CENTRE COUNTY EXHIBITS.

At State Farm Product Show January 24-28, 1921.

All arrangements have been made for the largest and best Farm Products show ever held in Penna. Each county will send an exhibit representing that county. Have you done your part to make Centre county's exhibit the best in the State? Exhibits of wool, corn, potatoes and small grain will be sent in one shipment from the Farm Bureau office, free of charge to the exhibitor. If you have not sent your exhibit to the Farm Bureau office please do so before Jan. 18th. Apples and other perishable products requiring cold storage should be sent direct to H. F. Hershey, sec. care of Biglerville Cold Storage Co., Biglerville, Pa. If you have not received a premium list you can get one by calling at the Farm Bureau office at Bellefonte.

REBERSBURG.

H. K. Small, our blacksmith, is nursing a badly bruised hand.

On last Friday Mrs. Clem Gramley was taken to the hospital where she will receive treatment.

Last Tuesday Hiram Wert was called to Millersville to attend the funeral of his brother's wife.

George Brackbill left on Monday for Lock Haven where he will be employed in the paper mill as a carpenter.

Herbert Beck, who was visiting relatives in this vicinity, returned to his home in Illinois on Tuesday.

Mrs. James Miller and son, Radina, of Lewisburg, spent a week among relatives in town.

Charles Mailory and family, who resided in Pittsburgh, recently moved to this place.

Ros. Hockman, of Lock Haven, spent several days of the past week at this place at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clark Gramley.

Last week stones were crushed which are to be used in the building of a concrete reservoir which is to take the place of the old wooden reservoir which supplies our town with water.

The township road supervisors recently bought the lot situated at the extreme eastern end of town, known as the foundry lot. Several years ago they bought a large implement shed situated on this lot but failed to buy the ground on which it is located. The shed is used to store road making machinery.

The Lutheran congregation held communion services on Sunday, when nine members joined the church.

Amrose Gentsell and wife visited at the George Gentsell home last week.

THE DEATH RECORD.

GROVE.—Thomas Brownell Grove, son of James P. and Mary Arney Grove, died at his home in Centre Hall, Friday, January 7th, after an illness of five weeks of a complication of diseases. He was born in Centre county, April 12th, 1843, hence was seventy-seven years, eight months, twenty-five days old. At the age of twenty-two he answered the draft call, going as far as Williamsport when the news came that the war was over.

On February 14th, 1867, he was married to Miss Emma P. Sheffer, of Centre Hall. He purchased a farm two and a half miles east of Old Fort, living there until his retirement to Centre Hall in 1901. His wife and the following children survive: Anna C., Whitmer B., Arthur M., Earl M., and Mrs. Mary Williams. One daughter, the oldest child, Sadie Elizabeth, died at the age of twenty-one. Mr. Grove was the last of a family of six, being next to the youngest. The following brothers and sisters preceded him to the grave: Jacob Grove, of Larned, Kansas; Mrs. Sarah Rearick, Spring Mills; Jeremiah Grove, Siglerville, Mifflin county; Mrs. Elizabeth McClintic, Spring Mills, and James P. Grove, near Centre Hall.

Mr. Grove was of quiet, unassuming disposition and a wide reader, particularly of the Bible and Biblical literature, and a kind husband and father. On account of his impaired hearing his last years were spent more closely at home. He was a lifelong member of the Reformed church. Burial was made Tuesday forenoon in the Union cemetery, Farmers Mills, his two oldest sons and two oldest grandsons being pallbearers. His pastor, Rev. R. R. Jones, officiating.

GENTZEL.—Grover Cleveland Gentzel died at his home in Spring Mills late Friday night, of tuberculosis, from which he suffered for the past year. He suffered intensely during the last few weeks of his illness. He was aged thirty-six years and three months, and was a painter by trade. His widow, nee Jesse Fredericks, is left with a family of eight children, six of whom are at home, and three of these are quite small. Five brothers and one sister survive: J. B., Herbert and Catherine, of Spring Mills; Manno, of Brushvalley; Edgar, of Elysburg, and Moyer, of Farmers Mills.

Deceased was a member of the Lutheran church and also of the Spring Mills lodge of Odd Fellows. His funeral will be held Friday morning, with burial at Spring Mills, Revs. Drumm, Bailey and Catherman to officiate.

RUNKLE.—Mrs. Ada V. Runkle, a former resident of Centre county, died at her home in Palmetto, Florida, on Thursday, 30th ult., after a brief illness with acute attack of Bright's disease. She was a daughter of Matthew and Margaret Poorman and was born at Milesburg almost sixty years ago. She was united in marriage to William H. Runkle, of Pennsylvan, who died twelve years ago, while living at York, Pa. Surviving her are one daughter, Mrs. Pearl Condo; one brother, M. G. Poorman; a half-brother, Edward G. Rider, of Centre Hall, and two half-sisters, Mrs. J. F. Ross, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Pearl Brown, of Bellefonte. Burial was made at Palmetto, Florida.

BILGER.—Mrs. Rebecca B. Bilger, widow of the late John Bilger, died at her home in Pleasant Gap on Monday of last week, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. She was a sister to William Brooks, near Centre Hall. Burial took place in the Zion cemetery last Thursday morning.

THE MONTH OF JANUARY has great things in store for the wise buyer. Booster Merchants, always on the alert, are daily making their announcements in the newspapers of drastic and unprecedented price cuts on seasonable merchandise.

Inventory Time in Booster Stores is heralded by city folk and out-towners as a money-saving opportunity inevitable. The merchant, in order to clear his shelves MUST use price appeals which are bound to attract.

To a great extent the Christmas demand tended to stabilize prices the country over, but with general buying conditions at hand once again merchants must unload at "whatever prices" in order to have space and cash for new Spring goods.

A perusal of the pages of Altoona's local dailies will show unheard-of reductions in things to eat, to wear and to furnish the home, and merchants are driving home the fact that prices are in many cases lower than new merchandise of like quality can be produced.

Altoona Booster Merchants, in anticipation of crowds of wise and thrifty purchasers, eager to avail themselves of this golden opportunity, have retained many of the most efficient clerks who were employed for the Christmas season, thus assuring prompt and capable service.

The Bargains in Booster Stores will not alone attract attention, as Booster theatres have excellent bookings for the entire month, so that a part of the day may be spent in needful purchasing and the remainder in pleasurable pursuits.

"The early bird and the fishin' bait" is an old story—come early!
