

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Austin Krape and daughter, Miss Edna Krape, of Sunbury, are attending Grange fair.

Centre Hall teachers are attending institute and the Grange Picnic, and are therefore having a busy time.

Prof. L. O. Packer left on Monday for Pittsburg where he began a term of teaching on Tuesday morning.

Reports that the Grange Fair committee had taken out insurance against rain on Wednesday and Thursday, are incorrect.

Miss Cora Boal, who has been in delicate health for a year or more, is critically ill at this writing at her home in Centre Hall.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burchfield, on Monday of this week. The father is a former Potter township boy and the family now lives at Montgomery.

Says the State College Times: Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, pastor of the Centre Hall Presbyterian church, delivered a very good sermon Sunday evening in the local Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Zerby, of West Brownsville, are in Centre Hall for the week. Mr. Zerby continues as a railroad engineer. His son, Charles, is a State Forester and is located at Clarion.

A peck of Wealthy apples, a variety inferior to none for flavor and appearance, found their way to the senior editor's table, Monday morning. Every apple in the lot is a prize winner. And here are our thanks.

O. M. Lonberger, of Pleasant Gap, was a caller at this office on Tuesday. He is out for the office of tax collector of Spring Township, and has the endorsement of both the Democratic and Republican parties.

The Reporter gratefully acknowledges an invitation to be present at the inauguration of John Martin Thomas, D. D., Litt. D., L. L. D., as president of the Pennsylvania State College, which will take place on Friday, October 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Keller and son Robert Keller, of Pittsburg, motored here on Sunday and greeted old acquaintances on Grange park. They were accompanied by Mr. Keller's son-in-law, J. S. Deary, and a grandson.

The Reporter, in order that its force might enjoy the Encampment and Fair with the rest of the people, came off the press early Wednesday morning, and we expect to have a good time for the remainder of the two big days.

Three autoloads of people, including Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Smith, of Centre Hall; a party from Howard, and one from Boalsburg, the last in charge of Daniel Meyers, motored to the Modocs' hunting camp last week and enjoyed several days in the mountains.

Ralph Tressler, son of J. Wesley Tressler, of near Centre Hall, took sick while sitting on a mower, cutting second crop of clover for J. Cloyd Brooks, on Wednesday afternoon of last week and was taken to the Bellefonte hospital at nine o'clock that night. An hour and a half later an operation was performed for appendicitis, and he is now getting along first rate.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Breen and daughters, Misses Mabel and Grace, of Horsehead, New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fye, the former and the latter being brother and sister. Mr. Brown is a brick setter, and he is pleased to state that the brick works are running in good order while many other industries in that section of the Empire state are closed tight.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Person, of Trenton, N. J., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meehan, of College Point, Long Island, motored to Centre Hall Monday for a few days visit with Mrs. Person's mother, Mrs. M. E. Strohm. Mr. and Mrs. Person have been motoring through New England with Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson, of Hartford. Mrs. Meehan will be remembered as Laura Strohm, formerly of Centre Hall. Mr. Meehan is actively connected with the Westchester-Biltmore Country Club at Rye, N. Y., being developed at a cost of $7,000,000, by John McE. Bowman, of the Pershing Square Hotels, in New York City, and by other prominent men.

Misses Margaret Barr and Jean Patterson, Mrs. Margaret Pride and Messrs. Fred Ishler and Spencer Pride, of Iselin, visited at the P. S. Ishler home from Sunday until Monday.

GREAT RED LETTER HUNT

$60 In Cash Prizes

Altoona Booster Style Show

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13

Promptly at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, Sept. 13, the merchants listed below will unveil their windows. Look for the RED LETTER in his window and write the letter opposite his name in the square below. Example: If the letter H appears in the box office of the Strand Theatre, put an H opposite Strand Theatre on this card. When you have discovered all the letters you will have a complete sentence. Write your name and address on the dotted lines and hurry to the booth where you will get this card. The first person who brings in a card correctly filled out will receive $15 in cash; the second to report will receive $10; the third, $5, and the next 30 persons having their card correctly filled out will receive $1.00 each. Everybody may take part in this contest. Watch the windows at 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Sept. 13. Clip this advertisement and use it in case you don't get a card.

A SAVING TO OUR PATRONS OF . . . $2,500

Our selling schedule for June, July, August and September is 50 Pianos. We will allow to each purchaser of a Piano or Player Piano a reduction of $50.00 off our regular prices now in force. We are strictly a one price house and this reduction is made at this time to reduce our present stock.

The sale of 50 Pianos in the above time will secure for us sufficient saving to allow to each purchaser a reduction of $50. This is a straight forward business proposition in a straight forward way by a house that has been established since 1896.

If you are in the market for a Piano or Player Piano at this time or not, it will interest you to investigate our prices and terms. This sale offers to everyone the same opportunity to buy one of the world's best makes of Pianos at a big reduction. Will you take advantage of this special sale?

We will change your 65 note Player to an 88 note Player at a moderate price.

This will be your last chance to get your share of the $2,500 distributed to our patrons, as this offer expires on Oct. 1st.

If interested cut out this coupon and mail to us and we will mail you full particulars and catalogue.

Drawing an Audience.

Professor Letterkink—I'm delighted to see so large a gathering in the house. I never spoke to an audience of more than 40 before. Your townsmen are interested in science?

The Local Editor—Not much. But my compositor in setting up the ad of your lecture on the "Cosmic Forces," left the "s" out of "Cosmic."

Her Suspicion.

Mr. Gotham—I see a Brooklyn woman has applied to the courts for help from being loved to death by her husband, who, she says, kisses her 300 times a day.

Mrs. Gotham—Can't understand how a man can do so many wrong things that he has to apologize as much as that.

FARM FOR SALE.—Situate near Millmont, Union county, containing 115 acres—about 90 acres under cultivation; 12 acres in fine white oak timber. Farm house and tenant house, bank barn, all in good condition. Easy terms. For further information address JESSE KALLER, Millmont, Pa. R. 2.
