

SIX MONTHS I COULD NOT WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Me Strong and Able to Work—I Recommend It To All My Friends.

Bayonne, N. J.—“I had pains in back and legs so that I could not stand caused by female trouble. I felt so tired all the time, had bad headaches, and for six months I could not work. I was treated by a physician and took other remedies but got no relief. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me very much. I am well and strong and now able to do my work. I cannot thank you enough and I recommend your medicine to my friends who are sick.”—Mrs. SUSIE SACATANSKY, 25 East 17th St., Bayonne, N. J.

It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for over forty years, and today hold a record for such wonderful success as does Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

Causes of Eye Strain.
The efficiency of the eye as a working instrument is reduced materially by the presence of a distracting object in the field of vision, more particularly if near to the eye and close to the line of sight. Such objects are the dark and prominent rims of tortoise-shell glasses, curved-eye shades with dark linings, and the like. By tending to cause the eye reflexly to adjust for them rather than for their work, these objects subject the eye to unnecessary and harmful muscular strain, eye experts declare.

CATALINE

Lucius Sergius Cataline was a well-known Roman citizen who invented the modern home-intent villain, although lacking the string mustache and chronic throat trouble of the latter. He was born of a patrician family and brought up in a home which had every luxury except the long-winded gas meter, yet he became one of the crookedest men in the Roman empire and died a brutal and unpleasant death.

Cataline was a man of great natural talent and might have succeeded in a business way, but instead of opening a general store or a first-class livery barn, he engaged in politics, which has been the ruin of so many men who could not earn $1.50 a day in any other way. One of his opponents was Cicero, the silver-tongued orator, who was running for consul. Cicero was a fine man, who limited himself strictly to one wife, and when they got through counting the votes Cataline could not be seen for the dust. Enraged by this rebuff, Cataline hired two of his election judges to assassinate Cicero in a stealthy and underhanded manner, but Cicero's life was saved by a lady friend and he lived long enough to compile all of his orations in one book and hurl them at the head of the high school student.

Cataline then gathered up an alleged army and sought to put the Roman eagle on its back. After fighting bravely, however, his troops were

CARE OF CHILDREN'S TEETH IS IMPORTANT

The examination, dental treatment and daily care of the teeth are matters of the greatest importance for all school children. All decayed teeth, whether temporary or permanent, should be filled or otherwise treated. Malocclusion (ineffective meeting) of the teeth should be remedied and can be corrected in early childhood.

It has been recently demonstrated that (in addition to daily brushing), the cleaning of the teeth of children every three to six months by a dentist or properly trained dental hygienist will prevent most of the decay of teeth which takes place.

It may be predicted with entire confidence that in the near future adequate dental care will be insured to all school children in the country as well as in the cities. No item in all the wonderful measures for the health care of the soldiers in the trenches of Europe was more significant than the treatment of the teeth provided by dedicated and he was roughly handled himself, being found prone on his stomach with several short Roman swords imbedded in his person, death being due to heart failure.

Cataline was married twice. He was disappointed in his first wife, who was a plain, homespun body, and he is accused of having poisoned her in the brusque and successful fashion of the times. History does not say anything about his second wife, but as he was away from home most of the time after the marriage ceremony it is presumed that retribution overtook him in two jumps.

Last Night's Dreams

—What They Mean

DID YOU DREAM ABOUT ADAM AND EVE?

AMONG the modern scientific dream investigators one school, led by Freud, regards all dreams as having for their primal source a wish, which wish may be lying dormant, as it were, in the “psychic” of the dreamer without his being conscious in his waking hours that he possesses it. Another school of which Havelock Willis may be taken as a representative, regards only a portion of our dreams as “wish dreams” while a the automobile dentist officer used in France and other countries. Many of the cities provide dental service for their school children. Shall not our children in the country schools—future citizens and if necessary, republicans—defenders of our own republic—receive equally good dental care?

SCHOOL DAYS

The establishment of effective habits of daily brushing and cleansing of the teeth is one of the most essential features in health teaching in the schools. Every child should have his third—rejects the wish theory altogether.

The Freudian school would explain a dream of Adam and Eve as the coping to life in our dream consciousness of a longing for a return to the state of innocence and bliss of our first parents, for paradise, as an attempt of the dream ego to “come to the guarded gate and softly smuggle through where the wraith of Eve lies red on the turf as she left it long ago.” Ellis would accept this explanation with doubt while others would declare that the dream was only a more or less distorted recollection of something which we had seen, heard or read during the day.

