DEAD AT 87 YEARS.

Mrs. Kate McCormick Carson, Christian Mother and Beloved By All, Passes to Her Reward.

CARSON.—Kate McCormick Carson died at her home in Potters Mills, Thursday, Aug. 25. Her strength began failing two years ago and for the past eight months was unable to leave her bed. She was born in Potter township, July 9th, 1834, and spent her entire life of 87 years, 1 month and 16 days in Potter township, except a period of a few years in early girlhood during which time her family lived at Houston, Centre county. She was the last surviving member of a family of nine children born of and reared by a devoted Christian mother, (her father having died on the day of her birth,) who instilled within her the principle of love and kindness which helped her to live a useful and devoted life. She was a life long member of the Presbyterian church, a devoted Christian mother and a helpful friend in her home and community. Her husband, Joseph Gibson Carson, preceded her to the great beyond thirty-six years ago. She leaves to survive her two sons—Joseph M. Carson and Frank A. Carson, both of Potters Mills, and five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Interment was made at Sprucetown cemetery on Saturday at 2:30 p. m.; services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Centre Hall, her body being borne to its last resting place by her two sons and four nephews—Hon. J. T. McCormick, Dr. S. B. McCormick, W. W. McCormick, and W. F. McCormick.

Gave Talk on Foreign Missions.

Centre Hall people were given a real treat Sunday evening, Aug. 21, in the form of a missionary feast in the Presbyterian church.

The one who presented the missionary thought food and the Christian heart nourishment was the Rev. R. B. Longwell. He brought a message which should never be forgotten. The church was well filled. The ministers present were, Rev. Edward Glenn, of Carlisle, Rev. J. Fred Bingman, Rev. Geo. Ballantine, Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick.

A free-will offering was taken for the mission cause on the field where Mr. Longwell is working.

The Presbyterian people are certainly grateful to the Baptist brother for such a good report of Christ's work on the foreign field.

A special number of music was given by the Kirkpatricks.

All visiting ministers took a part in services.

Notice, G. A. R.

Members of the Centre County Veterans' Club should not forget to wear the little bronze button on Wednesday of next week—the day of the veterans' reunion on Grange Park—as a means of identification at the gate, so that they may be admitted free.

Local Boy Scouts Expedition in Seven Mountains.

At a meeting of the Boy Scouts on Friday evening, Aug. 19, a committee was appointed to make ready for a scouting expedition. The members of this committee were Harvey Flink, Frederic Moore, Albert Emery, and these were supported by many other members of the troupe. They worked with such rapidity that early Monday morning everybody was ready to board John Knarr's cattle truck. Mr. Knarr's car was loaded to its capacity with tents, eats, scout utensils, base ball equipments and good scouts. They drove to the Lewistown Boy Scout encampment in Seven Mts, which is situated 1-2 mile east of Patrick Garrity's. Here they pitched their two new tents and prepared a sumptuous dinner on a fire place built in about ten minutes. After dinner a real fire place was built near the spring by scout Ernest Frank, chief mason, and his cohorts.

After the supper hour Kirkpatrick, Flink and Smith started for more provisions to the city of Potters Mills. This trip was of little avail because we could not get the things we not already had. We had to satisfy ourselves with 2 1-2 dozen of said-to-be new laid eggs. Rather than run the risk of being beaten on our return we purchased enough sweetmeats to quiet the discontent of the boys who remained in camp when we went back with little real food.

While we were away the ones who had remained at camp had wandered several miles from camp and in their quiet march stumbled upon a stove which they appropriated, after one of the scouts had assured them that his father would permit them to use it.

The nights were cold and the stove was more than a convenience. The old saying of "sleep tight and don't leave the bed bugs bite" was not needed for all bugs hunted a hiding place before dark to protect themselves from the cold.

We all took turns at the cooking and only one bunch fell short on their work, but we did not blame them much for 7 a. m. is an unearthly hour for certain people to rise.

Byres Ripka complained about the beans, and no one knew the reason why until later when the races came off. He never mentioned that he was in training or we would have had a training table for him. Nevertheless he won first prize in the dashes.

Doc Crawford sure does like to sleep in the mornings. It was too bad that the boys stole the breakfast food from his haver sack. He had to "get up" for breakfast.

Curtis Reiber took beans along in his pillcase and it looked as if he might need them the way he made the grub disappear. There was only once during the camping that he was satisfied and that was after eating three dinners, he took for dessert one slice of ham 1-2 in. thick and 12 1-4 inches in circumference.

Our visitors were, C. E. Flink, Jennings Zettle, Alfred Crawford, Jefferson Slick, Harold Keller. We enjoyed their company and hope they have not died because of their visit.

On Tuesday p. m. a game of ball was played—Hicks vs. Icks,—Hicks, 40 or more; Icks, 3.

Butcher Knarr hauled the calves home

Wednesday p. m. and none bawled because they had not a good time. We hope to see you all at the picnic and that your measles will soon be gone. —Scoutmaster.

Miss Rebecca Derstine has returned from a visit to her brother in Clearfield.

Peaches have found their way to the local market and are bringing $4.00 a bushel.

"Do Rats Talk to Each Other?" Asks Mr. M. Batty, R. I.

"I got five cakes of Rat-Snap and three pieces around feed store. Got about half a dozen dead rats a day for two solid weeks. Suddenly, they got fewer. Now we haven't any. Who told them about Rat-Snap? Rats dry up and leave no smell. Three sizes: 35c 65c, $1.25.

MILLHEIM PENN. KESSLER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

One Quality-One Price

Firestone
Again Reduces Price

Extra Size 30x3 1/2 $16.65

Now $ 13.95

Firestone first made the low price of $13.95 on the Standard Non-Skid, May 2. Unusual purchasing power through big volume of business, and the great efficiency of its $7,000,000 Plant No. 2, manufacturing exclusively 30x3 1/2 size, made this possible. Now, the production of the Extra-Size 30x3 1/2 tire has been transferred to Plant No. 2. This permits the price reduction on this tire from $16.65 to $13.95. No such value has ever before been offered tire users. If your dealer hasn't the Extra-Size in stock ask for our Standard Non-Skid type at the same price. You will still be getting an unusual tire value.

Cords That Don't Blow Out

You feel secure on Firestone Cords. Because Firestone Cords don't blow out. Your repair man will tell you he hasn't seen a blowout this past year—10,000, 15,000 and 20,000 miles, and the tires still going strong. See your Firestone dealer today. Name below.

Firestone Cord Tires are being sold at lowest prices in cord tire history: 30x3 1/2—$24.40 32x4—$46.30 34x4 1/2—$54.90
