

THE CENTRE REPORTER
ISSUED WEEKLY.

CENTRE HALL - - PENN'A.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 1921

SMITH & BAILEY Proprietors
S. W. SMITH Editor
EDWARD E. BAILEY { Local Editor and Business Manager

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

PENN'S VALLEY LUTHERAN CHARGE
REV. MELVIN C. DRUMPT, Pastor

Services for

SUNDAY, JANUARY 9, 1921.

Centre Hall, 10:30 a. m.—Holy Communion and Confirmation, Reception of Members, Baptism, etc.

Spring Mills, 2:30—(Same as above.)
7:30 p. m.—Prayer Service in Centre Hall Lutheran church. Subject by the pastor, "The Community's Debt to the Church."

Catechetical instruction as follows:
Centre Hall—Sat., 4:30 p. m.
Spring Mills—Sat., 1:30 p. m.

No prayer meeting separate or T. T. Class this week.

No service at Tusseyville Sunday evening unless further announced. Come to Centre Hall.

U. Ev. — Lemont, morning and evening; Linden Hall, afternoon.

Reformed.—Spring Mills, morning; Union, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Isaac Smith has been confined to bed on account of illness, for the past few weeks.

Miss Ruth Osman, from Glen Iron, called on her friend, Miss Mary Bingham, on Sunday afternoon.

James Smith, of Williamsport, visited his mother, Mrs. Isaac Smith, for a short time last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Reitz, of Ithaca, New York, are spending some time with the latter's mother, Mrs. Margaret Thomas, in Centre Hall.

A congregational meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, following Sunday-school, to act upon the election of a pastor.

The gold watch and chain lost by Cleve Mitterling, a week or so ago, was found by him near the cattle yard at the railroad station, a few days afterwards.

Miss Helen Brubaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brubaker, of Centre Hall, left on New Year's day for Jacksonville, Florida, where she will spend the winter.

The "Busy Bee" sewing circle held a social in the Grange hall last Friday evening for the benefit of the Near East Relief. $45.00 was taken in through the sale of ice cream, cake, sandwiches, etc.

D. E. Snyder, of Boalsburg, was a caller at this office one day last week to arrange for the printing of sale bills for the disposal of the personal property of his late mother, Mrs. Mary A. Snyder, deceased, on Saturday afternoon of this week.

Charles Smith and Ralph Keller figured in a slight auto accident last Thursday in Centre Hall. Both drive Buicks, the former a touring car and the latter a roadster. They met almost head-on, but the only damage done was to the fenders.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Spyer are entertaining the latter's sister, Mrs. S. L. Shultz, and her son, of James Creek, Huntingdon county. Miss Mary Krepps, a registered nurse, who is taking care of Hon. William Allison, was also a brief visitor at the Spyer home, in Centre Hall.

Max Herr is out forty to sixty dollars worth of shirts and pants, just because he didn't have his stock locked-up, one night last week. He drove his truck in to the hotel barn on the evening of the night in question and next morning one of his packages was missing. At the tool house, below the station, the pack was found tied up nicely, but when examination was made four pairs of pants and six shirts were missing.

Santa Visits Children at Linden Hall.

Mrs. J. W. Keller, of Linden Hall, brought joy to the hearts of a hundred children in that community at the Christmas-time, when the children were permitted to feast their eyes upon a really honest-to-goodness Santa Claus who visited Mrs. Keller's store where the children had assembled and opened his immense sack and treated all to oranges, candy, cake and other good things. There was a decorated tree in a corner of the room and Old Santa spent much time delighting the children by talking with them. There was music to increase the joy of the occasion, and the children returned home with hearts overjoyed at the kindness of Old Santa.

Odd Fellows' Anniversary.

Thursday evening, January 13th, the L. O. O. F. and the Rebekah lodges of Centre Hall will observe their anniversary in their customary way. Odd Fellows and their families, as well as Rebekahs, will assemble in the Grange Hall for their annual banquet, which will be preceded by an interesting literary program. All members are urged to be present.

THE DEATH RECORD.

BITNER.—Samuel Bitner passed away at the home of his son, John Bitner, at Potters Mills, on Wednesday morning of last week, following a short illness with pneumonia. He was aged seventy-five years, and practically all his life was spent in Potter township, being engaged in his earlier life at farming and at the saddler trade. Burial was made at Sprucetown on Saturday morning. Rev. C. F. Catherman, of the Methodist church, officiating.

Four children survive, namely, John Bitner, of Potters Mills; Charles, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Harriet Faust, of Altoona, and Mrs. Luttia Seegmiller, of Piper City, Ill. Also two sisters—Mrs. J. C. Lee, of Centre Hill, and Mrs. Emma Fohringer, of Colyer—and two brothers—Christ Bitner, in Illinois, and George, of Sigerville.

