Accept Pastor's Resignation.

The joint consistory of the Centre Hall Reformed Charge, at a meeting on Monday evening, accepted the resignation of Rev. R. R. Jones as pastor of this charge. Rev. Jones has accepted a call from a charge near Bedford and will leave Centre Hall June 1st.

Rev. Jones served this charge about nine and one-half years, having come to Centre Hall in November, 1911.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Miss Ruth Swabb has returned from a delightful trip to Philadelphia.

The icy hand of Jack Frost laid heavily on all vegetation Monday morning.

Mrs. Joel Ferree, of McElhattan, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

John Stover is nursing a broken arm, received in cranking his new car.

Rev. Mr. Welsh, of Mt. Union, will fill the pulpit in the Presbyterian church here next Sunday afternoon, at 2.30.

Mrs. E. H. Auman is suffering a nervous breakdown at her home here.

Mrs. Emma Nelson, of Bellefonte; Mrs. G. W. Ward and daughter, Mrs. W. W. Woomer, of State College; C. M. Dale, wife and daughter Vergie, Mrs. J. H. Kelter, of Linden Hall; Mrs. C. H. Meyers and three interesting youngsters, of the Branch, were Sunday visitors in town.

Almost $100 was realized from the production of the home talent play "A Prairie Rose," which was given here on Saturday evening to a most appreciative audience, for the benefit of the Presbyterian S. S. The play will be given at Centre Hall on Saturday night. Don't miss it.

For the first time in the history of our town we are without a shoemaker. Last Thursday Samuel Martz sold out his kilt to spend the remainder of his days on Easy street. Isaac Stine, of Benore, purchased the equipment to set up shop elsewhere.

Alpha Portland cement is the best you can obtain for any work in which cement is used. We have just unloaded a carload. Get your supply early.—R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY
"RURAL WELFARE" DAYS

Interesting and Profitable Program Planned for Centre Hall.—United Action Essential.

The Y. M. C. A. of State College have offered their services in Rural Welfare work throughout Centre county for the coming year. They have an organization of young men and women who under the direction of some faculty members, have planned a program for rural communities, and the following program will be carried out at Centre Hall this week:

Saturday afternoon, recreational program for school children, on school grounds. At 3 o'clock, baseball game between Centre Hall High school and Spring Mills Vocational school; followed by other athletics.

Saturday evening, entertainment; College play of two acts and moving pictures. No admission charge. In Grange Arcadia.

Sunday, divide in groups and take charge of all Sunday Schools.

Take charge of union church services at regular morning services in Lutheran church.

Sunday afternoon, meeting with young people of the churches to help maintain interest in all church and social organizations.

Sunday evening, union services at regular hour, in Reformed church.

This organization of College men and women have a vital message for the people in the country districts and all good people should seize this opportunity for community betterment.

Will Put Up Store Building and Dwelling House.

Merchant C. M. Smith, of Centre Hall, this week makes announcement of the most important building program for Centre Hall in the past eight years. The initial step was taken when he purchased from E. S. Ripka the corner lot on which the F. V. Goodhart furniture store stands. According to Mr. Smith's plans this store building will be razed and in its place will go a three-story brick building, the lower floor to be used by Mr. Smith for his general store business while the upper floors will be arranged to furnish quarters for lodges. Immediately south of the proposed store building, Mr. Smith expects to build a suitable dwelling for himself and family.

Mr. Smith's present lease on the store-room in the Odd Fellows' building having about expired, and the intention on the part of the lodge to raise the rent to a figure which Mr. Smith considers unreasonable in view of the condition of the building, is what led him to take the step he did.

Kesslers, at Millheim, announce some worth-while reductions in a new advertisement appearing in the Reporter this week. Be sure to read the ad.

For repair work or building new, nothing makes a better job than Lehigh cement. We can take care of large or small orders; a car just unloaded.—Bradford & Co., at the Station.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Mourn Death of Baby Son.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Delaney, at Old Fort, are mourning the death of their only child—Glenn Calvin—aged nearly eight months, which occurred this Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock, following convulsions. The child had taken ill with measles the Saturday previous. Private funeral will be held this Thursday afternoon.

The infant's death completes a triple bereavement for the mother, who in the space of two months has suffered the loss of her mother, brother and only child.

HOUSER.—Mrs. Lizzie Houser, wife of Howard Houser, passed away last Friday morning at 7 o'clock. She was an adopted daughter of Daniel Kennelly and was an invalid the greater part of her life. She was aged forty-seven years. No children survive; neither brothers or sisters. Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning and burial made at Georges Valley, Rev. Haney, of the U. Ev. church, of which the deceased was a member, assisted by Rev. C. F. Catherman, officiating.

STROUSE.—Mrs. Anna, relict of the late Joseph Strouse, of Pine Hall, passed to her reward Tuesday of last week, death resulting from pneumonia. She had been in her usual good health and a few days previous visited her sick friend, Mrs. Jacob Cramer, taking a cold that speedily developed into that fatal disease.

She was the daughter of Solomon and Rebecca Kreps and was born in Pennsylvania December 3, 1843. March 19, 1863, she became the wife of Joseph Strouse, five sons, and one daughter resulting from this union. Mr. Strouse died in 1904, but she kept the old home fires burning. Her home was a royal place to stop, for she was one of those good old mothers who lengthened her days by doing for others in living a truly Christian life. Early in life she became a member of the Lutheran church and always engaged in its activities. She is survived by these children: Wm. H., and Thomas B., of Baltimore, John H., Charles and Luther K., of Pine Hall, as well as a host of other relatives and friends, who mourn her sudden departure.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning, burial being made by the side of her husband in the Pine Hall cemetery. Her pastor, Rev. A. M. Lutton, officiated and paid a glowing tribute to her memory.

On Way to Greece, Dies in New York.

Manuel Yeales, who for some time conducted a hat cleaning and shoe shining parlor in Philipsburg, according to a message which was received at the Sanitary restaurant there, died in a hospital in New York City early in the week, following an operation for gallstones.

A few weeks ago Mr. Yeales bid good-bye to friends in Philipsburg and announced that he would return to his native land, Greece, for an extensive visit. A desire to see his native land and a few relatives and old friends had grown very strong. Unfortunately he delayed too long.

Mr. Yeales, who has been in this country for more than a quarter of a century, was aged about 70 years and unmarried. During his stay in Philipsburg he became pretty well known and made numerous friends.

PENN HALL.

Snow flakes were flying on Sunday, reminding one of winter.

Sara Condo had an attack of tonsillitis, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Pealer is able to be out again. Miss Lula Zerby is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meyer were over Sunday visitors with the latter's parents in this place.

Samuel Ulrich had his house roofed this week, the Hagan crew doing the work.

Mrs. John Bartges has returned to her home at this place.

George Zerby and daughter Lula, visited Edward Zerby and family at Tusseyville one day last week.

John Smith is employed at Bellefonte. William Snyder is repairing his brother's car, the latter having had the misfortune to run into a telephone pole and wreck the car pretty badly.

The Lutheran congregation of this place gave a call to Rev. Daubenspeck, who preached a trial sermon at this church on the 1st of April.

Wallace Murrer is doing Prof. Hosterman's farming this summer. Wallace knows how.
