LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. R. R. Jones visited her son, Rev. William R. Jones, at Lumber City, the past week.

Mercury has been standing close to seventy during part of the week. Truly delightful weather for the middle of March.

A bill that passed finally in the House, at Harrisburg, on Monday, was one that will prohibit hunters from killing bear with buckshot.

Moving day is drawing near and there will be the usual number of fittings in borough and township. The Reporter hopes to give a list of the movings in an early issue.

Rev. Paul D. Ford, of Fishers Ferry, will preach in the International Holiness church at Colyer, on Sunday evening, March 20, at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited to attend.—The pastor.

Bradford & Co., at the Centre Hall station, have unloaded a carload of new farming implements and also a carload of various kinds of wire. Read their ad. elsewhere in this issue before buying your spring needs.

W. F. Bradford, executor of the D. L. Kerr estate, will sell at public sale at the Kerr home in Centre Hall, all the household goods on Saturday afternoon, March 26th. The property will also be offered, providing a sale is not made before the above date.

Mrs. Geiss Wagner, of Centre Hall, sustained a broken ankle of the left leg on Monday afternoon at her home. She was going from the summer house to the wood house and a broken step caused her to fall backward, twisting her foot with such force as to cause a fracture.

The sales and exchange day at the barn of D. Wagner Geiss, Bellefonte, on Monday proved a great success. The next sale will be held on Monday, March 21st. Take anything you wish to sell or exchange and you will be pleased with the result. Many articles not sold at auction, find a buyer later at private sale. adv.

The Pennsylvania Department of Forestry has shipped a white ash, six feet high, to the Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles, California. This tree will replace the white pine that was destroyed by the California plant quarantine authorities last month because they feared the gift from this State might introduce the disease known as white pine blister rust. The white ash tree will be Pennsylvania's contribution to “The Forest of States” that is being established on the Pacific Coast. It was grown by District Forester T. Roy Morton in the Greenwood Forest Tree Nursery, in Huntingdon county.

Penn State Passes Enrollment Record
Final enrollment figures for resident instruction of students at the Pennsylvania State College were announced last week by the registrar, A. H. Espenshade, the total for 1920-21 being 4,575, the largest ever recorded at the college. This is an increase of 259 over last year's enrollment, when 4,316 was a record figure.

THE DEATH RECORD.

BRAUCHT.—Mrs. Drucilla Braucht, widow of John Braucht, passed into eternal rest at her home in Coburn on Saturday morning at eight o'clock, death being due to infirmities of old age. She was before marriage Miss Drucilla Detwiler, and was born in Penn township seventy-seven years ago. Her husband and one son preceded her to the beyond, the former four years ago and the latter twenty years ago. There survive three sons—Dr. H. S. Braucht, of Spring Mills; Newton, of Dewart, and W. E., of Coburn. Frank Detwiler, of Aaronsburg, is the only surviving brother.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the home by Rev. Snyder, of the Evangelical church, of which the deceased was a member, and burial was made at Millheim.

New Revenue Raising Bill for School Purposes.

Representative Phillips, of Clearfield, has prepared a new revenue bill which he will introduce in the House, at Harrisburg, levying a tax on all the natural resources of the state, the revenue to be used for school purposes only. About $15,000,000 would be raised, he says.

“The governor says we cannot develop the activities of the state without more revenue,” said Phillips, and he has left the matter up to the Legislature. The bill I have in mind would be fair and equitable.”

The tax measure will provide for a tax of two cents on coal, anthracite and bituminous; two cents a ton on fire clay; two cents a ton on iron ore; one cent a ton on limestone; one cent a barrel on oil; one cent a 1000 cubic foot on natural gas and one cent per 1000 feet on lumber.

Sheep and Wool Growers Annual Meeting.

The Centre County Sheep and Wool Growers Association will hold their annual meetings next week. For convenience in attending meetings, the Association is divided into three local associations which will meet as follows: Bellefonte, Monday, March 21st, at 8:00 P. M. in Court House; Spring Mills, Tuesday, March 22nd, at 8:00 P. M. in Vocational School; Pine Grove Mills, Wednesday, March 23rd, at 8:00 P. M. in the school house at Pine Grove Mills. W. B. Connell, sheep extension specialist, will be present with the latest reports on the wool market, which we hope will be such that we can market our wool in the near future.

Several farmers have expressed a desire to have their wool made into blankets. This phase of wool marketing will be discussed at this time. If you are at all interested in sheep, attend one of these meetings.—County Agent

Daylight Saving Bill Is Lost.

The House, in the State Legislature, on Monday night, defeated the Edmonds daylight saving bill by a vote of 142 to 56.

Hand Picked.

The young bride was enthusiastic over her home and its furniture. It had cost exorbitant prices because it was hand made. To agree with it she demanded hand-made curtains, sheets, etc. Then came the end of the honeymoon and the settling down to actual living. One day the bride tripped to market to buy her first chicken. “I want a very good one,” she stipulated to the butcher. “I don't care how much it costs if it's only hand picked.”

Public Sale Register.

SATURDAY, MARCH 26, at one o'clock, at the late residence of Mrs. D. L. Kerr, deceased, in Centre Hall Borough, W. F. Bradford, executor, will sell lot of household goods.

Altoona's
Suburban Day Centennial
Wednesday, March 23

One hundred weeks ago the Famous Suburban Day was born in Altoona—a day set apart for special welcome and special values for out-of-towners.

The future of this great day is permanently established by its appreciation.

Wednesday is a day of Days—when friendly Booster Stores are crowded with those from distant places who are anxious to mingle and rub elbows with friends and acquaintances from other neighboring towns.

The Suburban Centennial will be the greatest Wednesday of the whole hundred. Falling markets make competition keen among merchants trying to out-do one another—and YOU GET THE BENEFIT!

Come with the crowds.
Come the night before.
The best hotels—the best theatres—the best stores!
Nothing is left for your complete satisfaction on
