CZAR'S JEWELS IN U. S. HANDS

Sent to Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, Bolshevik Envoy, by Soviet Government.

FOUND ON A SWEDISH SAILOR

Precious Stones, Supposed to Have Formed Part of Famous Jewels of Russian Royal Family, Unearthed by Federal Officers.

Washington.—Traffic by bolshevik agents in precious stones, supposed to have formed part of the famous jewels of the Russian royal family, has been unearthed by federal authorities. The 131 diamonds found on Nells Jacobson, a Swedish sailor, by customs officials in New York July 23, it became known, were inclosed in a package addressed to "Comrade Martens." Using this as a lead, federal officials began an investigation which they declare has definitely connected Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled soviet ambassador to the United States, with the traffic. Disclosure of the fact that the package was intended for soviet agents in this country was withheld by customs authorities when Jacobson was arrested, although the details as to the seizure of the jewels themselves were then made public.

Identifies Martens' Aid. Jacobsen, officials say, identified during the course of the investigation a photograph of Santeri Nuorteva, former secretary of Martens, as a person to whom previous packages had been delivered.

Introduction of the alleged incriminatory evidence of the traffic in precious stones between soviet representatives in this country and abroad at the last hearing in the last deportation proceedings against Martens resulted in postponement of further hearings to enable the self-styled ambassador to obtain evidence, if possible, in refutation of the charges.

Counsel for Martens already has asked that the government commission be sent to Stockholm to investigate the system in which he is accused of being implicated. Perfect Courier System. Begun six months ago, the smuggling is described by government officials as the most perfectly organized courier service between bolshevik agents abroad and in the United States that has been discovered. Inclosed about the diamonds taken from the possession of the Swedish sailor Jacobson, whom officials exonerated from any complicity in the illegal proceedings, was a quantity of communist literature, including an appeal of the executive committee of the third international at Moscow to the I. W. W." This manifesto declared: "Unless the workers of our countries rise against their own capitalists the Russian revolution cannot last."

GIRL SAVES PREACHER'S LIFE

University Student Sucks Blood From His Leg After Attack of Rattlesnake.

Chicago.—Miss Frances B. Holstein, a student at the University of Illinois, earned her scholarship and a Carnegie medal by methods quite out of the ordinary. She saved the life of Rev. Benjamin W. Soper, pastor of a small church in Florida, by quick thought and action after he had been bitten in the ankle by a large rattlesnake, one of the lozy, highly venomous type so frequently met with in Florida. Miss Holstein was one of a party which included Rev. Mr. Soper, Bishop Cameron Mann of the Episcopal diocese of Florida, and others who were enjoying a picnic near Coconut Grove. Rev. Mr. Soper was bringing a pail of water from an adjacent spring when he was struck by the rattlesnake. Bishop Mann immediately killed the snake, but Miss Holstein gave her attention to the wounded

MADE FROM WORNOUT GUNS

Paris.—The super-cannon which the Germans began shelling Paris, March 23, 1918, was just pieces of old, wornout guns put together, instead of a startling new invention, according to American army officers, who were permitted recently by the Germans to visit some of their huge armories. It was actually just a neat bit of patchwork that startled the world when the terrific explosions began detonating in the streets of the city of Bullets of Bandits, British and Greeks Keep Americans on the Jump.

Constantinople.—Many Americans have had narrow escapes in the fighting which British and Greek troops have kept up for several weeks with the bandits which are harassing the eastern shore of the Bosphorus. Belkos, a summer place ten miles north of this city reached by hourly ferry service, has been the chief center of the fights between bands of adherents of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, nationalist leader, and the British-Greek soldiers operating under the artillery protection of British warships. An American oil company is erecting two great steel tanks at Belkos,

Motorists Startled by Cigarette-Smoking Snake

Motoring near Bellefonte, Pa., a party of motorists were confronted by a huge blacksnake coiled in the middle of the road, smoking a cigarette. They rubbed their eyes to make sure they were not seeing things when they heard laughing nearby and several young men stopped from the bushes. They were members of Prof. J. A. Ferguson's class of foresters from the Pennsylvania State college, who were camping nearby and had killed the snake and put the cigarette in its mouth to see what would happen when the first man who came along would discover it.

Girls Help at Threshing.

