AN APPRECIATION.

Editorially, the State College Times, last week, spoke of a former Potter township boy and ex-principal of the Centre Hall High school, agent that person's purpose to lay aside the duties of the school room for the farm, as follows:
After three years of faithful service of the local high school Prof. W. O. Heckman on July first will close his connection with that institution and prepare to take up agricultural life on a recently purchased farm near Tusseyville, April next.
With the resignation of Prof. Heckman our town will lose one of its most progressive citizens and our school system one of its most capable men. As a teacher Mr. Heckman has ever been thorough and painstaking in his efforts to guide the wandering feet of youth along the rugged paths of knowledge. Always a friend of the student he sympathized with them in their troubles and rejoiced with them in their triumphs and to such an extent was his friendship and comradeship with the entire student body developed that every boy and girl counted Prof. Heckman as their best friend and counsellor.
As a citizen Mr. Heckman has been associated in virtually every movement that has had for its aim the betterment of civic and religious conditions in the borough. As a positive force for good he will be missed.

One of the great assets of Prof. Heckman has been his enthusiasm and his aggressive spirit in all his school work. No task has ever been too great for him to attack and the word fail was one not known in his vocabulary. Much of the progress made in the athletic program of the school has been due to his efforts, while the improvements made in the various courses of study have had as one of their promoters the energetic principal.

When Prof. Heckman lays aside the broadcloth for the blue denim, and drops the grade book and the pencil for the plow and harrow to take up his life with the "cows and chickens" amid the healthful environs of fertile old Penn's Valley he will go with a host of friends wishing him success and happiness in his new home and place of labor.

Penn State Alumni Start Commencement Program.

Alumni Reunion at the Pennsylvania State College next Saturday will usher in the annual Commencement celebration. The usual "five year" reunions will be held by members of the 1896, 1901, 1906, 1911, and 1916 classes, and the 1918 class will hold its three-year reunion. The 1911, 1916 and 1918 classes will have the largest attendance, from fifty to 100 being expected by the secretaries of each. The annual alumni business meeting, class banquets will feature the day.

President John M. Thomas will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the 460 graduates next Sunday morning and will also give the Commencement address at the graduation exercises on Tuesday. Band concerts, theatrical productions by the Penn State Student Players and the Thespians, freshmen class stunts, athletic contests with the University of Pittsburgh track and baseball teams, meeting and election of trustees and various special attractions will fill in the program for the biggest Commencement Week Penn State has ever experienced.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Harris Twp. Native Dies in West.

The death of David Kuhn, last surviving member of Peter Kuhn's family, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kate Sweeney, in Beloit, Wisconsin, on Thursday of last week, after a short illness. Deceased was aged about ninety-three years, and was a native of Harris township. He was the first-born of his father's family, and attained the greatest age; however, all five of the family reached a ripe old age. While a resident of Boalsburg, the deceased was engaged as a miller in the McFarlane mill; he followed the same line of work at Pine Grove Mills and also in Millfin county. About twenty-five years ago Mr. and Mrs. David Kuhn went West to pass their remaining years with their children. Mrs. Kuhn died some years ago and was buried at Dakota, Illinois. The body of her husband was conveyed to the same place, and on Saturday was laid to rest beside his life companion.

THOMAS—Lewis Thomas, aged eighty-three years, died suddenly at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Lee Markle, west of Centre Hall, some time Sunday night. He was apparently in his usual good health upon retiring the evening before, and when his granddaughter went to his room after he had failed to appear at his usual rising time, the body was found close to the edge of the bed—cold in death.

Deceased was born in Union county and was a veteran of the Civil war. For the past eight or nine years he spent the greater part of his time with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Markle, as well as with his only surviving son, Dice Thomas, at the Branch. There is one surviving sister, residing in Milton.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, with burial at Boalsburg.

Pastor's Salary Increased.

At a meeting of the joint council of the Penns Valley Lutheran Church, held at Spring Mills on Tuesday evening, the salary of the pastor, Rev. M. C. Drumm, was increased $100 a year. The salary paid by the church is now $1500 per annum.

Conservation Day.

Following is the program for Conservation Day, at Bellefonte, Friday, June 17th:
Rifle and bait and fly casting contests—10 a. m.
Conservation meeting—2:30 p. m. Hon. Seth Gordon, State Commissioner of Game, and Hon. N. R. Buller, State Commissioner of Fish, will address the Conservation Meeting in the Court House at 2:30 p. m.

A full day of conservation for Centre county hunters and fishermen, for those interested in song birds, wild flowers, and boy scout activities and for all lovers of our door life and sports.

Teams from different conservation districts will compete with high power rifles and smaller rifles at 10:00 a. m.

Contests in accuracy and distance bait casting and in accuracy and distance fly casting will take place at 10 a. m.

At 2:30 p. m. a County Conservation meeting will be held. All are invited to attend. In addition to Hon. Seth Gordon and Hon. N. R. Buller, other speakers familiar with Centre county conditions will address the meeting and also Dr. R. F. Beatty, president of Huntingdon County Conservation Assoc., and Grant Hoover, president of the Lycoming County Conservation Association.

