OBJECT LESSON WAS SPOILED "ANGEL" OF SENATE PAGES

One Small Pupil at Least Misunderstood Just What Teacher Had Intended to Impress.

The fifth-grade teacher was fond of the young principal and it was often rumored that he was engaged to her. They managed to keep it a secret from the children, yet most of them were suspicious. One day she showed her affection was by the way she co-operated with him in all his pet schemes. So when he started a movement against smoking she promptly began to help him out.

First she demanded that all her boys who smoked bring to her all the tobacco they had in their pockets. They did it and it was a goodly supply. Taking the box which held it, she said to one of the boys, "You take this down to Mr. T—"

A little boy in the rear of the room piped out: "Teacher, my sister, Bess, she's goin' to give her beau tobacco for his birthday, too."

Women as Taxpayers.

Figures show that one-fifth of the taxpayers contributing to the cost of administering the affairs of the state are women. Women, married and single, filed 144,000 of the 745,000 income tax returns in 1920.

Political Opponents of Senator Elkins Avere He Is Appearing in Entirely New Light.

When Senator Pbelan of California retired from the senate there was an air of gloom around the haunts of the pages on the Democratic side which couldn't be dispelled. The California senator has been the official angel of the pages for years and he had seen to it that they got tickets for baseball games and such things. Being a page without having an angel is hardly worth while.

About this time Senator Davis Elkins of West Virginia heard about the desperate situation of these boys and declared he would be the official angel for the suffering pages. Since Senator Elkins is supposed to own a lot of coal mines and oil wells and perhaps a railroad here and there, if they haven't been mislaid lately, nobody could make a grander angel and the pages see before them a summer marked by ball games, strewn with lollypops and ice cream.—Buffalo Express.

Similar Cases.

Preventive Measures. "Why are you so anxious to play bridge?" "Somebody will play the piano if we don't."

SCRAPS OF HUMOR

CLEARING OUT.

The chief operator stepped up to the new girl and tapped her on the shoulder. "You're fired," he said simply. "Fired!" the girl gasped. "Why, ain't I doing my work right?" "Maybe so," said the C. O. calmly. "But you're fired just the same. This way you give people the right numbers the first time they ask for them makes the rest of our service look so rotten you're causing all kinds of complaints."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

Hinks: Well they do say that time does wait for no man.
Dinks: Not so! Why people buy stuff from us on time and we wait for it for years.

Consoling.

The years play topsy-turvy tricks. As often has been told one; The plain young woman gets in time To be a pretty old one.

Skinflint's Method.

A miserly old gentleman was accosted by a street beggar. "A bit of charity," whined the beggar. "I am not in the habit of giving money in the street," was the reply. "I don't want to make a display of my wealth—but here is my address," and he handed over a visiting card of one of his friends.—Barcelona L'Esquella.

Cook's Guide.

The veteran's son asked to see his father's book of drill regulations. The parent took a bulky volume down from the shelf. "But this," protested the youngster, "is a cook book." "Certainly," the ex-warrior replied. "I was a company cook, my son."—Home Sector.

Cold Calculation.

"Statesmen don't fight duels as they did in the old days." "No," replied Senator Sorghum. "Duelling is poor business as well as bad morals. Why should statesmen fight for nothing when a couple of safety-first pugilists will divide a purse of a hundred thousand or so?"

Safer.

Phillip Morris—Wonder why Janet always has her pictures taken en profile?
Herbert Tareyton—Because it shows only half of her face.—Judge.

LOTS OF IT

"Couldn't we form a stock company and sell lots on this ocean front?"
"I should say so—and look at the water we could put in the stock."

Perversity.

The gasoline would not ignite To pull the fiver loaded. A cigarette he paused to light, And then the tank exploded.

Rash Assertion.

"I wouldn't marry the best man living," exclaimed the positive woman. "Don't be hasty," rejoined Miss Cayenne. "Take my advice, and if he has proposed to you, think it over."

Notice Delayed.

"Once we kept a maid for three weeks."
"Indeed!"
"Yes, we were away on a holiday for that time and she couldn't give notice till we returned."—Kasper (Stockholm).

Her Excuse.

Professor—Why weren't you at chapel this morning, Mabel?
Mabel—I have an excuse, professor.
Professor—Yes, I have seen him.—Judge.

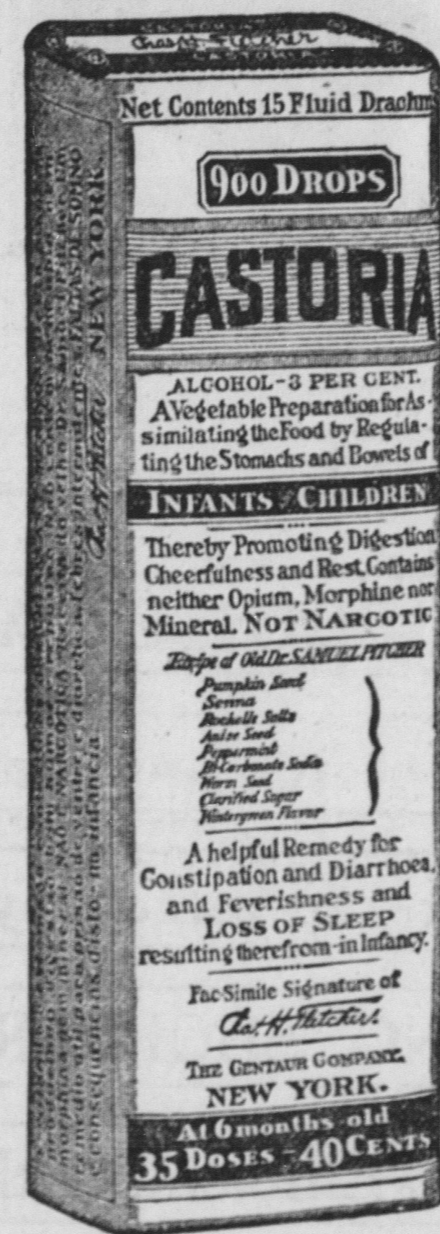

Baby Specialists.

THAT there are Physicians who specialize on Infant ailments you know. All Physicians understand Infant troubles: all Physicians treat them. It is his profession, his duty, to know human ills from the Stork to the Great Beyond.

But in serious cases he calls in the Specialist. Why? He knows as every Mother knows, or ought to know, that Baby is just a baby, needing special treatment, special remedies.

Can a Mother be less thoughtful? Can a Mother try to relieve Baby with a remedy that she would use for herself? Ask yourself; and answer honestly!

Always remember that Baby is just a baby. And remembering this you will remember that Fletcher's Castoria is made especially for Infants and Children.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

The False and the True.

Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your home, perhaps, many articles that today have been discarded, as you will readily admit.

Do you recall anything that has more modestly appealed to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria: modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—and truthfully—for our babies?

The big splurge, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the honest truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the tortoise that beat the hare.

Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little-ones.

To them: to these true mothers no argument can induce them to set aside their bottle of Castoria, their old friend, that they might try even another and unknown remedy for babies. Then, would YOU think of going to YOUR OWN medicine chest to find relief for Baby's troubles? Can you not separate the false from the true?

MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

One unworried day is a real psychological triumph.

An Odd Surprise.
Life is full of odd surprises. Here's a chap who leaped four and three-fifths miles in a parachute, risked his life, in fact, just to get back to earth. After reading the news of the day, we can't help wondering what the attraction could have been.—Arthur H. Fowell in Leslie's.

Salt Water Destroys Propeller.
The great bronze propeller screws first fitted to the steamship Mauretania were out, through the action of salt water, in three months.
