

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work every day, but felt stupid and would not have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much, so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about your medicine and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments. You may use my testimonial as you like."—STELLA LANKWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Indiana.

Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations, and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Doin' Fine at College.

"John writes that he's doin' fine at college this year," said the old man.

"You don't say!"

"Yes," writes just as easy in Latin as he swears in English. Other day he gave a Greek dinner in my honor."

"Wuz you that?"

"Oh, no!"

"Well, whar did you come in?"

"Paid for in English!"—Atlanta Constitution.

FIGHTING WASHINGTON COPPER BEING GROOMED FOR DEMPSEY

Jack Dempsey had better watch out, for Harry Darnielle, Washington, D. C. policeman, is being groomed by Dr. E. F. Roller of New York, to knock the champion from under his crown.

Darnielle, who held the heavyweight title of the U. S. destroyer fleet at Guantanamo bay, Cuba, sprang into the limelight July 4th, when he knocked out 20 ruffians in a rough-and-tumble fight in Washington. Todd C. Woodworth, Arizona mining man and sportsman, decided to look the wonder cop over. In Darnielle, he immediately saw championship timber, and Todd and the fighting cop made the trip to New York, where Darnielle was examined and put through the paces by Doctor Roller, former champion wrestler.

Darnielle is twenty-two years old, weighs 198 pounds, and is lightning fast on his feet. The most extraordinary feature of his makeup is his chest, which stretches a tape 48 inches.

"It might take a year or two," say his admirers, "but Darnielle will be the next heavyweight champion of the world."

The photograph shows Harry Darnielle in center with C. E. Van Riper (on left), and Todd C. Woodworth, Darnielle's discoverer.

Diamond Squibs

The biggest event in the International league is when Baltimore loses a game.

Fifty-two aerial bombs failed to sink a warship. Let Babe Ruth take a crack at it.

Babe Ruth may knock them farther, but he is not among the five leaders for frequency.

Hubert Test, who has been pitching for Rochester and elsewhere, has joined the Flint team.

Chicago wonders why the Cubs are not in the first division. Lack of pitchers, the same as other clubs.

The Bloomington club has turned Outfielder Paul Johnson and Pitcher Shirey back to the Washington club.

Aroused by the fate of the "Black Sox," the White Sox will endeavor henceforth to keep themselves immaculate.

The report that Connie Mack will have a great team next year reminds us that he always has a great team—next year.

Ever since the announcement that Fohl would manage the St. Louis Browns in 1922 the team has been winning.

Any baseball race that does not have a Chicago team champing on the bit for a place in front isn't a regular pennant struggle.

The veteran Otto Jordan, let out as manager by the Kitchener club, was offered a position on the Mint league staff of umpires.

Schmandt is playing first so well that Konetchy is not missed, but Brooklyn needs more than propping up at the initial corner.

St. Louis man says the Giants are slinky in many places. He mentions first base as one of them. Poor Kelly, they never let him alone.

Manager George Stallings of the Rochester team found he had quite a capable first baseman as well as high-class pitcher in Sam Post.

That Frenchman who says Americans can't appreciate tragedy should watch the grand stand when an outfielder drops an easy one.

Suggested by the testimony in the baseball scandal trial that a crooked pitcher in a world's series is one who is not averse to tossing something.

Pitcher Allen Conkwright, after making the rounds, is back with the Bloomington Club. He was sold to Detroit, which slipped him to Rochester.

Everybody would like to forget the ugly stories of baseball "fixing," but perhaps it will have a salutary effect to keep them in mind a little while longer.

Verne Jacobson a younger brother of Baby Doll Jacobson of the St. Louis Browns, has been getting a trial with the Rock Island Club of the Three-I League.

BASEBALL PRICES HURT

There is something else the matter with our national game besides the lively hitting. The falling off in attendance is due to another cause than the resilient pill.

It's the price charged to see the games. Fans have begun to figure in pennies again instead of dollars, since the war flurry has passed.

They are of the opinion that no ball game is worth two hours of their time and $1.10 of their money.

The prewar price of 75 cents would make a noticeable difference in the turnstile records.

This difference of 35 cents in the scale of seat prices isn't much, but it is enough to send hundreds of baseball fans to seek other forms of entertainment.

BETTER PLAN TO PASS RUTH

Poor Strategy to Pitch to Great Slugger With Men on Bases—Ty Cobb's Error.

While it is good sportsmanship to pitch to Babe Ruth, with men on the bases, it is poor strategy.

No less a strategist than Ty Cobb made such a blunder when Bamblino got his eighteenth homer, scored two men ahead of him, tied the score and made it possible for the Yanks to win out in the ninth.

Babe takes full advantage of these tactical errors.

He so seldom is given a chance to hit when runners are on the paths that he tries a little harder on such occasions.

DAVENPORT RELEASED BECAUSE "TOO GOOD"

Opposing Teams Would Not Play Against Big Hurler.

Almost Won Pennant Single-Handed for St. Louis Club of Federal League—Couldn't Behave in Big League.

Released from two American league teams because he was "too bad," Dave Davenport, former mammoth hurler of the St. Louis Browns and Washington Senators, was released by the Ogden team of the Northern Utah league because he was "too good."

Big Dave pitched seven games for Ogden. He won them all. He pitched one no-hit game, one one-hit game and one three-hit game. He averaged 16 men per game by the strike-out route.

Then the other teams rose in revolt. If Davenport continued to pitch for Ogden they'd bust up the circuit, they said. He was too good and was released.

Davenport calls it tough luck, but says he will report to the Casper (Wyo.) team of the Midwest league.

Back in 1914 and 1915 Davenport was a Federal league star. In the latter year he almost won a pennant for St. Louis single-handed. He pitched in 40 games, winning 22. Then he was with the Browns, but couldn't behave, was suspended half a dozen times, and finally given up because he was "too bad."

The last big league manager to try him was Clark Griffith. But he couldn't be good there, and finally Griff let him go.

Now he is so good he has had to move on once more to other fields.

MINISTER DISCUSSES HIS WIFE'S TROUBLES

Rev. A. H. Sykes, former pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., says:

"After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes had been in delicate health for ten months, suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdown.

"I frequently sought medical advice but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it only a short time until her health will be fully restored."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

Important to all Women

Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidneys or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Advertisement.
