SECOND MURDER IN CENTRE COUNTY IN TWO WEEKS.

Philipsburg Scene of Shooting.—Hungarian Fires Shot Into Raymond Shaw, of Blue Ball, Causing Death.—Now in Bellefonte Jail.

Following closely on the heels of the horrible murder of George Marks, the aged Civil War veteran and recluse, at Hannah, comes the news of a second taking of human life in Centre county.
The story of the shooting and death of the victim of the recent tragedy is taken from the Philipsburg Journal:

Philipsburg was the scene of a shooting affair Friday night that resulted in the death at the McGirk sanitarium Saturday morning of Raymond Shaw, a resident of Blue Ball. His slayer, Frank Benedict, who says his home is in Clearfield, was arrested a few minutes after the shooting by Harry W. Sterling, of the State Constabulary.

The shot was fired from the street in front of the Continental hotel, on West Pine Street. From the police report and other sources it is learned that Shaw and Benedict had been in the barroom and that Benedict left the barroom first, and when Shaw came out Benedict pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot once at Shaw, who was then on the hotel porch, the bullet entering his abdomen. The wounded man did not fall over. One man says he walked back and exclaimed to the bartender, "That fellow shot me!"

Benedict had in the meantime gone down to the railroad, where he was arrested by State Policeman Sterling.
Shaw was hurried to the McGirk sanitarium.

All kinds of rumors are in circulation as to the cause of the shooting. One of them is that Benedict had a grudge of several years' standing against his victim. Another is that there was a dispute over who should pay for the drinks. Benedict stated he was in his thirty-fifth year, that he was a native of Hungary and had been in this country for seventeen years. His parents, he said, were both dead. Joe Benedict, of Clearfield, he stated was his brother.
He used a .32-caliber revolver which, he said, he had purchased in Clearfield.
The chambers of the revolver, when taken from him immediately following his arrest, were filled with loaded shells, with the exception of one chamber, which contained the exploded shell.

The shooting occurred at 6 o'clock Friday evening and Shaw died from the wound at 8:12 Saturday morning. Coroner Heaton empanelled a jury and held an inquest over the body Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

On Saturday afternoon an officer took Benedict to the Bellefonte jail.

LOCAL GIRL TO BE BRIDE
IN CHURCH WEDDING.

Brumhall-Sweetwood Nuptials in Presbyterian Church This (Thursday) Evening Promises to Be Splendid Affair.

What gives promise of being one of the prettiest church weddings held in Centre Hall for many years will take place this (Thursday) evening at six oclock in the local Presbyterian church, when Miss Ida Sweetwood, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Sweet-wood, will become the wife of Fay Beaumont Bramhall, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The church decorations will be in green, pink and white. The aisles through which the bridal party will pass to the chancel will be indicated by long ropes of flowers leading to the bridal bower, with a fan-shaped background built of flowers and mountain greens.

Before the ceremony takes place Miss Caribelle Emerick will sing "Because," by Guy d'Hardelot.

Miss Ruth Smith will play the wedding march, written by R' de Kovens.
During the ceremony the selections "Canzone Amorosa" and "Romance in A" will continue softly.

Following will be the order of procession: Ushers, who were school friends of the groom—James Sweetwood and Frances Schools, of Harrisburg; Dr. J.
V. Foster, of State College; William Hosterman, of Millheim. Bridesmaids:
Miss Elizabeth Sweetwood, Miss Ethel Rowe, in dresses of corn colored organdy; Miss Esther Gilbert, of Wyoming, and Miss Rebecca Sellers, of Hollidaysburg, in dresses of apple green organdy; Miss Delinda Potter and Miss Margaret Emery, in dresses of orchid organdy. Bridesmaids will carry bouquets of pink roses and sweet peas.

