

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP

Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wyandotte, Mich.—“For the last four years I have doctored off and on. I have had pains every month so bad that I would nearly double up. Sometimes I could not sweep a room without stopping to rest, and everything late upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and sent him to the drug-store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to throw the doctor's medicine away. After taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash I could do my own housework. If it had not been for your medicine I don't know where I would be today and I am never without a bottle of it in the house. You may publish this if you like that it may help some other woman.”—Mrs. MARY SPENDER, 120 Orange St., Wyandotte, Mich.

Back Given Out?

There's surely some reason for that lame, aching back. Likely it's your kidneys. A cold or strain oftentimes congests the kidneys and slows them up. That may be the reason for that nagging headache, those sharp pains, that tired, worn-out feeling. You may have headaches and dizzy spells, too, with annoying bladder irregularity. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands. Ask your neighbor!

A Maryland Case

Mrs. Charles Bell, 428 S. Parrish St., Baltimore, Md., says: "My back was in an awful condition and after I did my washing or ironing my head ached so I had to sit down until relieved. I was so run down and played out I hardly had strength enough to be around. I had dizzy spells. My kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended and two boxes cured me."

LAST NIGHT'S DREAMS

-WHAT THEY MEAN-

DID YOU DREAM ABOUT CHEESE? another declares that in order to have the cheese of your dreams bring you real money you must dream of making it instead of eating it.

"PERHAPS," said Scrooge to the ghost of Marley when the old skinflint fell asleep by the fire and had the delightful Christmas dream which Mr. Dickens has set down for us, "perhaps you are but a bit of undigested cheese." And cheese, from the days when Odysseus visited the dairy of the Cyclops in the early dusk and dawn of time down to the present era, has always been considered to have an intimate relation to dreams. Especially if the cheese is gathered in the form of a Welsh rarebit.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good By JESSIE ROBERTS HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS

WHO shall say that adventure and variety are not allied to the home and domestic science? The girl who chooses household economics for her career need not give up hope of travel and excitement. Witness Miss Grace Ferguson, who has only lately returned to New York City from an absence of six years in Porto Rico, where she was teaching the elements of home economics to an entire nation. Miss Ferguson covered fifty-odd towns in her work, and established schools in all the places visited. She made an exhaustive study of foods and their value, and of prices, and she taught women in that tropic isle how to get the most for their money when they went marketing, and how to have the best meats at the least cost the year round.

A woman who takes a course in domestic science of the advanced type can now-a-days look forward to plenty of work and a good income. She is going to do quite as well, if not better, than her sister who took a business course and went in an office, and she has practically no male competition to fear.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS

"DOLLAR."

WHILE the United States was the first to coin the piece of money known as the "dollar," the word itself was coined long before, as evidenced by the fact that Shakespeare uses it frequently. In "Macbeth," for example, appears the statement: "Nor would we daign him burial of his men Till he be buried, at St. Colme's Inch. Ten thousand dollars to our general use."

THE WOODS

BY DOUGLAS MALLOCH THE CHICKADEE.

There's somethin' 'bout the chickadee 'Thet's, somehow, awful cheerin'; Around the shanty door it bums An' gethers up the crusts an' crumbs Cook scatters in the clearin'.

It gethers up the crusts an' crumbs An' jest as glad it chatters As if it fed on biscuit fine All soaked in milk er dipped in wine An' served on silver platters.

My share of life is crusts an' crumbs I find somehow er other; An' how I wish that I could be Like you are, Mr. Chickadee, My cheerful little brother! (Copyright.)

MOTHER'S COOK BOOK by Nellie Maxwell

"The young man thinks the Swiss apron with the lace makes his intended look like a picture as she presides at the chafing dish; but after he puts the ring on her finger and planks down the five to the preacher he sighs because she hasn't a pinched blue gingham and can't preside gracefully over the cook stove."

FOOD FOR THE FAMILY

Dates are so wholesome and full of food value, a desert of dates is easy to prepare and is sufficiently satisfying. Wash and cut the dates in halves, sprinkle with broken bits of pecan nuts; drop over each dish of dates a spoonful of sweetened and flavored whipped cream and serve.

Simple Salad. Arrange balls of cheese which have been mixed with cream and seasonings, on the white-leaves of lettuce with a spoonful of crab apple jelly on the side of each salad plate.

A pie that is simply delicious is prepared in the usual way for a custard pie, then just before going into the oven sprinkle with a cupful of minced black walnut meats. It bakes making a rich crust over the top, too good to be true.

Frizzed Beef. Pull the white thread-like portions from a half-pound of dried beef, cover with boiling water, and stand on the back of the range where it will keep hot but not cook. In ten minutes, drain and dry on a cloth. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a frying pan, put in the meat and stir while it absorbs the butter and curls. Pour over a cup of hot cream and add a well beaten egg. Serve hot.

Hot Water Gingerbread. Take one cupful each of sugar and molasses, one-half cupful of melted lard, one teaspoonful of salt, three cupfuls of flour, one egg, and lastly one cupful of boiling water in which a teaspoonful of soda has been stirred. Sift a tablespoonful of ginger into the flour. Pour the mixture which will seem very thin into a large-sized baking pan and bake until firm. This makes an ideal dessert with apple sauce and cottage cheese. This cake may be baked in small gem pans and served as pudding with any desired sauce or whipped cream.

Tea Biscuits. Bake baking powder biscuits after cutting with a cutter one inch in diameter. When baked split open, butter, spread with raspberry or any preferred jam, put together and serve with a cup of tea. They make a most dainty mouthful.

Onion Soup. Slice six medium-sized onions and cook in two tablespoonfuls of butter, stirring until a light brown; add two small cans of consommé, or one quart of well-flavored clear broth; let cook 15 minutes. Add three tablespoonfuls of parmesan cheese, one teaspoonful of kitchen bouquet, salt, pepper, paprika and celery salt to taste; add two cupfuls of hot water and simmer until the cheese is thoroughly blended.

Slang and Idioms. That the slang and idioms of today will be correct English tomorrow is the opinion of Professor Gleickman, University of Wisconsin. "Our language is made up of what was once slang, idioms, colloquialism and jargon," he said recently.