MILES.—John Q. Miles, of Martha Furnace, born March 17, 1843, died Dec. 30th, 1920. Mr. Miles was born in Clearfield county and came to Bald Eagle Valley in 1862, where he has since resided up to his demise. He enlisted in the army, serving in Company I, 64th Regiment; enrolled Sept. 20th, 1861, at Lumber City, Clearfield county, and was discharged at Winchester, Va., May 22nd, 1862.

Mr. Miles married a daughter of John W. Richards, and always followed the occupation of farmer, except when he served a term as county treasurer for Centre county.

To their union there followed the following children: Mrs. O. D. Eberts, of Martha Furnace; Mrs. G. O. Benner, of Centre Hall; John B. Miles, of Martha Furnace; Geo. W. Miles and S. S. Miles, both deceased, were brothers. Mary Pink, deceased, of New Millport, was a sister, and Mrs. Sarah Smith, of Wilkinsburg, still living.

He made his home with his daughter, Mrs. O. D. Eberts, of Martha Furnace, during his latter days.

The deceased was largely known throughout the county, and was always warmly received by all who knew him because of his humorous and entertaining disposition. Politically he was a staunch democrat and was fearless in defending the principles of his party.

Mr. Miles was very proud of his ancestry, being a descendant of General Samuel Miles, who was a resident of Philadelphia, and at one time was Mayor of that city, and during his military duties showed such skill and courage that the governor of the colony, in 1757, sent him an ensign's commission in the troops of Pennsylvania.

Rev. Chas. Driver, of Port Matilda, was the officiating minister at the funeral services on Sunday afternoon. Interment was at Williams cemetery, Martha Furnace. The pallbearers were all grand-nephews of the deceased, and six honorary pallbearers were nephews.

WEAVER.—Mrs. Elias Weaver passed away at her home at Spring Mills, on Thursday, Dec. 23rd, from the effects of paralysis, with which she was stricken two days previous. She was aged sixty-nine years, and was a daughter of John Grenoble, of Aaronsburg; funeral services were held on Tuesday of last week by Rev. R. R. Jones, and burial was made in the cemetery connected with the Salem church at Penn Hall, of which the deceased was a member.

Besides her husband there survives one daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Ripka, of Spring Mills; three brothers—John Grenoble, of Aaronsburg; Michael of Lamar; James, of Chicago, and one sister, Mrs. Emanuel McCool, who lives in the west.

MCCORMICK.—Alexander Gibson McCormick, son of Robert and Catharine McCormick, died at his home in Tabor, Iowa, Dec. 23, 1920, after a lingering illness of hardening of the arteries. Deceased was born in Nittany Valley, June 14, 1883, making his age at the time of his death sixty-seven years, six months and nine days.

When about twenty years of age he went west and settled in Tabor. There he met and married Miss Emma Hatch, who with the following children survive: Earl, of Washington State; Laura, of Oregon, and Hugh, of Montana. He also leaves one sister, and one brother: Mrs. S. E. Royer, of Altoona, and W. W. McCormick of Potters Mills. Also one half-brother, John J. McCormick, of Leavenworth, Kansas. Two brothers and two sisters, namely, Frank, Mrs. Michael Shires, Perry and Mrs. J. R. Bible, preceded him to the world beyond.

Funeral services were held from his late home on Friday afternoon, and burial made in Tabor.

DALE.—Wm. J. Dale, aged citizen and a Civil war veteran, died at his home in Pine Grove Mills Tuesday morning, 21st ult., as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained about five weeks previous. He was a grand old gentleman and up to the time of recent illness he was in the best of health, taking long daily walks through the country for exercise. He came of sturdy Revolutionary stock, and during Lee's invasion into Pennsylvania he served a 60-day enlistment in the Emergency service from which he was honorably discharged.

He was a son of Christian and Hannah Shinbager Dale and was born on the well known Dale farm at Oak Hall, June 21, 1833, thus being eighty-seven years of age at the time of his death. His grandfather, Henry Dale, of Revolutionary fame, was one of the pioneer settlers of Harris township. Like most of the young men of that early date, he attended school two months in the winter and the balance of the year he aided in clearing the forests and tilling the soil of their homestead. His early life was devoted to farming in which he was very successful. He was an enthusiastic member of the Patrons of Husbandry and a Past Master of Logan Grange, also a life-long member of the Lutheran church and served as ruling elder and Superintendent of the Sunday School. He was married in 1857 to Rebecca Musser, of the Branch, and to them three sons, were born, Nathan L., of Pine Grove Mills, Dr. Frank, deceased, and Rev. Wm. Dale, of Pittsburgh. He also had one brother, Philip Dale, of State College, and three half-brothers—Austin Dale, of Boalsburg, and Clement and A. J. Dale, of Bellefonte.

His later years he spent at Pine Grove Mills, and the simplicity and quietness of his daily living covered a generous merciful spirit such as few men possess.

