BOALSBURG.

Harold Coxe, of Altoona, visited his mother, Mrs. Nannie Coxe, from Friday until Monday.
The Knights of Malta will hold a festival evening of Memorial day.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross and son, of Linden Hall, spent Sunday at the home of Dr. R. P. Gerhart.
Mrs. A. J. Hazel spent several days at Madisonburg.

Captain and Mrs. G. L. Fcbiger are spending their Easter vacation with friends and relatives at Philadelphia.
Miss Mary Hazel, of Mechanicsburg, is spending her Easter vacation at her home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Patch, of Pittsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, of Altoona, were entertained at the George Fisher home on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bailey are rejoicing over the arrival of a son.
Mrs. John Thompson, of State College, spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. A. Fisher.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Houtz and daughter, of Lemont, spent Sunday with relatives here.
Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, of Arch Springs spent Sunday with the latter's grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Woods.
Mrs. M. A. Woods returned to her home here last week after spending the winter her daughters at Bradford and Derry. Her son, Dr. William Woods, came with her and will remain for several weeks.

GEORGES VALLEY.

C. W. Lingle and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lingle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emerick, of Penn Hall.
Miss Helen Ripka spent the week end at Spring Mills with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ripka.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sharer spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, near Centre Hall.
Miss Maggie Immel and Mrs. H. M. Lingle were visitors at the James Immel home on Sunday.
Ammon Vonada and family were visitors at the F. B. Herman home on Sunday.
Mrs. Howard Confer and daughter Miss Effie are both housed up with a severe attack of measles.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Boyd Jordan, who was working at Reading, returned home to assist his father on the farm this summer.
John Jordan and family, and Emmet Jordan and family, attended George Bittner's sale, near Milroy, on Saturday.
Arthur Cummings and family, who spent the winter on the Moyer farm getting ready for the sale, returned to their home at Rebersburg last Tuesday. Aaron Detwiler moved on the Moyer farm, which he purchased last fall.

Mrs. Crust Near Death's Door.

Mrs. Mary A. Crust, who for the past two years has been living alone at her home on Church street, Centre Hall, is lying in a critical condition as the Reporter goes to press, Wednesday morning, and her death is considered merely a matter of hours.

Mrs. Crust is a widow of sixty years. Desiring to live in her own home, she left the home of her son, Charles T., on the farm near Centre Hall, and two years ago moved to town. She has suffered paralytic strokes within that time, but always recovered sufficiently to be enabled to continue doing her household work. Last Sunday morning neighbors observed a light burning in her home long after daybreak, and Mrs. Harry Harper and Mrs. John Breen went to investigate and found Mrs. Crust lying on the floor, fully clothed, indicating that she had been stricken some time before her hour for retiring the evening before. From that time she has failed to rally from a state of unconsciousness. It was possible to give her medicine and liquid nourishment for several days, but on Wednesday this only hope of sustaining life vanished, so that the inevitable is looked for.

[Note.—The very latest report on Mrs. Crust's condition, given to the Reporter by Dr. G. I. Yearick, the attending physician, is that Mrs. Crust shows signs of rallying and that an improvement in her condition is yet possible.]

District S. S. Conventions.

A district Sunday school convention will be held at Aaronsburg on April 8, afternoon and evening. The speakers will include Miss Lemen, superintendent of the children's division; County Chairman Ives L. Harvey, and Ed. L. Hancock.

The semi-annual district Sunday school convention for the eleventh district of Centre county, comprising Centre Hall borough, Potter and Gregg townships, will be held in the Lutheran church at Spring Mills, on Saturday, April 10th, afternoon and evening.

Eutaw House Opened.

The famous Eutaw House, at Potters Mills, closed for the past six years, is again open for the convenience of the general public. The new proprietor is Witmer E. Lee, who with Mrs. Lee, will offer every accommodation for travelers, hunters, fishermen and tourists.

The Eutaw House is ideally situated for tourists seeking a spot where game and fish abound, and being on the State road between Lewistown and Bellefonte, could not be easier of approach. The place should receive a large patronage from the traveling public, and likely will.

Mr. Lee calls attention to the opening of the Eutaw House in an ad. in another column.

"Dry" Bill Defeated.

After a long debate the Martain's prohibition enforcement bill, carrying with it the repeal of the Brooks high license law, was defeated in the House at Harrisburg, on Tuesday, by a vote which was officially announced at 99 to 105.

Immediately after the bill was defeated a motion to reconsider was made and also defeated. This kills the bill.

One-Third Freight Cars Idle.

The number of idle freight cars on the Pennsylvania Railroad has increased more than six times since December 15. More than one-third of the freight cars owned by the railroad are not earning any revenue, according to a recent statement by the company.

