THE DEATH RECORD.

MARKLE.—Mrs. Sarah Markle died on Saturday afternoon at her home at Peru, aged sixty-six years. Burial was made on Tuesday afternoon at Pleasant Gap. Her husband preceded her a number of years ago, but several sons and daughters survive.

THOMPSON.—Budd Thompson, life-long resident of Martha Furnace, and one of Centre county's most prominent and widely known persons, died at the Thompson farm homestead on Wednesday afternoon of last week, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis and complications. He has been in impaired health for several years past.

Potato Blight Is Here.

Several potato fields in Centre county have already gone down completely with the late blight. If present weather conditions continue it will probably be as serious as last year. County Agent J. N. Robinson says that the men who have been spraying thoroughly need not worry. However, he suggests that they start in shortening the interval between sprays, thus spraying every ten days for the remainder of the season instead of every two weeks as is ordinarily recommended for the ordinary season.

Special Attention.

Rubin and Rubin, Harrisburg's leading eyesight specialists, will be at Centre Hall Hotel, on Thursday, Aug. 25. Good glasses are fitted as low as $2.00; your eyes are examined free and the examination is made without the use of drops.

SPRING MILLS.

Mrs. Adam Finkle is on the sick list. The interior of the Vocational school is being painted.

Daniel Kenedy went to Lock Haven on Monday on a short visit.

The Heckman-Rishel reunion, held at Crystal Springs on Saturday, was well represented from this place.

Windom Morris and family, of Pittsburgh, are spending their vacation with Mr. Morris' sister, Mrs. John Myers.

The next big event is the community picnic, Thursday, August 25, in Herring's woods.

The festival held by the P. O. S. of A. was attended by a large crowd of people. The proceeds were large.

Mrs. Carl Rossman, of Altoona, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle.

Rev. D. Gress, two daughters, and Miss Emma Black, of Harrison City, were calling on their many friends on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Zerby, of Youngstown, Ohio, are spending some time at the home of Mrs. Zerby's father, Andrew Corman.

POTTERS MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farmer and daughter Miss Miriam, of Philadelphia, were guests with Mrs. Anna Palmer this week.

Frank McKinney, after spending several months in Potters Mills, returned to his employment in Altoona on Sunday.

Good bargains will be had for your late summer needs at Kessler's, Millheim.

THE 48TH ENCAMPMENT AND GRANGE FAIR.

Heavy Demand for Tents.—Management Urges Good Exhibit in All Departments from Centre Countians.

The 48th Annual Encampment and Fair, by all indications, will be the biggest and best ever held in Centre county and the committee asks the co-operation of the people in general, friends and patrons, in making it possible to surpass fairs of past years.

Bring your finest fruits, vegetables and cereals and put them on exhibition, showing what a rich agricultural county such as Centre can grow.

Premiums of ten cents will be paid as here-to-fore for each worth-while article. In addition, competent judges will award 1st and 2nd prizes in this department, which will be paid in cash.

Pure-bred stock is rapidly increasing in numbers in Central Pennsylvania and we expect to have a splendid showing in this department. Cash prizes will also be paid after the stock in the various classes has been judged according to its merits.

Never before have we had so many tents nor tenters on the Park as this year, and surely no more beautiful place could be found for a week's vacation than Grange Park affords. $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00, depending on size of tents, is the rent for a week or ten days occupancy. Two admissions given with each tent, provided the occupant comes to headquarters, pays rent and gets tickets on Monday or Tuesday of Encampment week. No tickets afterward refunded to tenters.

When possible, tenters are requested to furnish themselves with oil stoves as the number of old stoves formerly used grows less each year.

Tents are floored and furnished with cots or bunks, tables and bench. Straw can be secured on the ground.

Ten cent premiums will be paid in the needle-work department on all articles not here-to-fore exhibited. And we feel confident this always interesting department will be even more so this year.

An entertaining, instructive and interesting program has been planned for the week.

Bands will furnish music Wednesday and Thursday. Prominent speakers will be in attendance and we bespeak for them large and interested audiences.

Tuesday will be given to rural life activities and Professor Bressler, our county lecturer, assisted by Professors Payne and Dennis ask the cooperation of all the young people to make it the best day of all.

Games, contests, community singing and various other entertaining and instructive features are planned.

Wednesday, the Centre County Veterans' Club will hold their annual reunion on Grange Park.

Thursday will be a big Grange day when Hon. John McSparran, our worthy State Master, and Dr. Thomas, president of Pennsylvania State College, will be with us.—Secretary.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Mrs. Wm. Martz spent several days visiting friends in Pleasant Gap and Bellefonte.

Edgar Miller, Boyd Jordan and William Jordan made a trip to Danville on Sunday.

Mrs. John Neff and Mrs. John Rimmer took supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slutterbeck on Sunday.

M. F. Rossman and Rev. Mitterling made a trip to Hollidaysburg on Thursday by automobile and Rev. Mitterling was entertained at the Rossman home over night.

Mrs. Stewart Jordan and Mrs. Frank Lingle, who underwent operations last week for cancer, at the Danville hospital, are getting along as well as can be expected.

Dorothy Fohringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fohringer, was taken to Harrisburg last week by members of the Red Cross at State College, where she was examined and it was found necessary for her to wear a hip brace for six months.

"Know Your Potatoes."

As a part of the potato improvement program for Centre county, J. N. Robinson, County Agent, has arranged to hold several potato roguing demonstrations.

At these field meetings, E. L. Nixon, Extension Plant Pathologist, will point out the differences between diseased and healthy potato plants. It is absolutely impossible to detect many of the most serious potato diseases after the potatoes have been raised. The proper time to select your seed potatoes is during the growing season, hence these meetings will be held in the field and while the plants are still growing.

If you are at all interested in efficient potato production you cannot afford to plant diseased potatoes. Attend one of these roguing demonstrations and then clean up enough of your own potato field to supply you with good healthy seed for the next spring. The schedule of meetings follows:

Friday, Aug. 19, at 9:30 a. m.—at A. S. Ellenberger's, near Gatesburg.

Friday, Aug. 19, at 1:30 p. m.—at J. M. Campbell, near Pa. Furnace.

Saturday, Aug. 20, at 9:30 a. m.—at Lloyd White's, on road from Pleasant Gap to Zion.

Saturday, Aug. 20, at 1:30 p. m.—at R. P. Confer's, near Howard.

Spring Mills 2, Rebersburg 0.

In a close contest between Spring Mills and Rebersburg at Spring Mills on Saturday, Spring Mills won by a close margin of 2-0. The two runs came in the first inning when with men on base, Ziegler made a wild throw. The game was close and both sides gave their pitchers good support in pinches. The visitors got five hits off Gramley while Spring Mills got nine off Ziegler. The score follows:

"THEY Satisfy"—nothing else so well describes Chesterfields' mildness, their mellowness, their delicacy of aroma and smooth, even "body." It took the finest varieties of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos to do it—and the highest order of skill in blending them. Yes, the Chesterfield blend is a secret. It can't be copied.
