

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

C. W. Swartz, of State College, was in town last Friday.

There was something very lamb-like about the first day of March.

Unclaimed letter in Centre Hall post office for Mr. John T. Nelson.

Mrs. Ralph Tweed, of Sunbury, visited Miss Margaret Emery, on Wednesday.

James L. Faust, of Burnham, visited his son, Harry Faust, at Potters Mills, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert visited the latter's sister, Mrs. James Spicher, in Altoona, this week.

Mrs. Philip Meyer has returned home after spending some time with her son, Robert, and family in Altoona.

Arthur B. Lee, of Spring Mills, has been named administrator in the estate of H. Howard Eisenhuth, late of Gregg township, deceased.

The quarantine placard has been removed from off the Duffaw residence, Miss Mary having fully recovered from her attack of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Warren Homan is recovering from a serious attack of tonsillitis at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Heckman.

Musser E. Coldron, who is driving a truck on a road construction job near Scranton, spent a few days this week with his family in this place.

Mrs. H. H. Longwell and adopted son, Robert, left on Tuesday for Suffield, Connecticut, where they will spend some time with Mrs. Longwell's relatives.

James Sweetwood has been fortunate in securing a good position as filing clerk in an office of the Highway Department at Harrisburg, and started upon his new duties this week.

Mrs. Elmer C. Hettlinger and Mrs. Harry Shreckengast, both of Farmers Mills, left for Erie last week to the bedside of the former's sister, Mrs. Arthur Miller, who took suddenly ill and is reported to be in a serious condition.

Victor A. Auman is moving this week into his own property, formerly the Spangler home, at the station, and the Bradford & Co. miller, John Auman, who was a tenant in the Spangler home, is moving where Auman vacates. So, you see, it's just an exchange.

B. Gardner Grove, near Penns Cave, was a business caller at this office on Tuesday. Mr. Grose, following his sale, on the 29th of this month, will become a resident of Centre Hall, having rented a portion of the Herlacher property, now occupied by Cleveland Brungart.

Among the out-of-town relatives and friends who attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Susan Goodhart, in Centre Hall, on Monday, were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Bruce Goodhart and daughter Ellen, of Orangeville, Illinois; Mrs. J. W. Evans, of White, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss and children, of Bellefonte; Joseph Palmer, of Lewisburg; Mrs. Seely, of Sunbury; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Glenn, of Lemont.

D. Milton Bradford, who was recently transferred from Williamsport to Centre Hall by the P. R. R., is preparing to move his family this week from "Billtown" to Centre Hall, and will occupy the property owned by A. P. Krape, to the rear of the Logan house. Mr. Bradford has been at great expense since his removal in paying high rent for a home in Williamsport and paying board and room for himself in Centre Hall, consequently decided to move here.

There appears to be no market in this section for $700-and-over mules, for at the sale held by George Wolfe, at Centre Hall, last Friday, that dealer stopped the sale after selling four teams, and declared he would return the animals to his stables at York rather than give them away at the figures farmers hereabouts were willing to pay. The mules that were sold brought anywhere from $550 to $635 for a team. The animals were unquestionably the finest lot ever brought here, and the majority of them were shipped back after the sale to York.

To reduce the number of students who come from one course to another after coming to college and thus waste a year or more before finally selecting the course which they wish to pursue as their life work, a committee from the faculty of the Pennsylvania State College has recommended a plan for the establishment of a vocational guidance bureau. A faculty member, acting in the capacity of an assistant to the dean of men, would be in charge, whose duty it would be to ascertain the capabilities of the freshmen, to help them select their vocation, and to point out the inducements offered by the chosen course.

Letter Writer Is Denied Ball.

Harry Kipp, of Burnham, was held without bail for the Federal Court on charges of misuse of the mails in writing letters in which he threatened the lives of H. J. Cohen, J. H. Pretz, J. A. Muthersbaugh and Jacob Hurwitz, business men of Lewisburg, unless they secreted $1500 at the entrance of Burnham Park before February 22.

HOME FOR RENT.—The Deitel home, one and one-half miles west of Tusseyville, is offered for rent. Six-room house; fruit of all kinds; 2 apple orchards; 20 acres of land; berry patches; plenty water.—Mrs. Sarah Neff, Tusseyville, Pa. 8 o'g.

Quite a few people attended the funeral of H. H. Eisenhuth, at Spring Mills, on Saturday.

Millheim Knitting Mill in New Hands.

Charles Lykens, of Milroy, for seventeen years with Thompson Bros., who are successful hosiery manufacturers, purchased the controlling interest of the Millheim Knitting and Manufacturing company.

Mr. Lykens assumed the charge of the local mill last week; retaining W. S. Shelton, the retiring manager, as a foreman.

It is Mr. Lykens' intention to install a number of new machines, some of which have already been ordered, and greatly increase the capacity of the mill, hoping in the near future to more than double the number of employees.

At a meeting of the stockholders one night last week Mr. Lykens was elected president and treasurer of the company, and S. W. Gramley was chosen secretary. Mr. Lykens, Frank Haring and S. W. Gramley compose the board of directors.

SPRING MILLS.

Miss Mary Krepps, nurse at the Wm. Allison home, is spending a week at her home at Huntingdon.

The stork has been busy in this vicinity the past week. It left a little girl at the Ollie Krader home; a boy at the Charles Zettle home; a boy at the Ira Lingle home, and a boy at the Thomas Shaeffer home.

The funeral of Howard Eisenhuth, on Saturday, was one of the largest ever held here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lingle and family spent a very pleasant week at the home of Stewart Jordan.

Mrs. G. M. Cooney and Mrs. C. S. Batorf spent a day with Mrs. Henry Rossman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lingle and family attended the funeral of Mr. Eisenhuth, at Spring Mills, on Saturday.

TRUTH OF CLOCK'S SOUNDS

Real Reasons Why Large Timepiece is Always Considered to Be Saying "Tick, Tock."

Why do we always regard a clock as saying "tick, tock," and not "tick, tick," like a watch? Is there really any distinction between the alternate sounds, or is it a matter of psychology? Attention to the problem has been given by an investigator, whose conclusions are most interesting.

The general opinion, according to him, has always been that it was merely a matter of chance whether the "tick" accompanied the left and the "tock" the right beat of the pendulum or vice versa. The first important discovery this authority made was that the "tick" always marks the moment when the pendulum reaches the extreme point of detonation from the perpendicular on its beat to the right, while the reaching of its swing limit to the left is marked by the "tock" in pendulums of all lengths. He found that owing to the fact that the anchor of the escapement mechanism is above the rotating escapement wheel and in the same plane with it, the conditions under which its arms strike the cogs of the wheel are not the same for both arms.

One of the arms of the anchor strikes a cog of the wheel moving upward, in a direction opposed to that of the anchor, while the other arm strikes against the cog while it is moving downward, nearly in the same direction as the anchor. The result of the unequal conditions under which the two arms of the anchor engage the cogs of the escapement wheel is naturally an acoustic difference in the sounds produced by the contact of the parts.
