

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Henry Swabb, of State College, is visiting among friends in this place.

Twin babies—boys—each weighing eight pounds, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Esterline, near Wolfs Store.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bartges, and Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Bartges attended the funeral of a relative at Reading, on Friday.

Miss Adaline McClenahan, who is employed in Baltimore, Md., is spending a two weeks' vacation at her home in Centre Hall.

Water notices are being distributed, warning against the unnecessary use of water in the borough. The borough reservoir shows a low supply.

John B. Still, of Schenectady, New York, is in Centre Hall, arranging for the sale of the household furniture of his father, Rev. Josiah Still. Mr. Still has changed his plan of conducting a private sale, and the goods will be offered at public sale, on Friday, July 1st, beginning at 1:30 o'clock.

Do not forget the Lawn Social on the afternoon and evening of the Fourth of July! The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church has obtained permission to use the porch and lawn at the home of the late Mrs. Lillian Alexander. The refreshments will consist of ice cream, cake, pie, sandwiches, coffee and lemonade. The public is cordially invited to give their patronage.

The appeal for clothing for the Near East continues as strong as ever. You can help the destitute people of Armenia by packing up a bundle of serviceable garments, etc., and addressing it to "Near East Relief Warehouse, 549 W. 39th St., New York, N. Y." Be sure to prepay the freight charges. These things can be used: coats, dresses, suits, sweaters, mittens, wool stockings, boots and shoes (tie in pairs), woolen gloves, woolen shirts, sheets to make bandages, etc.

Centre Hall Ministerium Meets.

On last Friday afternoon, the Centre Hall Ministerium convened in the Presbyterian parsonage. Reverend J. F. Bingman, was elected president to supersede Rev. R. R. Jones, lately called to a new field of labor. The Ministerium decided to meet monthly, the first Monday of each month, beginning with September.

The discussions centered about two themes of vital interest to the Kingdom: evangelism and the preparation for Christian leadership tomorrow. Consistent with the former discussion the Ministerium proposed thru the motion of Rev. M. C. Drumm to take a religious census of the town and community. This action was deemed necessary because of several facts. In the first place the Ministerium has no record of the census taken several years ago. In the second place much of the good accruing from that census and the follow-up program is now apparently lost. It was further decided that two laymen or laywomen, as the case may be, from each church comprise a canvassing committee, this committee to meet in conference with the Ministerium on July 5, at 8 p. m., in the Evangelical church. The community will then be districted, and further plans discussed.

The second matter with which the Ministerium dealt was the problem of the young life of the church. Christian leaders everywhere are deeply concerned that young men and women coming into manhood and womanhood shall consider the choice of their life work in the light of God's will. Consistent with the discussion the Ministerium decided to hold a Young Peoples' Conference for Life Service in the Lutheran Church, Saturday evening, July 16, at 8 o'clock. This conference shall embrace the local Sunday School district, and all young people from our Sunday Schools and churches between 16 and 24, or thereabouts, from Centre Hall, Spring Mills, Tasseyville, Pottery Mills, Farmers Mills, Penn Hall, and committees will be there. There will be two objects in this Conference: that life work decisions be made in the light of God's will; that definite forms of Christian service be considered in the light of God's will. A program is in the course of preparation. Our young people will have a prominent part in that program. A live-wire speaker will be present to address us. Watch for further developments.—C. F. Catherman, sec'y.

Barn Burned.

The Daniel Irvin barn, at Baileyville, was struck by lightning Monday afternoon during a rain storm, and totally destroyed by fire. The stock was all removed except three calves. A binder, corn worker, manure spreader and hand tools were also destroyed. The structure was 40x50 feet in dimension. Insurance was held in the Centre Hall fire insurance company, F. M. Fisher, secretary. The farm was tenanted by Clarence Irvin, son of Daniel Irvin, the owner.

SPRING MILLS.

The severe storm which passed over the valley on Monday did considerable damage, washing the road bed, tearing out several small bridges, etc.