Maid of honor will be Miss Carrie Sweet-wood, dressed in pale pink and carrying bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bride will appear in a gown of white satin with veil of white tulle, carrying a bouquet of white roses and white sweet-peas. Bride and father will proceed to the altar where the bride will be met by the groom, who will be dressed in cutaway coat and grey trousers. Mott Holcombe, of Bridgeport, Conn., will be best man.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick will speak the words that will unite the principals in the holy bonds of matrimony, using the ring ceremony.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride, where a buffet supper will be served.

The groom is a resident of Brooklyn, N. Y., and is a supervisor of the Western Union in New York City. He is a graduate of Penn State, class of 1919, in electrical engineering. He was abroad six months doing experimental work in wireless telegraphy. While aboard the steamship "Lansdowne," in his voyage to different countries, he served as a wireless operator. Since his return he has made several noted inventions and improvements for the Western Union in wireless telegraphy.

The bride is a graduate of the Cente Hall High school, class of 1916, also of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, class of 1919. She taught two successful terms of school at Hollidaysburg.
She is a young woman of strong character and well qualified for the duties of a home.

After the reception Thursday night the couple will leave for a week's travel through the New England States, going part of the way by water.

Upon their return they will go to their new home, which is already furnished, at 127 N. 14th St., East Orange, N. J.

Reed-Tressler.

At twilight on Monday evening, George Reed and Miss Irene Tressler were united in marriage by the use of the ring ceremony by Rev. A. M. Lut-ton, at the home of the groom's parents, Pine Grove Mills, in the presence of the families of the contracting parties.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tressler, of near Linden Hall, and is well and favorably known to many of the readers of this paper, and is an estimable young woman, fully fitted for the duties of a home maker.
The bridegroom is a son of J. I. Reed, the well-known auctioneer, and is a garage man, employed in the Beatty shops, Bellefonte.

After a brief honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Reed will be found at home in an already furnished flat, in the Haag House, Bellefonte.

Children's Day Service.

The beautiful Children's Day service prepared by the Lutheran church board in the interest of the Loysville Orphan Home, was rendered in fine style by the Sunday school of the Lutheran church, Spring Mills, Sunday evening. All the parts were performed in a most creditable manner by both the children and those more mature in years. The boys especially presented an appearance to bring forth hearty silent applause, while their sisters were entitled to the admiration they received. An exceptionally fine number on the program was a pantomime. The program was well worked out and reflected credit to those who had it in charge.

U. S. TUBES
The same standard of quality built into U. S. Tires is put into U. S. Tubes.

Why some men seem to have all the tire luck —

YOU probably know a man whose car is a hobby with him. He knows just why it's the best little old car there is of its class. And he'll stand up for that car against the world in any kind of an argument.

Year by year an increasing number of men feel the same way about U. S. Tires.

For a while they may try "job lot" stuff, "bargains," "big discounts" and "rebates."

But usually it doesn't take long for a man to sense the economy of the standard quality tire.

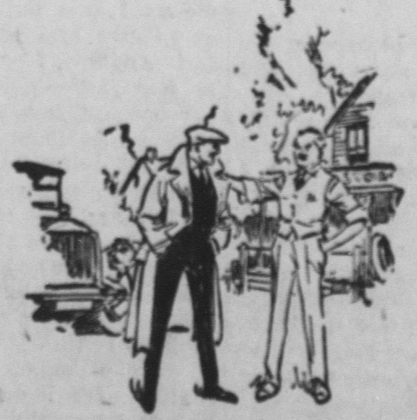

For years U. S. Tire makers have been building quality tires for sane tire users—for the car of medium or light weight no less than for the heavy car.

The tire buyers of the land have responded with a mighty U. S. Tire following.

The U. S. Tire makers meet the responsibility for supplying this nationwide following with characteristic energy.

Ninety-two U. S. Factory Branches are established, covering the entire country.

Find the U. S. Tire dealer who has the intention of serving you. You will know him by his full, completely sized line of fresh, live U. S. Tires—quality first, and the same choice of size, tread and type as in the biggest cities of the land