AARONSBURG.

Miss Amanda Haines, of State College, will spend her Easter vacation at home.
Rev. Anderson, of Jennesville, preached a trial sermon in St. Peter's Reformed church on Sunday.
Miss Marion Stover, who has been visiting in Florida for the past two months, returned to her parental home last week, much pleased with her trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, from Mineral Ridge, Ohio, are visiting their son, Joe Johnson, here, while awaiting the arrival of their household goods. They have bought a home here and will live here.
Master Bright Orwig will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Orwig, at Northumberland, for a week, and will then spend the summer at the Eugene Stover home near Woodward.

James Ettinger, who left here some twenty years ago, and living now in the state of Iowa, is paying a visit to his cousins, C. G. Bright and Mrs. Annie M. Stover.

The Woman's Missionary Society of West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed Church, will convene in annual sessions, March 30 and 31, in St. John's Reformed church, Williamsport, the Rev. W. C. Rittenhouse, pastor. An interesting program has been arranged. Mrs. J. A. Beam, a returned Missionary to China, will be present and give an address Thursday evening. Missionary Societies and all congregations within the Classis, not having organizations, are requested to send delegates. The Convention will open Wednesday evening, the thirtieth. Send names of delegates to Frank Romig, 724 Campbell St., Williamsport, Pa.

FOR SALE.—Smith-Premier No. 2 Typewriter, in A No. 1 condition, for sale. Price reasonable.—W. F. Bubb, Centre Hall, R. 1. Bell phone, 84R4.

Entrance Examination.

The entrance examination to the Vocational school, Spring Mills, will be held at the Vocational school building, Friday and Saturday, March 25th and 26th, beginning at 1 p. m. on Friday and 9 a. m. on Saturday. All eighth grade pupils should be present on both days.

More Money for Fourth Class School Districts.

Educational legislation is receiving the serious consideration of not only the Pennsylvania State Education Association, but of other educational associations as well. A bill has been introduced at Harrisburg whose two main features are:

1. The qualifications of teachers.
2. The method of apportioning State funds to rural districts.

On the basis of the new plan of apportionment of State money to fourth class districts, such as Centre Hall, such districts would receive from 75 to 100 per cent increase in money for school purposes. The bill would give aid where aid is most needed.

The essential thing now is to bring public sentiment to bear upon senators and representatives. Write our legislators from this district and urge them to get back of the educational program.

REVEAL MINDS OF POETS

Nomenclatures of Serbian Cities and Villages Show Character of People in Striking Manner.

The names of the villages in which our many friends lived and from which they often walked 20 miles or more to be of use to us I set down in my notes, partly because the words, in and of themselves, are pictorial and atmospheric and partly because their meaning reveals the essential, natural poetry of the Serbian mind. A few of the most striking ones may appropriately bring this chapter of Serbian helpfulness to a close, Caryl B. Storrs writes in Minneapolis Tribune.

Monastir the metropolis of southern Serbia means "the city of monks." Kremljani where our camp was located means "dwellers among quartzite" from the quantities of quartzite rock in the vicinity. The Slavic root of the word Kremljani, by the way, is the same used in the name of the Kremlin at Moscow.

Other village names with their meanings are: Livonia, a proper name, signifying a huge, virile fellow; Krushograd, a limestone castle; Brode, the ferry over a river; Dobrovent, people living in fertile meadow lands; Vrbenca, the village of willows; Skoelvir, the village of cascades; Vodena, water city; Lazac (Lozhatz), the sloping mountain meadow cleared from forest; Gornichevo, the village in the mountain divide; Rosno, the new village; Sakuljevo, the village beyond the tower; Bach, the village down in the kettle; Vostaran, the village of fruit; Zhabljani, the village of frogs; Kravari, the village of cowherds; Sorovich, the village of steel; Dragosh, beloved village; Bistrica, clear mountain torrent; Bukri, the village on a water course; Optichari, the dwellers among many birds; Konjarka, creek that must be forded on horseback; Sokol, mountain village, where only falcons can live; Cuke, village along the range of buttes; Kalanik, village of mud; Ljankoviki, dwellers among hazelnuts.

LANDOR HAD PROPHETIC EYE

Brilliant Englishman Correctly Forecast Dire Events of Which He Veinily Warned His Countrymen.

