Vote for Connelly for Congress.

To give a Democratic president an opportunity to do his best he must have a Democratic congress back of him. It is therefore very necessary to elect John D. Connelly, the Democratic candidate in this district. Vote for him.

The independent voter should not fail to vote for John D. Connelly for Congress. His name will be found in the Democratic column, but he stands for everything that a Democrat and independent voter can wish for.

Evan J. Jones, during the past two sessions of Congress, had the opportunity to go on record upon fourteen different propositions or resolutions affecting prohibition enforcement. He failed to vote on a single resolution. He was paired with Republican Congressman-at-large Crago on eight of these votes, and on the remaining six he failed to vote or "pair" at all. One of these latter failures was upon the overriding of the Presidential veto of war-time prohibition. He failed to vote on the proposition to provide appropriation sufficient to enforce prohibition on the Indian reservations and he also failed to vote when the successful attempt was made to tie the National Prohibition enforcement officer Kremer's hands by cutting his appropriation demands from $15,000,000 down to three.

Mr. Jones had the hearty support of the liquor interests against the Democratic candidate for Congress two years ago and his "straddle" on the prohibition question may justly be charged to that fact. He is now posing as a prohibitionist and then Republican and corporation influences have been foisted upon the prohibition ticket.

Don't let any Democratic or real friend of prohibition be fooled by such subterfuge. James D. Connelly, the Democratic and Labor Party candidate, is consistently "dry" and favors rigid enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment. He has been the city editor of Clearfield county's leading "dry" newspaper for the past four years and his voice, vote and pen has been staunchly supporting anti-liquor sentiments and candidates, irrespective of party, for the past ten years.

Rebuke the straddling self-seeking Congressman Jones by voting to send J. D. Connelly to Congress from the 21st district. He is capable and deserving.

James D. Connelly, the Democratic and Labor Party candidate for Congress from the 21st district, is deserving of the support of every Democrat and independent voter in Centre County. He was born in Clearfield fifty years ago and is one of the best known newspaper men in Clearfield county. He learned the printing trade in the Clearfield Democrat office and for more than twenty years was business manager and local editor of the Clearfield Public Spirit, one of the leading Democratic papers of the central part of the State; for the past four years he has been city editor of the Clearfield Progress. He has been an active Democrat all his life, and represented his county at State conventions and on the State Committee. He was the secretary of the last Democratic State convention in 1912 and has always been a strong supporter of progressive Democratic principles.

He has been secretary of council or city clerk of Clearfield since 1908 and is active in all civic matters. An active volunteer fireman, he served as chief of Clearfield Fire Department and position of president and secretary of the District Reunion Association of the firemen.

Familiar with the needs or necessities of his district, Mr. Connelly is qualified to successfully represent us in Congress. Vote for him.

When Congressman Jones was in Centre county last week his busiest helper and personal escort much of the time was Davy Chambers, the liquor boss of Snow Shoe. A prohibition candidate being supported by a liquor dealer was something of a rarity in these parts before this campaign. Congressman Jones appears to be "dry" enough for some "political prohibitionists" up in McKean county but when he strikes the hills of old Centre he seems to be "moist" enough for Scott, Chambers & Co. Politics makes strange bedfellows but in Centre county "drys" will certainly refuse to get under the covers with Jones and the Snow Shoe liquor boss.

Democrats this year will not make a mistake if they place a cross in the party column. It is a sure way to vote for the best candidates on the ballot.

No matter what your politics has been in the past, you can vote for John D. Connelly for congress because he is the people's candidate. His vote in congress, if elected, will be cast in the interest of all regardless of party.

In a large number of instances the Republican member of congress from this district voted wrong—contrary to the best interests of the people he was supposed to represent. Mr. Connelly has promised to represent the voters as a whole. Vote for Connelly for congress.

WAR OR PEACE.

Forty-one nations have ratified the League of Nations to prevent future wars and preserve international peace on conditions of right and justice. None of these nations, including all of great powers of the world, excepting the United States and Russia, have found aught in the terms of the covenant abridging their sovereignty. Russia is not at present under the control of rulers who acknowledge the binding force of treaty obligations. The United States alone stands aloof, although it took part in the great war to put an end to militarism and was mainly responsible for the adoption of the League as one of the essential parts of the peace treaty.

Thus far the Senate has failed to ratify the treaty of peace. The question of ratification has been practically referred to the voters of the country. On November 2 every voter will be asked to decide for himself or herself whether we shall have war or peace.