The mystics, however, rejecting the theories of the scientists, boldly proclaim the prophetic symbolism of the dream. To them to dream of Adam and Eve means many good things coming to you, including a birth in the family. Adam seems to play the principal part in this dream. Watch his face. If he has a good-natured look success is yours in love and business. To the farmer it means abundant crops and high prices. It would appear as if most farmers had had this dream of late. If you have a lawsuit on hand you will win. If Adam looks displeased be very cautious in your affairs, for others are seeking to do you mischief, though by being careful you will get the better of them. Don't take a sea voyage for a month or two.

Singularly enough, perhaps from an association of the birthplace of the human race with our own, this dream is an omen that success is coming to you in your native town and you should not leave it for other scenes of activity. If you are away from your native town return there; for there lies your fortune. It is a good dream anyway whether a dream-fulfilled longing for paradise or an omen of home and prosperity.

An East Nashville Grocer Says He Has Used Black-Draught for Years, Whenever Troubled With Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—“You ask me about Black-Draught. It is without doubt the best liver medicine made, and I don't believe I could get along without it,” declared Mr. W. N. Parsons, recently.

He Knew Mother. William Wallace is generally called Bill by his mother and father.

The other day he was playing in the yard with a neighbor boy. It was near lunch time. Mother called: “William.” (No answer.) “William Wallace!” Then she heard him regretfully part with his playmate in this fashion: “Well, Jim, I gotta go now. When my mother calls me by my regular name she means business.”

The Woods

TO A CAGED BIRD.

Voice of the forest, tongue by which it speaks
The throbbing gladness of its verbal time,
No more, no more, your rising pinton seeks
The heights sublime.

Voice of the forest, once your gay wings beat
Against the mountain diademed with stars;
Now do men bid you sing a song as sweet
To prison bars.

Only a singer that they, passing, heard
And then desired, like book and pipe and bowl—
Knowing nor caring when they cage a bird
They cage a soul.

MOTHER'S COOK BOOK by Nellie Maxwell

Don't be afraid of changing your mind. Everything changes; why, then, should your opinions remain the same? Thinking means development. Development means change. Without thinking you drift backward.—Lloyd.

HONEY DISHES.
The substitution of honey for sugar is not to be recommended, as the physical properties of honey are quite different from sugar. The following are tried recipes:
Cream Cookies.
Take one cupful of extracted honey, one pint of sour cream, a tablespoonful of soda, flavoring to suit the taste, and flour to make a soft dough. Chill well before rolling.

Tennessee Cookies.
Melt together one cupful each of honey and lard or butter. When cool add one-third of a cupful of sugar, a pinch of salt, a tablespoonful of soda and an egg. Add flour to make a stiff dough, roll and cut as usual.

Plum Butter.
Take four quarts of plums after being rubbed through a colander. Let the mixture come to a boil, then add one quart of honey, one quart of sugar, or two quarts of sugar, and boil until it crusts over the top when cool, or about 15 minutes. Stir frequently to keep from burning.

Raisin Cake.
Beat three eggs, add one cupful of honey, four tablespoonfuls of butter, one cupful of sweet milk, one and one-third cupfuls of raisins chopped, three cupfuls of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt, the same of soda and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of vanilla extract.

Sandwiches.
Cut bread as fresh as possible and spread with fresh butter, creamed; then spread with honey, sprinkle with nuts and put together as sandwiches.

Movies to Trace Lost Dog.
The movies in southwest London have been asked to exhibit a slide of “Tyke,” described as an “old yellow curly Irish terrier, with a wavy tail,” belonging to a lady in Chelsea. The Mercenaries.
Brander Matthews, the famous critic, discussed at a Columbia tea the American short story.

“The American short story would be better,” he said, “if the American short story writer were less mercenary. I'd like him to think more of beauty and less of cash.”

“A short story writer read me one of his tales the other day. It wasn't bad, and I told him so.”

“I like the thing,” I said, “it's realistic.”

“The short story writer beamed. ‘Realistic!’ he cried. ‘That's the word I want to hear. And how much, Mr. Matthews, do you think it will realize?’”

One can bear grief, but it takes two to be glad.