Charles McCool, who was operated on in the Bellefonte hospital, is at home and is getting along nicely, and expects to go to work in the near future.

Mrs. Millard Albright and children, of Millin county, spent Sunday with Mrs. Howard Isenhardt.

John Andrew Meyer spent last week at State College.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Some hay has been made and some wheat is on shock.

The recent showers benefited vegetation greatly.

Corn and oats show a good stand and are well on, while potatoes are a poor stand.

A. S. Bailey is driving a splendid new Reo roadster and warns everyone to keep out of his way.

Mrs. Maggie Reed sold her property to J. B. Fleming. Price, $2800. Grant Martin sold his new brick mansion to W. C. Stuck for $2500.

After two weeks' visit among relatives in Pittsburg, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Hamon are again back to the M. E. parsonage.

W. A. Collins is making a concrete walk the whole length of his premises—100 feet. Who'll be next?

Mr. and Mrs. Ripple, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John G. Miller, old acquaintances, at their home on East Main street.

John F. Sausserman is surely in luck. The last will and testament of Miss Nannie B. Glenn bequeathed to him all her real estate, two fine farms, as well as her personal effects.

At the children's day services held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening, $37.00 was realized for the extension of S. S. work.

Miss Esther Neidigh is visiting relatives and friends in Dauphin and Lancaster counties.

The progressive farmers along the White Hall road have their poles up for electricity, anxiously awaiting the "juice."

Farmer Fred Garner is in the Bellefonte hospital, undergoing operations for appendicitis and abscess of the bowels.

Grace Neidigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Neidigh, is in the Glenn sanitarium, under the knife.

David Elden, while working about the barn, made a misstep, badly fracturing his left leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martz, Bertha Smith and her husband, have been visiting relatives in the valley the past two weeks. They departed for their home in Cleveland, Ohio, on Monday morning. They made the trip cross-country in their Ford car.

Death.—Miss Nancy Bailey Glenn, at the old Glenn home at Baileyville, on Tuesday night of last week, aged eighty years. Burial was made in the Graysville cemetery on Thursday afternoon.

REBERSBURG.

Mifflin Moyer is building a large barn on his premises in South Rebersburg.

Riley Bower, of Jersey Shore, made a short call on ye scribe on Sunday afternoon.

The stork was very busy the past two weeks in this vicinity. He left no less than a half dozen babies at different homes and was exceedingly generous at the home of Fred Esterline, near Wolfs Store, where he left twin baby boys, each weighing eight pounds.

During the past week E. J. Bair put a gambler roof on his barn in town.

Our farmers are busy making hay. The crop is below the average.

Wesley Hackenburg recently built a two-story porch to the east side of his dwelling house. Part of the second story he has connected into a bath room.

This week a concrete reservoir is being built at the mountain stream, south of Smulton, which will furnish our town with a bountiful supply of water.

Recently Wesley Hackenburg sold the store building, which he owned and which at present is occupied by merchant M. C. Hains, to the members of the Odd Fellows lodge of this place.

Last week Henry Stitzer, who lives on a small farm near Smulton, had the Bell telephone placed in his residence.

Jacob Heller had the painters employed last week painting his dwelling house.

THE DEATH RECORD.

SMITH.—Hervey Smith, a prominent business man of Montgomery, died at his home Tuesday afternoon. He was president of the First National bank at Montgomery since its organization, a leading stockholder in the Penn Furniture company and other local industries. He was successful as a business man and a leader for many years in the community in which he was born and lived all his life. He was an ardent Democrat and was elected a county commissioner by his party.

Mr. Smith is survived by a wife and three children, also several sisters.

Children's Ailments

DISORDERS of the stomach and constipation are the most common diseases of children. To correct them you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets. One tablet at bed time will do the work and will make your child bright and cheerful the following morning. Do not punish your children by giving them castor oil. Chamberlain's Tablets are better and more pleasant to take.
