LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The first sleigh bells of the season were heard last Friday.

The thermometer registered straight zero on Tuesday morning.

The local stone quarry has temporarly suspended operations.

Charles Miller, of Colyer, has been ill with pleurisy for the past week.

Mrs. C. F. Emery is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thos. S. Foss, in Altoona.

A borough bond of $500, held by the Centre Hall School Board, was paid off last week.

H. W. Kreamer was enabled to leave the house this week, for the first time in four weeks.

Going down—the thermometer. Mercury shriveled up to six below zero Wednesday morning.

Sixty days in jail and a $25 fine were given William Gibbons, colored, at Lewistown, for selling hard cider to boys.

Just a few days ago we were all talking about how warm it was for January, and now it is real winter weather, with snow and blow.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Horner, of Pleasant Gap, recently returned from a three weeks' visit to Freeport, Illinois, the former home of Mrs. Horner.

John M. Coldron went to Baltimore, Maryland, last Friday, where he was admitted to the Johns-Hopkins hospital to undergo a minor operation.

Warren Homan, of the garage firm of Harper & Homan, will succeed his brother, John Homan, on the Homan farm, east of Centre Hall, in the spring.

Special train service will be arranged for Penns Valley Day, at the Centre County Auto Show, at Bellefonte, according to announcement by Major E. H. Lederer, director.

C. T. Crust attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. James Metzgar, at Beech Creek, on Tuesday. Mrs. Metzgar died at Muncy, last Saturday. Mrs. Mary A. Crust, of Centre Hall, is a sister.

Among the Reporter's business callers on Saturday was J. Frank Bible, farmer living just east of town. Mr. Bible is making farming a real business and more than that, he makes the farm pay him for his efforts.

The contest among the members of the senior class of the Centre Hall High school, in Grange arcadia, Saturday evening, will be held with open doors to all—no admission charged. An offering will be asked for to defray the expense for the hall.

Mrs. Mazie Brouse, of Bellefonte, who attended the World Sunday School convention in Japan, and took the opportunity of visiting the mission stationed at Sendai, Japan, will speak in the Reformed church at Centre Hall on the coming Sunday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

D Milton Bradford, of Williamsport, has been placed in the Centre Hall railroad station, and Leroy Puff, one of the young men in the service, has been laid off at this point, which is in line with the Pennsy's plan of retrenchment. It is likely that Mr. Puff will be placed elsewhere, where his seniority of service will go ahead of another.

Monday's issue of the Pittsburgh Leader contains a portrait of Donald A. Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mullen, former residents of Centre Hall, in connection with an article stating that he is about to leave for New York City to accept the position of secretary of the clearing house section of the American Banker's association. Mr. Mullen has been active in banking circles in Pittsburgh for the past fourteen years, and before accepting his new position was manager of the new business department of the Colonial Trust Co.

"The Commission of Social Service and Rural Work" of the Reformed church opens a session in Philadelphia the latter part of this week. Rev. R. R. Jones, who is member of the commission, will be in attendance, having left Centre Hall for that point on Wednesday. The intervening time will be spent by him at Walnutport with his sisters. In a late issue of the Reformed Messenger, appears an article headed "What Other Churches are Doing in Rural Fields," written by the local pastor named above. This article will be reprinted, with the permission of Rev. Jones, in two or more installments, in the Reporter. The article is well worth reading and recites methods that successfully solved rural church problems for other than the Reformed denominations.

SPRING MILLS.

Tibben Zubler has been quite ill with pneumonia, but is recovering slowly.

Philip Shook moved to Franklin, Venango county, on Wednesday. The family have many warm friends who regret to see them go so far away.

Clarence Musser, of Chambersburg, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr, and Mrs. R. D. Musser.

Ammon Decker, who was operated on in the Bellefonte hospital, is getting along nicely and expects to come home in a few days.

Prof. Dennis expects to move to State College about the twenty-fourth of January. His many friends are sorry to see him leave.

John Earhart, of Johnstown, was circulating among friends last week.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

The re-dedicating of St. Luke's Lutheran church here will take place on the last Sabbath of the month.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss, who spent the Yuletide season with her three sons at Pittsburgh, returned home last week.

Mrs. J. H. Bailey spent the early part of the week visiting relatives and friends in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell departed last week for a trip down to Dixie land. They will spend a month at Miama, Florida.

Mrs. Margaret Bierly writes that she is thoroughly enjoying herself among the orange blossoms at Jacksonville, Florida.

D. B. Louder, of Oak Hall, is suffering with serious stomach trouble and is near death's door.

Farmer Charles Dale has invested in a 22 h. p. Fordson tractor.

Mrs. Minnie Hess and two interesting children have been visiting relatives at Selinsgrove the past week.

Last Wednesday, the 12th, Thomas Frank with his fiance, Miss Dora Ellenberger, slipped across the Mason-Dixon line and were united in the bonds of matrimony at Cumberland, Md. The groom is an ex service man, having served two years as a "Jackie" on one of Uncle Sam's cruisers, and married the "girl he left behind him." The bride is a splendid young lady, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ellenberger, residing at Maringo.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Bowersox, of Millheim, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bowersox, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Gray, of State College, spent Tuesday at the elder Bowersox home to cheer the old couple's hearts, who on last Wednesday observed their sixty-third wedding anniversary. Mr. Bowersox was born in Union county, March 11, 1837. His wife was Catherine Ocker, of Madisonburg, and is ninety days his junior. They were wedded at Middleburg, and spent their early wedded life in Penn township, farming. Forty years ago they moved to Ferguson township, continuing farming, and in 1906 removed to their cozy home on East Main street. It is the hope of their friends that they may observe many more enjoyable annviersaries.

The financial report of the borough of Centre Hall, for the past year, has been prepared and is in the hands of the printers. The same will appear next week.

Music:

Have Music in your home. As a relaxation from daily work, music has no equal.

If you have work to do,
If you are laboring under any kind of strain,
If your wife greets you in the evening with a tired expression,
If your children are fretful and feel the contagion of a nervous atmosphere,
HAVE MUSIC IN YOUR HOME AND MORE MUSIC

MUSIC supplies the strength needed, because it stimulates the imagination, arouses the finer, larger feelings, lifts us up above our little routine duties, enables us to see beyond the clouds.

There Should Be in Every Home a Good Piano or Player Piano.

As an inducement I am offering the Pianos now in my room at Special Reduced Prices—prices you will appreciate. Pianos of high-grade quality and fully guaranteed. Terms to suit purchaser.

Special prices close Feb. 15. We invite you to come and see and hear these Pianos.