Petersburg, Ind.—Owing to the scarcity of labor in the vicinity of Orwell, Olive Rhoades, winner of the plowing contest at Oakland City, called five of her girl friends to help Peter Himsel, owner of the largest farming interests in Pike county, to thresh his wheat crop. Besides Miss Rhoades, Louis Clark, Verda Dempsey, Maude and Helen Harris and Edna Gray assisted Mr. Himsel. The girls helped load and unload the wheat wagons and also drove the wagons from the field to the threshing machine.

CURRENT WIT and HUMOR

MUZZLE PUZZLE.

Styles—I have repeatedly told my wife that I wanted her to muzzle her dog.
Myles—Perfectly right.
"But she has repeatedly told me she'd do nothing of the kind."
"Well, what was the result?"
"We compromised."
"How so?"
"She muzzled me."

Where the Guests All Go.
"We're having our cellar decorated; going to put some rugs on the cement floors and hang our best pictures on the walls."
"What's the idea?"
"If I've got to entertain all my friends down here I thought I might as well have the place made home-like and respectable."

An Easy Mark.
"There's a lady up in front who wants to buy an oriental vase," said the curio dealer's assistant.
"Does she look as if she had money?"
"Yes, but she doesn't look as if she'd had it long."
"Good. I'll wait on her myself."

For Effect.
"Why are you always so careful to lock your trunk when there's absolutely nothing of value in it?"
"For just that reason. If my landlady discovered its true state, I'd have to settle up at once."

A MISNOMER.

"I can't understand why they call this a pleasure car."
"Why not?"
"The blame thing has given me nothing but trouble."

In Real Life.
To marry a fairy sounds well in a book. But wary men marry a competent cook.

Their Tendency.
"Courtroom doors ought to be constructed on a liberal scale."
"For what purpose?"
"Because they are intended to be open to conviction."

The Awful Child.
"Miss Katie, why is your head so quiet? I want to hear it."
"What do you mean, child?"
"I heard you tell pa you were rat-te-brained."

The Instrument.
"The typewriter is too prosaic an instrument for me. My instrument must be attuned to my mood. When I feel fierce and aggressive I write with a steel pen; when I describe beauty, riches and power I write with a gold one."
"I suppose, then, ordinarily, you use the quill of a goose."

Its Nature.
"It seems so odd to me to see that baby carriage factory man advertising his business as an old and long established one."
"Why shouldn't he?"
"How can it be anything else but an infant industry?"

Quick.
"Will you be my wife?"
"Yes."
"Gosh. It didn't take you long to think up your acceptance speech."

Their Class.
"All babies, no matter what their nationalities, belong to one race."
"What might that be?"
"The yell-oh race."

Easily Fixed.
"What will you give me for this horse?"
"A load of hay," replied the farmer.
"What would I want with hay and no horse to eat it?"
"Well, I'd be willing to lend you the horse till the hay was all gone."

The Effect.
"When you accused him of jealousy, did he change color?"
"He certainly did. When I told him I saw he was green with envy, he grew red."

BAD RISK TO KEEP SICK

Insurance Companies Won't Take a Man Who Suffers Continually From Stomach or Liver Troubles.

Acworth, Ga.—"We have used Black-Draught in our family for years, and can say I never have found a liver medicine that could equal it," writes Mrs. J. A. Millwood, of this place. "It is fine for indigestion, headache and sour stomach," she continues.

"I use it for the family, and certainly feel it has saved me a lot of money. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and am sure if others would use it they would be as glad as I've been."

Thousands of families keep Thedford's Black-Draught in the house all the time, for use at the first sign of indigestion, constipation, colic, colds and fever, thereby preventing illnesses that might develop seriously.

EVIDENTLY NOT AN EXPERT

Visiting Minister Asking Blessing at Table Was Completely Outclassed by Little Isabel.

To eight-year-old Isabel ever since she has been able to lip has fallen the honor in her family of saying the blessing at meals. Consequently she was indignant the other night when at supper her father transferred this privilege to a clergyman who was a dinner guest.

Isabel had already clasped her hands and was bowing her head preparatory to starting the prayer when her father took the fatal step:

"Mr. Funderkin," he said, "will you say the blessing?"
Isabel shot a baleful look at the guest, but a warning expression of her mother's face silenced the protest. Apparently submitting, Isabel bowed her head and her lips moved swiftly as Mr. Funderkin murmured the blessing. The prayer completed, Isabel lifted her head beaming triumphantly.
"I said the blessing six times while you were saying it once," she told Mr. Funderkin.—New York Evening Sun.
