The pretty farm home of ex County Treasurer George Fink, situated about one mile North of Martha Furnace, was sold to Dr. W. Heaton, of Philipsburg for $3,000. The farm, embracing 225 acres, with fine buildings, is one of the best in Bald Eagle Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Smith entertained a number of young friends of their daughter, Louise, on Monday evening, in honor of her twelfth birthday anniversary. Supper was served and a birthday cake, set with twelve lighted candles, was a feature enjoyed by the youngsters.

Clay W. Reesman, of Camden, New Jersey, enroute to the state of Kansas, stopped off for a short time Friday in Centre Hall. He holds the position of manager of the financial department of the Silver Rock Mining Co., and the recent purchase by the company of a large section of land in Kansas is what took him to that part of the country at this time.

The male quartet of the Pennsylvania State College student glee club will sail from New York on December 9, for the Panama canal zone where it will provide entertainment for soldiers and government employees during the week preceding Christmas. The trip will be made under the auspices of the government, and will be third of its kind for a Penn State musical organization during the past seven years. Varsity quartets appeared in Panama in 1913 and 1916.

Corn, Potato and Apple Show.
A corn, potato and apple show will be held in connection with the Annual Meeting of the Centre County Farm Bureau on Thursday, December 23rd, in the Court room at Bellefonte.

Start now to select your exhibits. An exhibit of corn shall consist of ten ears, an exhibit of apples, five apples, an exhibit of potatoes five potatoes.

A premium of $5.00 will be given for the best exhibit each of corn, potatoes and apples. The best exhibits in this show will be sent to Harrisburg to compete in the State Farm Product Show in January.

Send or take your exhibits to the Farm Bureau office between Dec. 10 and 21st. Plan now to have several exhibits and to attend the annual meeting of the Farm Bureau on Dec. 23rd.

New Sire for College Herd.
The Pennsylvania State College has been very fortunate in securing an exceptionally well bred Holstein bull calf as a future sire for the college dairy herd. He is King Valdessa Pontiac Tobe, and was selected by E. S. Bayard, one of the college trustees, and editor of the "National Stockman and Farmer," cooperating with Prof. A. A. Borland, head of the college dairy husbandry department. He was Corapolis, and is an individual of good type and high producing ancestry. His mother is one of the handomest cows of the breed, with a record of nearly thirty pounds of butter in seven days as a four year old. His sire is King Valdessa Pontiac.

RIPENING CREAM—A good method for ripening cream on the farm is to hold the first skimming of cream at 75 degrees F. until it begins to sour, and then cool to between 50 and 55 degrees and stir each successive gathering of cream, after cooling, into the first lot. After the last gathering has been added allow the cream to stand for eight hours when it is ready to churn.

Biliousness

WHEN you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. There is nothing better.

Chamberlain's Tablets

"A man just said, a few minutes ago, he would not think of leaving home without a package of Lane's Cold Tablets in his bag, and every one who has used these tablets speaks just as highly of them."
