

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Albert Emery is visiting his sister in Altoona.

A 9-lb. boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bradford on Tuesday.

Misses Elsie and Ruth Grove visited relatives at Coburn over Sunday.

Two prisoners escaped from the penitentiary at Rockview, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude K. Stahl, of Philadelphia, are spending a week with Mr. Stahl's parents, near Centre Hall.

Bradford & Co. have just received a carload of lumber, consisting of flooring, siding, roofers, and surface boards. Come and get prices.

Mrs. Catherine O. Brubaker will hold public sale of household goods at her residence in Centre Hall on Friday of this week (July 29th), at one o'clock.

Let us all display our flags and assemble on the diamond as a sign of welcome to the Lewistown Chamber of Commerce on August 3rd. Concert at 6 p. m.

Mrs. J. F. Ziegler, of Altoona, and Mrs. Della Heckman, of Wilkesburg, visited at the William B. Fiedler home on Wednesday of last week. The ladies were also pleasant callers at the Reporter office.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. M. Kirkpatrick visited her mother, Mrs. Rosa Haugh, at State College, over Sunday, that day being Mrs. Haugh's birthday anniversary, and a big dinner was held to celebrate the event.

The grain is about all housed. The harvesting was not as quickly done this year as is sometimes the case. Haying and harvesting wheat and barley came so near at the same time that on many farms the work interfered.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Musser and two daughters, of Indiana, were guests of Mrs. Musser's sister, Mrs. O. F. Funk, last week. On their return home they took with them Mrs. Funk's daughter, Miss Mildred, who will be their guest for some time.

Reunions and small picnics are being held in the Seven Mountains, at Crystal Springs, and various other sections this summer. The auto carries the outing parties so easily and quickly that the remotest locations are preferred to the park heretofore patronized.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin expect to leave to-day for Philadelphia and Atlantic City, taking advantage of the Pennsy's 16-day excursion. In Philadelphia they will visit the latter's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bailey, and Mr. Kerlin will also attend a convention of poultrymen in that city.

William E. Yearick and family, of Cedar Run; Joseph E. Bickle and family, of Lock Haven, were entertained at the home of the former's brother, Dr. G. I. Yearick, in Centre Hall, on Sunday. Misses Agnes Caris and Erie Wise, of Madisonburg, were also visitors at the Yearick home for several days last week.

The Krape farm east of Centre Hall, tenanted by Wm. H. Haney, will be vacated next spring and will be occupied by George Fetterolf. Mr. Haney will move to the Miss Jennie Reifsnnyder farm, this side of Millheim, and north of state road. Mr. Fetterolf has been located on the Edward Durst farm, at Earlstown, for two years.

A local force of men have been working for some time on the road over Nittany mountain, and by this time have lightly graveled a considerable portion of the road between the top of the mountain and Centre Hall. When the road is opened to Bellefonte we will have a comparatively good link between here and the brick section of the state road.

Rev. D. J. Mitterling, of Madison, South Dakota, arrived in Centre Hall last Saturday, and is enjoying a two weeks' vacation amid the scenes of his youth, a joy with him second to none. On Sunday morning he spoke in the Union church at Tusseyville and in the afternoon he filled the pulpit for Rev. Drumm in the Lutheran church at Centre Hall, preaching a good sermon.

The Reporter on Tuesday evening was favored by a call from E. W. Thomas, who is identified with the steel works at Burnham, and A. S. Warner, an auto dealer, of Lewistown. They came to Centre Hall as representatives of the Lewistown chamber of commerce, holding the position of secretary and vice president of that body, to arrange for a lunch and band concert here on August 3rd, reference of which is made elsewhere in this issue.

Wednesday of next week, August 3rd, the Lewistown Chamber of Commerce will make an advertising tour, reaching Centre Hall at about six o'clock p. m., and will take lunch at the Shoop restaurant. While here the Lewistown band, a uniformed and splendidly trained musical organization, fostered by the Chamber of Commerce, will give a concert. The party will travel in fifty automobiles, and will consist of Lewistown's most progressive citizens, and they extend to the general public an invitation to come out and enjoy the concert. The itinerary is as follows: Up the Kishacoquillas valley to Belleville, Huntingdon, Williamsburg, Holidaysburg, Altoona; concert at Lakemont Park, dinner at Altoona; returning by way of Bellewood, Tyrone, Spruce Creek, State College, Centre Hall.

Last year the advertising tour was to Milton, Sunbury and Northumberland, and the year previous to Harrisburg and Carlisle.

THINKING OF BUYING A PIANO?

Here are a few points to bear in mind: What is added up to make the price of the piano you buy? First is the manufacturer's price, or wholesale price. Then the dealer's expense follows. He carries only $5,000 of stock. Now he figures interest on this amount at 6 per cent; he carries insurance which means another 6 per cent. The room he occupies is rent to pay or money invested, adding another 5 per cent. The man he has working for him will mean at least 3 per cent—making a total of 20 per cent dealer's expense.

WHY NOT BUY FROM A LOCAL AGENT, direct from the manufacturer, thereby SAVING this 20 PER CENT FOR YOURSELF.

"Ouija! What's the good word?"

MY YOUNG sister,
HAS A Ouija board.
AND SHE believes it.
AND TALKS to Noah,
AND I think she talks
TO HER best fellow.
WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it,
AND I used to give her.
THE LOUD, rude laugh.
BUT I'M sorry now,
BECAUSE LAST night,
I WAS home alone,
SO I got the board,
AND PUT in a call
FOR JOHN Barleycorn,
AND OTHER departed spirits,
BUT THE line was busy.
FOR NOTHING happened.
THEN I cheated a little,
AND IT spelled this.
"GRAMMASHOTTA SEVEN."

SO I shut off quick,
TO HEAD off any
FURTHER FAMILY scandal.
THEN I stopped to smoke,
A CIGARETTE.
AND AFTER a while,
I CRANKED up weejee,
AND ALL of a sudden,
IT STARTED off.
AND QUICK as a flash,
IT SAID something.
"THEY SATISFY."

"SATISFY"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos when they blend them in that can't-be-copied Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy."

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?
