

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

August 1st had all the appearance of a Fall day.

A bath room outfit is being installed in the W. A. Odenkirk home, at the station.

Corn fields are looking fine and the crop in Penns Valley should be a record smasher this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morgan, of Homestead, are spending the week at the S. W. Smith home.

The Odd Fellows' band of Bellefonte will give a concert in Millheim next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

John Garis expects to join Troop B, of Bellefonte, to-morrow, in going to Mt. Gretna for a fifteen-day encampment.

Miss Ruth Rockey, of Tusseyville, left recently for Cleveland, Ohio, where she expects to spend a few months.

Orvis Weaver and family moved from Reedsville last week into a portion of the John Benner home, in Centre Hall.

Many Centre county teachers are "peevish" because the teachers' institute conflicts with the Graeg Encampment and Fair.

According to Miss Grace Smith's enumeration of school children, there are 114 children of school age in Centre Hall borough.

Miss Grace Bradford, of Lemont, and Miss Larue Ishler, of Linden Hall, took dinner with their friends, the Kirkpatricks, in Centre Hall, one day last week.

As a reminder that the fall season is fast approaching, we are already in the month when fairs are upon us. The Lewistown fair dates are August 23 to 26.

S. P. Hennigh, who more than three months ago fractured his hip in a fall from a ladder at his home in Centre Hall, is able to be about with the aid of crutches.

Mrs. A. E. Kerlin sustained a sprained ankle, while picking apples from under a tree at the Kerlin home. A misstep over the uneven ground was the cause of the accident.

Lawn croquette is popular with local residents, and in order that the shades of night might not break up an interesting game, electric lights have been strung about F. M. Fisher's lawn for playing after dark.

Pupils desiring to enter the public schools of Centre Hall, either in the grades or High school, must make that request of the local board of school directors before the opening of the term, as required by law.

The Centre Hall school board calls attention to the matter of having children vaccinated before the opening of the school term. This is a matter not left to the choice of the local board, but is a law, and must be enforced.

Colonel Theodore Davis Boal, of Boalsburg, spent several days last week at Mt. Gretna to make preparations for the annual P. N. G. Encampment, August 6-20. The Boal Troop will go in a body for the two weeks' training.

The mountain road, to Pleasant Gap and Bellefonte, was opened to travel the latter part of last week. Bricking the mountain stretch of the state road job needs yet to be done before the work is completed, but the brick have not yet been received.

The borough of State College is enjoying a building boom, nevertheless the housing situation is not being relieved to any great extent. There are now in course of construction some thirty houses in and about the town, as well as a new Evangelical church.

Mrs. Emma Breon and daughter, Mrs. Robert Barnes and interesting little son, of Tamaqua, have been visiting relatives in this section for the past few weeks. Mr. Barnes is expected to arrive in Centre Hall in a few days and will accompany his family and mother-in-law home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Russell Grove, of Pittsburg, are visiting the home of the former's father, B. Gardner Grove, this week. After spending a two weeks vacation in Lock Haven and this section, they will depart for their home, where Mr. Grove is employed with the United States Aluminum Co.

John L. Rowe, who has been at his parental home in Centre Hall for nearly two months, returned to Atlantic City, N. J., on Tuesday. He has fully recovered from the knife thrust, at the hands of a negro, in Atlantic City, on the 29th of May. The wound in his side has healed nicely and he expects to return to his work as a plumber within a few days.

Rev. Robert B. Longwell, wife and daughter Geraldine, and Mrs. Longwell's father, Rev. John Ballentine, of Butler county, are being entertained by the former's brother and wife, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Longwell, in Centre Hall. Rev. Longwell is enjoying his second furlough in 14 years of foreign mission work under the Baptist Board. For some years he has been located at Assam, India.

Mrs. James O'Malley and daughter, Miss Hazel, who had been guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Longwell for the past six weeks, returned to their home in West Suffield, Conn., last week. It is interesting to note that Miss Hazel, a girl of eighteen, suffering from what the family physician claimed was an incurable case of kidney trouble, under the care of Dr. Longwell has been practically restored to complete health during her stay in Centre Hall.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Sarah Homan is a guest at the home of her nephew, L. L. Smith.

Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Jones and daughter, Miss Gladys, will visit friends in Centre Hall the latter part of this week.

Miss Nora Berlew, of Orange, Pa., is visiting her friend, Miss Ruth Smith. The young ladies were classmates at Bloomsburg Normal.

Mrs. Ammon Burkholder and daughter Margaret, and Mrs. L. W. Person and little niece, Beulah Person, of Phillipsburg, N. J., are visiting at the home of Mrs. M. E. Strohm.

Mrs. Sarah J. Kerlin, who is in the Bellefonte hospital as the result of an accident a few weeks ago, in which she fractured her hip and arm, is holding her own. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kerlin have made several visits to the hospital recently, and report having found Grandmother Kerlin suffering much pain.

The weekly boarders at the Eutaw House at the present time are Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stoughton and two daughters, Mrs. H. T. Meyer, Mrs. P. B. Cregar, and son John, and H. P. Schell.

George Condo, one of our boys, after spending two years in the World War, and two years in training at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, received his honorable discharge and returned home to his parents and many friends on Monday. George says he has had enough of army life, unless Uncle Sam calls on him again.

Miss Renna Wagner, who is attending Normal School at Lock Haven, spent Sunday at home. She will teach the Decker school again this winter.

Earl Bartly entered the Danville hospital for treatment last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Royer of Madisonburg, spent Sunday at the W. O. Gramley home.

The town was well represented at the Woodward festival on Saturday evening.

Don't stick with the prunes

MY DAD'S favorite yarn. WAS THE one about THE OLD storekeeper. WHO WAS playing checkers. IN THE back of the store. AMONG THE coal oil. AND THE prunes. WHEN THE sheriff. WHO HAD just jumped his king. SAID "SI there's a customer. WAITIN' OUT front." AND SI said "Sh-h-h-h!" IF YOU'LL keep quiet. MEBBE HE'LL go away." NOW HERE'S the big idea. WHEN A good thing. HAPPENS ALONG. DON'T LEAVE it to Georgia. TO GRAB the gravy. FRINSTANCE IF.

YOU HEAR of a smoke. OR READ about a smoke. THAT REALLY does more. THAN PLEASE the taste. THERE ARE no hooks on you. THERE'S NO law against. YOUR STEPPING up. WITH THE other live ones. AND SAYING right out. IN A loud, clear voice. "GIMME A pack of. THOSE CIGARETTES. THAT SATISFY."

YOU'LL say you never tasted such flavor, such mild but full-bodied tobacco goodness. You're right, too, because they don't make other cigarettes like Chesterfields. The Chesterfield blend can't be copied.

Have you seen the new AIR-TIGHT tins of 50?