The pamphlet to Lord Liverpool and the British parliament, written by Walter Savage Landor in 1813, of which two copies only are known to exist, makes highly spirited reading. In it he sets out, with keen concern and much energy of indignation, to criticize the magnanimity with which Europe, and more especially England, showed themselves inclined to treat Napoleon after the battle of Lepsic, Napoleon whom Landor regarded as a criminal, fit only for the gallows. Of Elba, he declared prophetically that it was "a rat trap open at both ends from which it was impossible that Napoleon should not escape." Was the congress of Vienna, he asked in bitter scorn, with its "well-dressed ambassadors and ingenuous state papers," to produce nothing more lasting than another treaty of Utrecht? He called in vain for the temper of Lord Chatham which should deliver the country from a mere "experimental peace." Within a year of Napoleon's banishment to the "rat trap open at both ends," he was back in France, and Europe was once more plunged into war.

Laugh Reveals Much.

There is the man who is always smiling, whose whole person radiates affection and good cheer. His is the frank, open countenance that makes and keeps friends, for he has the true spirit of good-fellowship.

He is the man whom you enjoy going to with good news, and of whose sympathy you can be sure when you are in trouble. He is the friend, always, that everyone admires, trusts and likes, just because he has the smile that spells warmth.

A laugh is a little thing, and apparently to judge a man by his laugh seems like making a mountain out of a molehill. But "straws show which way the wind blows" and psychologists assert that the little things are the real indices to character. So watch out when your friends laugh, and see if they are worth while.—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Many of our push-ahead farmers are well along with their spring plowing. The wheat crop bids fair for a bumper harvest.

Miss Margaret Johnson visited friends at Warriorsmark last week, and on Thursday evening a social party was given in her honor. Boys, keep your eye on the Register's list.

You don't want to miss seeing the "Bride and Groom," a farce in 3 acts, by home talent, in the Odd Fellows' hall on Saturday evening, 26th. Proceeds for the Citizen's Band.

The E. C. Musser sale on Thursday was a ringer. 15 cows averaged $77.50, and a mated black team hit the $702.00 mark. The sale totaled $4300.00.

Mrs. Emma Moore entertained a number of friends at dinner on Friday. Mrs. Margaret Stair, of Danville, and Mordcai Dannelly, of Ohio, were honor guests.

Rev. S. C. Stover and bride were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the J. F. Meyer home. A few invited guests were present to partake of the marriage feast.

Lee Markie and Wesley Sharer are lending a helping hand in shaping the farm stock of J. A. Fortney, who is on the sick list, and his sale date, the 25th, drawing near, when he will offer everything on the farm in a clean up sale, and retire to his cozy home in Pine Grove Mills.

You'll Want This Combination

It is the Case 10-18 kerosene tractor and a two-bottom Grand Detour plow. It is an ideal plowing outfit for either small or large farms.

The tractor weighs about 3,500 lbs., just a trifle more than a big team of horses. It burns kerosene economically, developing full power on the same.

The tractor has a four-cylinder valve-in-head motor, mounted crosswise on a one-piece frame. A Case Siphon Thermostat controls the cooling system and insures complete combustion. The all-spur gears, with teeth cut and hardened, are enclosed and run in oil.

The Grand Detour 2-bottom Automatic Lift Rigid Beam Plow will fill the plowing requirements of the most particular farmer. Grand Detour plows are strictly quality plows. They are light in draft, yet so well constructed that they will give years of faithful service at a low cost of upkeep.

We would greatly appreciate the opportunity of telling you more about Case tractors. Drop in and let's talk it over.

Titan Tractor

Back to the Old Price

$1,000

WE have reduced the price of the Titan 10-20 to its former low price of $1,000 f. o. b. Chicago. This is the same Titan tractor which 75,000 farmers have put into remarkably successful service—the same tractor, plus 1921 improvements and additions.

A full set of removable extension angle lugs sold as extra equipment under the former $1,000 price is now included without extra cost. Fenders, Platform, Angle Lugs, Throttle Governor, Friction Clutch Pulley, Wide Range Adjustable Drawbar, Water Air Cleaner—all are included in the $1,000 price.

International 8-16 and 15-30 Tractors Also Reduced in Price

Farmers who want a lighter tractor, built like a high-grade automobile but with the same sturdiness and reliability of the Titan, can now get the International 8-16 at $1,000 f. o. b. Chicago. We have long restricted the sale of this model to a limited territory, but increased production enables us to release it to all sections of the United States.

The International 15-30 tractor has been reduced to $1,950 f. o. b. Chicago.

Bear in mind that we give unequalled service, made possible through 92 branch houses and thousands of local dealers, to every International tractor owner, no matter where located.

Prices of Other Lines Reduced

Prices have also been reduced on chilled plows, tractor plows, cream separators, kerosene engines, seeding machines, International threshers, harvester-threshers, wagons, hay presses, and a number of other lines on which your dealer can give you full information.
