THE CATCH.

A man remarked that he came from a very large family.
"How many of you are there?" he was asked.
"Well, there were ten of us boys," he said, "and each of us had a sister."
"Good gracious!" exclaimed the other. "Then there were twenty of you?"
"No," said the boastful man, "eleven."

His Honor's Guess.

In Ireland some years ago an Irish-American was brought up before Justice Barry on the charge of suspicious conduct. The officer who arrested him stated, among other things, that he was wearing a "Republican hat."
"Does your honor know what that is?" asked the counsel.
"It may be," responded the judge, "that it's a hat without a crown."

That Would Be Enough.

A gentleman took his little daughter to a toy shop to buy her a doll.
"Now, what sort of a doll would you like, my dear?" said he, as a large assortment was placed on the counter by the shopman. After some hesitation the little girl replied:
"I think I'd like to have twins, please."

Most Likely.

"Well, at any rate," remarked the flat dweller, "I don't have to pay any garage bills."
"How much is your rent?"
"Three little rooms and a trick kitchen cost me $100 a month."
"Don't flatter yourself. Some of that money helps to pay your landlord's garage bills."

Serious Case.

"I sent you a patient today," said the fashionable physician to the young medic.
"Thank you, doctor. What is the matter with him?"
"Lack of money."

The Gossip.

"Does Bilgins understand his business?"
"I don't see why he should slight himself," replied Miss Cayenne. "He knows everybody else's business."

In Doubt.

"Is this letter intended to convey gratitude or what?"
"What does he say?"
"Thanks me for passes to the race-track and says he lost $40."

Typical.

Mr. Jolliboy—What do you mean?
"Why, in the sea of matrimony I'm usually kept well under."

Something to Be Thankful For.

"Pa, somebody has stolen our auto!"
"Well, let's be thankful there wasn't more than a gallon of gasoline in it, anyhow."

Her Forts.

"So she is, but she manages to put up a stiff front."

More Furniture.

Mrs. Pester—Nose bag! Indeed! Where do you get that idea? That's a hand-embroidered laundry bag. It's nothing like a nose bag.
Her Husband—That's what I thought. It's a nose bag for a clothes-horse.

Professor—I'm sorry to tell you, madam, that your daughter is hopeless; she has no talent.
Mrs. Lowell Brow—Huh! I thought I was paying you to give her some.

MRS. J. M. CRAIG, of Los Angeles, Calif. who says no one can feel more grateful for what Tanlac has done than she does. Declares she has gained twelve pounds and her health is now better than in years.

"Of all the people who have taken Tanlac, I don't believe there is anyone who feels any more grateful to it than I do," was the statement made recently by Mrs. J. M. Craig of 674 1/2 East Fortieth street, Los Angeles.
"Like so many other families during the influenza epidemic last year we all had it, and my own illness, together with the worry over the rest of our family, brought on a case of genuine nervous prostration."
"I was so weak I couldn't even sweep the floor, and during the day I would have to lie down four or five times. I tried to walk but found out half a block was all I could stand before I gave out. Nervous spells came on me often."
"Every medicine I tried failed to reach my case until finally my husband urged me to try Tanlac, and I am indeed thankful that he did, for it proved to be just what I needed."
"The first two bottles didn't seem to help me. I guess that was because I was so extremely bad off, but on the third bottle I could tell I was improving and that gave me more hopes than ever of getting well."
"My improvement from then on was rapid and by the time I had taken five bottles of Tanlac I was better and stronger than I had been in years. I was sleeping soundly at night and had gained twelve pounds in weight."
"That was several months ago and from then until now I have been in as good health as I ever was in my life and have been doing all the housework by myself."
"It is simply remarkable how Tanlac has built me up and I have told everyone of my friends and relatives what a wonderful medicine it is."

Germans Going to Japan.

German residents in Japan are reported as steadily increasing in number, now almost double that of pre-war days. Most of them are employed in firms and factories as engineers, and it is stated that nearly a hundred applications for positions in Japan have been received from German engineers and experts. The imports of toys, chemicals and dyestuffs from Germany during the first ten months of 1920 amounted to $1,000,000.

"I HAD STOMACH TROUBLE TWO YEARS, BUT NEW TONIC CURED ME"

"I'm Sure It Will Help Anyone With Colds or Stomach Troubles."

"I suffered from stomach trouble for two long years and all during that time I didn't dare touch many favorite dishes, and no matter what I ate, it hurt me. I was so weak and worn out I felt tired all the time. Today I am cured of stomach trouble and will gladly recommend Hypo-Cod to anybody. I first learned about Hypo-Cod from the newspapers. Now I know what it is myself, for I can eat anything I want and am strong and well. ENVIED HIS SMALL DAUGHTER

Duck Hunter Would Have Given Much for the Power She Exercised Over Ducks.

Betty, four years old, lives in a modern apartment in Brooklyn, facing Prospect park. She knows all the squirrels in the park and the birds that stay there in the summer.

For several weeks Betty has been lonesome because all her feathered friends went in search of warmer weather, but now she has plenty of company again. Wild ducks are her newest friends.

The ducks coming alight in Prospect park lake and generally remain a week or two to rest and feed. They are wary of men, but not afraid of children, if Betty is an example.

The other day she was walking with her father, a duck hunter. Betty noticed she couldn't get near the ducks while she was with her father, but when she left him and ran along the shore alone she found she could approach them. After a little coaxing the ducks swam up and ate pieces of popcorn from her hand.

"And I have to crawl through a swamp on my hands and knees to get within gunshot of them," mused her father.—New York Sun.

HIGHEST ORDER OF SNOBBERY

Alleged Prayer Made by English Divine Would Have Made Great Hit With Thackeray.

A reporter, gathering material for a Sunday special on "Why Churches Are Empty," called on Bishop Leonard of Cleveland.

"I don't admit that our churches are empty," Bishop Leonard said. "Certainly the churches that are really democratic, really Christian, are full. Of course we have a few churches that cater to the rich. In these a certain number of vacant pews are to be found."

"The kind of church I am referring to abounded in England in Queen Victoria's day. There's a story about one such church. It was in the domain of a certain baronet and the vicar used to conclude his Sunday prayer in this wise:
"God bless Sir Peter; God bless also her dear ladyship; bless the tender youth of the two ladies likewise. We would furthermore unite in beseeching Thee, O Lord, to have mercy on the poor governess and all the miserable sinners of this parish. Amen."
