

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. E. M. Huyett is suffering from a nervous breakdown, and is confined to bed part of the time.

Mrs. Raymond Walker was taken to the Bellefonte hospital a few days ago and submitted to an operation for appendicitis.

R. M. Foster, ex-postmaster at State College, was a visitor in town Tuesday, smiling and just as ready with a hearty hand-shake as ever.

A carload of road oil for Centre Hall borough has arrived at the local station. The oil will be applied and followed by a sprinkling of stone chips.

A big ice cream factory will be built at Philipsburg very soon. It will be owned and operated by Russ Brothers, along with their Harrisburg factory.

The cherry crop in Penns Valley will be as slim this year as last year's crop was abundant. We're going to miss those good fresh cherry pies.

The State road job on the other side of Nittany mountain is proceeding at a very satisfactory rate, and it is expected that by the first of September the job will have been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lush, of Gailton, and Miss Sue Reeder, of Newberry, were entertained at the P. P. Geary home for a few days this week. Mr. Lush is an uncle of Mrs. Geary.

Mrs. Mary Crust is again in a very critical condition at the home of her son, Charles T. Crust, near Centre Hall. Last Wednesday she was seized with another of the attacks to which she has been subject, due to high blood pressure, and her life is again despaired of.

Mrs. Sarah Reifsnnyder, who lives with her son, John Reifsnnyder, at Linden Hall, was stricken with paralysis late Sunday night and is in a critical condition. Her speech was affected, which, however, she has recovered to some extent. She is seventy-some years of age.

John L. Rowe, who was made the victim of a murderous assault by a negro in Atlantic City a little over a week ago, is recovering nicely from the knife wound and expects to leave the hospital this week. His brother, Bruce, of East Orange, N. J., and sisters, Misses Isabel and Verna, from Centre Hall, visited him on Sunday.

The Reporter's mailing list will be corrected within the next two weeks, when credit on recent subscriptions paid will be given and shown on the pink label which will appear at that time. A number of Reporter subscribers should send in remittance before the Reporter's mailing list goes to press so that their label figures may show up more creditably. Kindly figure the amount due and send in an early remittance. We need the money.

258 Quarts of Whisky Seized.

State police from Lewisburg stopped an important shipment of whisky when they arrested Edward M. Rexford and Fred Steger, both of Wilkes-Barre, at a point near Laurelton, acting upon a tip that the men were violating the Volstead act. The men were driving a car, with a license registered in Pottsville, which was found to have a specially constructed compartment in which 258 quarts of whisky were concealed. At a preliminary hearing they were held under $500 bail each for arraignment before United States Commissioner Eagle on Thursday afternoon. The bail was secured from Wilkes-Barre, where the "guardian angels" of the bootlegging profession reside.

AUTOMOBILES ARE A BOON TO HEALTH

"The use of the automobile is an important factor in the health of the individual," say DECKER BROS., local dealers in Chevrolet passenger and commercial cars.

"The motor car conserves human energy. It makes it go farther.

"The man who uses an automobile in business finds that he can cover more ground in greater physical comfort and with less cost to his nervous system.

"To ride to work in one's motor is to arrive fresh and fit. Throughout the day, for necessary trips, it makes one independent of the confusion and uncertainty of other forms of transportation. And at the end of a busy day there is restfulness to be found in the convenience of one's waiting car, in its roominess, in its easy motion and its direct progress toward home or place of recreation.

"There is stimulating diversion also in driving one's car. There is a certain amount of concentration necessary that takes the mind off other matters and leaves one refreshed for the next occupation.

"Doctors especially, among professional people, have experienced the beneficial effects of motoring. They find it enables them to take care of more work in their communities and this in turn is reflected in the increased good they are able to do for the public health.

"Motor cars have also benefited the farmer. They shorten his hours of work. They eliminate many details of worry and work connected with the use of teams and other forms of transportation. They put the farmer and his family in closer touch with a wider range of wholesome interests.

"And for recreation, for restoring men and women to full vigor after a period of exhausting work, the motor car is a boon to health."
