Rev. Frederick K. Stamm, of the Reformed church of Dayton, Ohio, will preach in the Reformed Church, Boalsburg, on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The trout season closed on Saturday.

Alexander Home Sold.

The palatial brick residence of the late Dr. J. F. Alexander, in Centre Hall, was sold this week to Prof. L. O. Packer, through the Bartholomew agency. Consideration, $5,000.00.

Prof. Packer was a former resident of Centre Hall, and a few years ago sold his home here and removed with his family to near Pittsburgh, where he became an instructor in a Pittsburgh High school. He still holds that position, and will continue in the work at that place, while his family lives here. It is the intention of the Packer family to come to Centre Hall within the next six weeks and occupy their new home. Mr. Packer purposes making many needed repairs about the property, which when completed, will give the Packers a home second to none in the town, from whatever standpoint it might be considered.

The Alexander home was built by the late Dr. J. F. Alexander in 1885, and remained in the Alexander name continuously. Since the death of Mrs. Alexander, which occurred about a year ago, the house has been vacant.

The addition of the Packer family to Centre Hall is a distinct gain for the town, for both Prof. and Mrs. Packer have a love for the place, which is essential to useful citizenship.

Millheim Trims Spring Mills.

New Auto License Tags.

The automobile division of the State Highway department has received a first shipment of 50,000 of the 1922 license tags. These tags are brown and cream the base of the tag being cream and the numerals brown. The automobile division is making plans to begin the shipment of 1922 license plates about the middle of November.

Married at Oak Hall.

On Thursday evening of last week, Spurgeon M. McCaulley and Clara C. Shaffer, of Punxsutawney, who were visiting their friends, the Gillilands, of Oak Hall, were united in marriage by the Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Centre Hall. The ceremony took place at 6 p. m. and as soon as congratulations and good wishes were extended to the newly married couple, the group of friends enveloped a table which groaned with eats. This group soon relieved the over-laden table and certainly punished themselves by being so helpful to the overburdened feeling of the table.

Following the meal the ones who were able to go started to Lemont for prayer meeting. Soon after leaving the house the five on the front seat of the Ford arose and found the sleighbells which had been concealed under the seat. With these they decorated the car while the six in the back seat sat close in sardine style and in this way prevented the bride and groom from leaving the car. They first drove to Lemont, where they deposited two of their members who went to prayer meeting. The other eleven stayed by the Ford until they had visited State College, Oak Hall and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaulley, after they finish their visit at Oak Hall, will return to their furnished home in Punxsutawney.

Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley and son Robert, D. M. Campbell, Mrs. Nannie M. Gilliland, Mr. and Mrs. David Gilliland, Mr. and Mrs. James Gilliland, Sara, Eliza, John, and Alice Gilliland, and Leon Bryner.

Poultry Culling.

Realizing the importance of culling the poultry flock, County Agent J. N. Robinson has secured the services of H. D. Monroe, Poultry Specialist from the Penn. State College, to conduct a campaign to have poultry keepers sell the poor, low-producing hens and keep only the hens that will return a profit.

During the week of Aug. 11th fifteen demonstrations will be given. Everyone attending will be given an opportunity to handle the birds and thus get actual experience in culling poultry. In teaching culling, the best results are obtained when the farmers actually handle the birds under the direction of the poultry specialist. All those attending the meetings should prepare to handle the hens.

Special Attention.

Rubin and Rubin, Harrisburg's leading eyesight specialists, will be at Centre Hall Hotel, on Thursday, Aug. 25. Good glasses are fitted as low as $2.00; your eyes are examined free and the examination is made without the use of drops.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

"HOW I MADE WOODROW WILSON PRESIDENT,"—William F. McCune, National Chairman and Woodrow Wilson's personal manager writes an amazing historical document that will astound the Nation. In the first chapter, which appears in NEXT SUNDAY'S NEW YORK AMERICAN, he tells how the Princeton Trustees about to drop Wilson and "to let him down easy" suggest him for governor of New Jersey. Wilson asks McCune to manage his Presidential campaign—Wilson's first speech shocks him—McCune introduces McCune to Wilson. "Everybody is against Wilson!" says McCune—Pennfield's large contribution of money and his subsequent appointment as Ambassador to Austria—Don't miss a single chapter of these startling revelations. Order Next Sunday's New York American from your newsdealer today.