Shall we go on and tax ourselves for the maintenance of a standing army, a fleet of battleships, airships and all the costly contrivances for the destruction of life and property, or shall we agree to keep the peace, as the whole civilized world now asks us to do? It is not a question of partisanship. It is a question of morals and duty. Never in the nineteen hundred and twenty years since the Prince of Peace came into the world to make it a better world to live in has there been such an opportunity of right doing as now confronts the people of this country.—Philadelphia Record.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS.

"You have been grossly misled with regard to the treaty, and particularly with regard to the proposed character of the League of Nations by those who have assumed the serious responsibility of opposing it. They have gone so far that those who have spent their lives, as I have spent my life, in familiarizing themselves with the history and traditions and policies of the nation, must stand amazed at the gross ignorance and impudent audacity which have led them to attempt to invent an 'Americanism' of their own, which has no foundation whatever in any of the authentic traditions of the Government.

"They (the creators of this Government) thought of America as the light of the world as created to lead the world in the assertion of the rights of peoples and the rights of free nations; as destined to set the responsible examples to all the world of what free government is and can do for the maintenance of right standards, both national and international."—Woodrow Wilson.

THE DEATH RECORD.

HENNIGH—Mrs. Ella Jane, wife of S. P. Hennigh, passed into the beyond at her home in Georges Valley, on Friday night at one o'clock. Her death was due to gangrene, from which she suffered for about four weeks, being confined to bed the greater part of the time.

Mrs. Hennigh was formerly Miss Ella Jane Dunlap, and was born in Lycoming county over fifty-eight years ago. She was a woman of tender impulses and her family and home were her first consideration. She's survived by her husband and a family of seven children, namely: David E., of Roseburg, Oregon; Mrs. L. M. Barger, Centre Hall; H. Ellis, Spring Mills; Franklin C., Williamsport; E. Elizabeth, Washington, D. C.; Georges B., Ames, Iowa, and Irwin W., at home. Also by one sister—Miss Mary Dunlap, of Newberry, and two brothers—Charles, of Virginia state, and H. Dill, of Williamsport.

Deceased was a member of the United Evangelical church, and her pastor, Rev. J. F. Bingman, had charge of the funeral services which were held Tuesday morning at Egg Hill, followed by burial at that place.

GLASGOW—James W. Glasgow, for the past thirty years in the mercantile business at Coburn, died at his home the early part of the week. He suffered from dropsy. About fifty-five years ago he was born on the south side of Potter township, a son of the late John Glasgow. He is survived by his wife, nee Miss Stitzer, and seven children.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning.

LINGLE—A paralytic stroke on Friday resulted in the death of Mrs. Solomon Lingle at her home on the Allison farm, above Spring Mills, on Monday morning at five o'clock. She was before marriage Miss Elizabeth From and she was seventy-one years of age. Besides her husband she is survived by a large family of children, most of whom are married and are away from home.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning and burial will be made in Georges Valley. Rev. I. C. Bailey, of the United Evangelical church, of which the deceased was a member, will officiate.

WOLF—Martin Luther Wolf died Sunday a week ago at his home in Altoona from acute dilation of the heart. He was a son of Emanuel Wolf and was born at Boalsburg, July 23, 1845. He located in Altoona fifteen years ago. Mr. Wolf married Miss Nora Stover, of Boalsburg, December 30, 1880. Besides his wife and four children, he leaves one brother, A. S. Wolf, of Kiser, W. Va., and two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Weaver, of State College, and Mrs. Milton Mater, of Altoona. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon and burial made in Altoona.

CONFER—Mrs. Hannah Confer, widow of Peter A. Confer, died at Millheim on Monday, being past 87 years of age. Burial at Millheim this (Thursday) afternoon.

Funeral of Jonathan Spangler.

The funeral of Jonathan Spangler, notice of whose death appeared in these columns last week, was held in the United Evangelical church at Rebersburg, last Saturday morning, Rev. C. B. Shank, his pastor, officiating. Burial made in the Evangelical Association cemetery.

Deceased was born on April 26, 1842, hence was past seventy-eight years of age. His death was due to a complication of diseases. On the 13th of Oct. he went to the Lock Haven hospital with the hope of getting relief, but he passed away on Tuesday of last week.

Six children survive: Joe, of Newton, Kan.; Charles, of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Wm. Burt, of Tobias, Neb.; Mrs. Chas. McFadden, of Fair Mount, Neb.; Mrs. C. F. Stover, of Rebersburg; Rev. Ira Spangler, of Carlisle. Two brothers and one sister also survive, namely, Simon, of Newton, Kan.; Uriah, of Heston, Kan.; Mrs. Barbara Condo, of Belleville.

A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE YOU.

NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.
