine Grove Mills, are sisters.

He was a member of the Spruce Creek Presbyterian church and was buried in the Graysville cemetery on Friday morning at 10 o'clock, the service being conducted by his pastor, Rev. R. M. Campbell.

He served in the 184th Regiment, Pa. Volunteers, during the Civil war; was wounded at Fredericksburg. After the close of the war he was engaged in farming on the farm where his life was spent, and which by his untiring labor became one of the best in that section.

John H. Miller was a man of strong character, true and upright in all his dealings, faithful to his church, his God, and his family. He always took an active part in all movements for the betterment of the community in which he was interested.

Politically he was a staunch Democrat, always faithful to his party, having held a number of offices of trust and responsibility.

Of him it may be truthfully said the world was better for his having lived in it. Honesty, integrity and duty were to him living principles and he faithfully applied them to life in its daily routine.

GALBRAITH.—James Galbraith, a veteran of the Civil War, and one of Harris township's well known citizens, died at his late residence, the home of Henry Reitz, at Boalsburg, on Sunday morning at nine o'clock, following an illness of several years. Burial was made Tuesday forenoon at Boalsburg, and the services were conducted by Rev. Elmer F. Brown.

The deceased was in his seventy-ninth year.

Another Mail Aviator Killed.

While flying to Bellefonte with a cargo of mail, Pilot F. A. Robinson struck a cable extending over the Susquehanna River near Millersburg, and dropped into the river. The aviator was killed.

It is thought the pilot lost his direction and was following the river on his way to Bellefonte.

Milton Fair, Oct 12-15.

The great Milton fair will be held at Milton on October 12, 13, 14 and 15. It promises to be the best ever. The best free attractions; the new Milton band; Hardy, the world's greatest high wire artist, are a few of the amusement features. See ad. for full particulars.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Rev. Mr. Spessard will preach in the Presbyterian church here next Sunday evening.

C. M. Fry, one of the Penn's trustees at the throttle, spent several days among relatives in the valley.

Hon. J. W. Keplar and N. T. Krebs, of Johnstown, spent Sunday with their families here.

Mrs. J. R. Smith is visiting relatives in and about Cleveland, Ohio, and expects to be gone a month.

W. F. Thompson mingled among the G. A. R. veterans at Indianapolis last week and then visited his brother and sister in Illinois.

Lumberman E. H. Bierly last Friday made a clean-up sale of his timber tract and saw mill outfit at the Erb Gap job, to Huyett and McNitt, who have their eye on several adjoining tracts.

Young Wagner Rishel had a close call for his life on Thursday night. While driving along the Boalsburg pike, near Lemont, the steering apparatus of his car went wrong and the car turned upside down over a ten-foot bank, pinning him fast beneath. His cries soon called out a farmer who raised the car. His one arm was badly cut, requiring several stitches, and the other arm was much bruised. The car was towed to a garage and later to his home at Oak Hall.

Last Thursday Ira Rumberger started cutting corn for Charles Behrs, at Rock Springs, with four horses hitched to a binder. The horses became unmanageable and ran off, dragging the aged man through the field of corn. Several carpenters roofing a barn nearby saw the antics of the horses and hurried to his aid. His shoulder was badly injured and he sustained numerous bruises over his body. The wonder is that he was not killed. He was rushed to the Bellefonte hospital where he is getting along as well as can be expected.

Honors for Local Farm Club.

Last week the Reporter mentioned that three young people of Penns Valley—Sarah Rishel, of Farmers Mills; Sarah Goodhart and Byron Decker, of near Spring Mills—winners in a stock-judging contest at State College, were privileged to go to the eastern States livestock exposition at Springfield, Massachusetts, which came to a close on Saturday. High honors were accorded this group at that exposition in the dairy judging.