The winning essay on Conservation by a High school student will be read.

During the day there will be on exhibition in the Court House:

The work of Boy Scout troops;
Mounted collections of leaves of forest trees;

Mounted collections of wild flowers;
Bird houses, etc.

Prizes will be awarded in all contests.

Announce Coming Marriage.

A double wedding, in which sisters—Miss Emilie Libby and Miss Hilda Libby—are to become the wives of Frank O. Moyer and John Kullman, respectively, will take place in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, South Euclid, Ohio, on Thursday evening, June 23rd, according to invitations recently issued.

Reporter-readers will be interested in the announcement from the fact that one of the prospective bridegrooms, Mr. Moyer, has frequently visited at Centre Hall, the Moyers being relatives of the Rearicks. Last summer the Moyer family was in Centre Hall while making an auto tour of the state.

Mr. Moyer's better-half-to-be was a nurse during the war, and Mr. Moyer tells us she is a No. 1 in every way. Having a love for the country, Mr. Moyer will quit the city of Cleveland and live at South Euclid, where he has made ready a seven room house, with an acre of land in the rear. Here he has already planted all kinds of garden seed, six bushels of potatoes and 200 tomato plants, as a beginning in fighting old H. C. L.

We wish them much happiness and prosperity.

Auction Sale at Meiss'.

Owing to the fact that there remained a lot of goods after what we advertised as the last auction sale, a few weeks ago, another will be held at our store on Saturday evening of this week. Come for bargains.—G. R. Meiss, Colyer.

PENN HALL.

Mrs. Pealer is ill at this writing.
Mrs. Hartman went to Williamsport to take treatment for her eyes.
W. H. Sinkabine entertained company from Clearfield on Sunday.
Mrs. H. M. Smith is nursing a very sore finger.

Samuel Zerby, wife and child, of Oak Hall, visited at the George Zerby home over Sunday.

W. G. Runkle, of Bellefonte, called at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. S. Musser, on Sunday.

Russel Condo and family, of Spring Mills, visited at the home of his father, J. C. Condo, on Sunday.

Geraldine, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Smith, is suffering with whooping cough.

Wallace Musser and wife, and F. S. Musser went to Williamsport on Saturday and returned the same day.

Charles Musser and lady friend Miss Kramer, of Millheim, took supper at the F. S. Musser home Sunday evening.

Edwin Zerby and family, of Tusseyville, visited at the George Zerby home on Saturday.

W. W. Smith, wife and two bright little children, Kenneth and Mildred, of Axeman, visited the former's mother, Mrs. H. M. Smith, on Saturday.

George Zerby brought his daughter, Mrs. Lucas, home from the Danville hospital on Saturday, where she went for treatment four weeks ago.

There will be a guess supper on the 11th of June, held on the Penn Hall school ground by one of the organized classes of the Sunday-school of this place. Come one come all, and help the good cause along.

LINDEN HALL.

(From last week)
W. Scott Wieland and daughter Miss Genevieve, of Hughesville, visited his brother's family here from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mrs. Samuel Goss, of Reading, and Mrs. Anna Williams, of Juniata, spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. J. H. Ross.

Mrs. Clyde Stem was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last week where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Ruthanna Sharpless, of Philadelphia, was a guest of Mildred Wieland over Memorial Day.

MILLHEIM.

(From The Journal)
F. V. O. Housman last week purchased a Reo truck at the Breen garage to be used in connection with his contracting and building business.

The sale of poppies by the local American Legion netted nearly sixty dollars. The money goes toward the support of the French war orphans.

Mrs. H. H. Leitzell was brought home Sunday from the Bellefonte hospital, where she underwent an operation several weeks ago for the removal of gall stones.

Mrs. Benj. Gordick and baby, of Detroit, Mich., were met at Bellefonte one evening last week and conveyed to Millheim, where they will spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Columbus.

A. C. Erhard, of Wellington, Kans., was an arrival in Millheim Saturday morning to spend some time with friends and relatives. He left home about a month ago, but stopped enroute in Illinois with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Wert and Mr. and Mrs. Stover G. Snook, all of Philadelphia, in the former's Hudson car, motored here Friday and spent until Monday forenoon with relatives in Millheim and Aaronburg. Both gentlemen hold the responsible position of cashier and vice president of banks in the city of Brotherly Love.

The play, "Sittin' Pretty," rendered on Tuesday and Friday evenings by the local Legion netted $112 after all expenses were deducted and the amount has been turned over to the Civic club's town hall fund.

The advance in the price of wheat caused the moving of much grain last week. On Friday the Coburn Grain and Creamery company took in almost three thousand bushels.

James H. Harter, of Coburn, one day last week sold a fine tract of timberland containing about ninety acres to Harter Bros., who are at present operating on an adjoining tract near Rote's mill.

They never made a cigarette like this in my day—

The Camel idea wasn't born then. It was the exclusive expert Camel blend that revolutionized cigarette smoking.

That Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos hits just the right spot. It gives Camels such mellow mildness and fragrance!

The first time I smoked Camels I knew they were made for me. I knew they were the smoothest, finest cigarette in the world, at any price.

Nobody can tell me anything different.