Funeral services were held at his late home in Pine Grove, Thursday afternoon, after which interment was made in the cemetery at Boalsburg, his pastor and friend, Rev. A. M. Lutton, officiating.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, at Potters Mills, Mrs. W. H. Blauser will sell: Farm stock, implements and household goods. Mayes, auct.

FRIDAY, MARCH 11, at 9.30 a. m., on the W. H. Meyer farm at Centre Hill, Hackett & Meyer will sell: Farm stock and implements. Mayes, auct.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Floyd Jordan and Andrew Jordan took a trip to York, Harrisburg and Red Lion over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Martz visited over Christmas at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Horner, of York.

The presiding elder, Rev. T. L. Wentz, will hold communion services in the Evangelical church on Friday evening, January 7.

The stork visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, at Colyer, and left them a nine and one-half pound baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harbaugh, Miss Martha Douty and Mrs. Miles Broom and son Paul took dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jordan on Sunday.

Boyd Jordan, who is employed at Lancaster, spent Christmas at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Jordan. Also Edgar Miller, employed at York spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, at Colyer.

About one hundred people gathered at the home of Samuel Klinefelter to serenade the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan, after which all did justice to the ice cream which had been ordered for the occasion.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Tuesday, Dec. 28th, James L. Reed and Mrs. Anna F. Fry were united in marriage at the bride's home by Rev. A. M. Lutton, of the Lutheran church.

After congratulations a wedding supper was served. The groom is a popular sale crier in this section. The bride is well known on account of her church activities, and is the organist in her church. Congratulations.

Last Thursday Mrs. Frank V. Goodhart took her leave of her parental home and left for Centre Hall where she and her husband have begun housekeeping.

A few evenings previous a kitchen show-er was tendered her by her many friends which contained many fine articles.

W. E. Reed recently suffered a fracture of the right shoulder in a fall on the ice while walking from the barn to the house.

Charles Wilson, a late war veteran, just recently discharged, is visiting friends here, and looking well.

Among the sick are Mrs. Ida Williams, "Grandmother" Wilson and Miss Grace Elder.

Prof. S. C. Miller, of Chester, spent a few days with his home folks here and looked after some business matters.

N. L. Dale has gone to Pittsburgh to make his home with his brother, Rev. W. H. Dale.

SPRING MILLS.

A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gentzell on the 30th of Dec.

Mr. Winkleblech, of Fiedler, spent Sunday afternoon at the Ammon Decker home.

Andrew Shook spent Saturday at Bellefonte.

R. G. Gentzell came home from Lock Haven where he was employed for the last six months.

Cleveland Gentzell is seriously ill with tuberculosis.

Mrs. John Horner returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Gordon, at Everett.

The union meetings in the different churches are well attended.

The funeral of Mrs. Elias Weaver was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends.

Mary Slegal, a trained nurse, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Slegal.

ROBT P. GEARHART, M. D.

Boalsburg, Pa.
Bell phone, 7
Commercial phone, 2.

CYRUS BRUNGART

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE
CENTRE HALL, PA.

Special attention given to collecting, legal writings of all classes, including deeds, mortgages, agreements, etc.; marriage licenses and hunter's licenses secured, and all matters pertaining to the office attended to promptly. Jan 21

JAMES W. SWABB

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE
LINDEN HALL, CENTRE CO., PA.

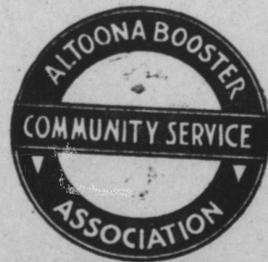

Deeds, Mortgages, Wills, etc., written and executed with care. All legal business promptly attended to. Special attention given to setting of Estates, Marriage Licenses, and Probate Licenses, and all other Applications. Blanks kept on hand. Nov. 25-1920

Insurance and Real Estate
Want to Buy or Sell?
SEE US FIRST
Chas. D. Bartholomew
CENTRE HALL, PA.

New Booster Member :

J. B. FLUKE & SONS,

General Contractors

Confidence

These are days when more than ever confidence is necessary. In the transition from higher to lower price levels the buying public has need of this confidence in the merchants with whom he deals.

Ever more strongly is the name of the Altoona Booster Association and the names of its members appealing to those who insist on truth—truth in advertising, truth in prices and truth as to quality of merchandise.

It has been said "there's nothing in a name," but when year after year names like those on the roster of the Altoona Booster Association stand before the public it proves that they enjoy a confidence gained only through honest methods strictly adhered to.

The emblem of the Altoona Booster Association, wherever displayed, assures you that protection which you demand and to which you are entitled.

Keep your money working for you by keeping it closest to home—in your district. Your home merchant can supply you and if not — ALTOONA BOOSTER STORES CAN !

Look for the emblem.

Altoona Booster Association

Leaders in Service to OUR Community

EVERY WEDNESDAY SUBURBAN DAY