The report sent out from State College to the newspapers says:

To a 17-year-old girl, Sarah Rishel, of Farmers Mills, and a member of the Centre county team, went the highest honors of the Pennsylvania delegation. She was a member of the team that won first place in the Guernsey butter judging contest, and was awarded the second highest individual honors in general livestock judging. Other members of the first place butter winning team were Sara Goodhart, 16, and Byron Decker, 18, both of Spring Mills. The Centre county team took third place in the Holstein contest and fourth in the general dairy class. Sara Rishel won a bronze medal for her individual work and with the other members of her class took third place in the Holstein test.

The team sent to Springfield won first place in the judging contest during farmers' week at State College last June. During the summer they were coached by State College specialists and their showing at the exposition was exceptional. The Wayne county Holstein team that won the farmers' week contest goes to the national dairy show at Chicago next month.

McKinney-Krape.

Charles Eugene McKinney and Miss Mary Edna Krape, both of Sunbury, were married at 10:30 o'clock last Thursday morning at St. John's Methodist Episcopal church, Sunbury, by the Rev. J. McKendree Reiley, the pastor. Present at the ceremony were the families and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony the newly wedded couple left for a western tour on their honeymoon. On their return they will go housekeeping in their newly furnished home at 155 N. Fourth street, Sunbury, where they will be at home after November 1.

Mr. McKinney is an employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad, while his wife is a former Centre Hall girl, where she lived for a time with her parents.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Mrs. Robb, of State College, visited her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Swartz, last week.

Ralph Rickert and family, of Dewart, were here to attend the funeral of Henry Moyer.

John H. Horner and family took dinner on Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Edward Bailey, at Centre Hall, and also made an auto trip to Penns Cave.

Harry McClellan is a juror this week at Bellefonte and leaves the road work in charge of those who have been assisting him.

Wm. Stoner purchased a tractor and a threshing machine.

Kenneth Wert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wert, who underwent an operation for appendicitis, is slowly recovering his health.

John Wert lost a good brood sow through bloating.

William Rockey purchased a bunch of steers last week.

William Bitner has the jump on most farmers—he has a good start in his corn cutting.

A. O. Detwiler killed the first early porker and shared it with his neighbors and friends.

SPRING MILLS.

Mr. Beezer and family, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the C. E. Royer home.

Charles Bartges, Jr., spent Sunday at his home.

The Smith families autoed to Huntingdon on Sunday.

William Allison, who has been bedfast for some time, is not improving.

Wallace Musser purchased a Maxwell car and Herbert Gobbie a Chevrolet.
Mr. and Mrs. George Potter spent Sunday at the G. C. King home.
Mr. and Mrs. Horace Herring are spending some time visiting in the state of Kansas.

CENTRE MILLS.

Roy Lambert, son of Harry Lambert, departed for Franklin & Marshall college.
Miles Bron, went to Linden Hall to help build a silo for Henry Gingerich.
John Day lost a valuable horse by death last week.
Roy held spent some time at home recently.

Arthur Kline, with his wife, and four children, of Altoona, and Mrs. Annie Cann, son and two little daughters, of Conemaugh, arrived at the home of John A. Kline on Friday and stayed over Sunday.

RED CROSS RELIEF IN CENTRAL EUROPE

But for timely assistance of the American Red Cross during the last year, a large proportion of the 20,000,000 population of the Balkan States might have starved or perished from disease or exposure. Six million dollars worth of food, clothing and medical supplies have been sent to the Balkans—Roumania, Bulgaria, Albania, Montenegro, Serbia, Bosnia and Greece—since the beginning of Red Cross relief operations in Central Europe, while millions of dollars worth of food alone has been sent to the needy in these states.

The money expended by the Red Cross in this stricken portion of Europe has been used to set up hospitals, orphanages, dispensaries, mobile medical units and to help in the general reconstruction of devastated areas. American tractors and other farming implements have been sent to the agricultural regions where aid has been given in plowing the land.

By the last of this year probably all American Red Cross agencies administering relief in Central Europe will have withdrawn. By that time, it is believed, the people will have approached a normal state of living and will be able through their own agencies which the Red Cross has helped set up to provide for themselves.
