WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE

tion, but is actually prohibited from trading in foreign goods. It is my judgment that this particular feature of the Fordney tariff bill will be so destructive to the revival of American business that a forceful protest should be sent to Washington.

"On the other hand, if poor judgment is used in framing the laws on these three great questions (tariff, taxation and transportation), we will no doubt stumble on through a period of uncertainty, business stagnation and unrest."

Must Have League Before Disarmament, Says Senator McCumber (Rep)

While the League of Nations may or may not figure in the debate of the separate peace treaty with Germany, Senator McCumber (Rep., S. D.), ranking Republican member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, has revived that subject in an exclusive statement to the International News Service, in relation to the coming conference on disarmament, the substance of which is that before we can have reduction of armaments there must be a league or association of nations bound by a written contract to prevent wars of aggression and to compel arbitration of international disputes.

"Just to the extent that President Harding is able to consummate such an agreement between the powerful nations," said Senator McCumber, just to that extent will be able to decrease the burden of armaments."

An agreement for a reduction of armaments would be futile, according to the South Dakota Senator, without such a league of powerful nations both to prevent war and compel arbitration—that is to use force whenever necessary, or more specifically speaking, a League to Enforce Peace.

Whether or not the Harding administration would consent to such a league cannot be foretold. Its face is set against any sort of internationalism, and this is internationalism in the —nt degree.

If this matter is taken up as a condition precedent to disarmament and the Far Eastern diplomatic problems injected into the subject are also to be solved prior to a disarmament agreement, the forthcoming disarmament conference will be far from the simple matter contemplated under the Borah resolution. Yet Senator McCumber's position finds many supporters who ask, "What is the use of disarmament agreement if there is no way to enforce it?"

Organized for Athletic and Literary Contests.

The athletic association of the Centre Hall High school has organized for the ensuing year with the following officers: president, Ellen Burkholder; vice president, James Royer; treasurer, Philip Musser; secretary, Mabelle Sharer. Captain of soccer ball team, Edward Poust.

Captain of volley ball team, Helen Tressler.

The High school contemplates contests in athletics as well as literary contests with the neighboring schools.

THE DEATH RECORD.

ZIEGLER.—H. Cyrus Ziegler died last Thursday, while alone at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. R. Wolfe, at Wolfs Store. Mr. Wolfe was attending Teachers' Institute, and the daughter attended Grange Encampment. Mr. Ziegler apparently was in his usual health in the morning, and was to Rebersburg transacting business. He walked back to Wolfs Store where his home was, some time in the afternoon, and went to an upper room and laid on a bed and was found there cold in death by his daughter, in the evening, after her return home.

Mr. Ziegler was born in Gregg township, March 13, 1845, and was aged seventy-six years, five months and twenty-five days. His wife preceded him twelve years ago. One sister survives, Mrs. Catharine Kling, of Clintondale; also the following children: Wm. H. and James E., of Rebersburg; I. Allen, an invalid in Masonic Home at Elizabethtown; Mrs. W. K. Haines, of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Wm. C. Wolfe, of Loganton, and Mrs. Ed. R. Wolfe, of Wolfs Store. Also eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mr. Ziegler was a highly esteemed citizen and held important offices in his time and was before his death a candidate for re-election as registration assessor. He was a faithful and consistent member of the United Ev. Church. Burial was made in Union cemetery of Rebersburg, service being conducted by Rev. Shank, his pastor, and Rev. Hewett, a former pastor.

DUNKLE.—Harold Dunkle, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Kay Dunkle, died at the home of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Nearhood, at State College, early Tuesday morning. The child was aged about six months. The mother was formerly Miss Verna Nearhood, of Centre Hall.

School Opened Monday.

The borough schools opened Monday for an eight months term. One hundred and seventy-two pupils enrolled the first day, divided among the various schools as follows:

Primary, Miss Helen Bartholomew, teacher—38.

Intermediate, T. L. Moore, teacher—43.

Grammar, Miss Sara Neff, teacher—42.

High school, Prof. N. L. Bartges, principal, and Miss Isabel Rowe, assistant principal—49.

About thirty per cent of the enrollment is made up of Potter township pupils, the High school showing the largest number of any of the schools.

With a good corps of teachers, and plenty of new text books purchased for this year, every parent should see to it that his boy or girl makes the most of the opportunities of a free education. The teachers will do their part, but remember, the co-operation of parents is essential. It is a mistaken idea that a school teacher should be responsible for both the educational development and the moral growth of a child. The teacher can do just so much, but a great deal more with the support of parents.

Will Sell Carload of Susquehanna County Cows.

J. H. Shrack will sell a carload of Susquehanna county cows on Monday, September 19th, at 1:00 o'clock, on the D. A. Grove farm, one mile east of Lemont. These cows have been personally selected by Mr. Shrack and parties desiring first-class stock will find it in this shipment. Cows will arrive about Saturday and may be inspected before the sale by anyone desiring to do so.

Births at Pleasant Gap.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Knoffsinger, at Pleasant Gap, on Monday morning.

On Saturday previous a boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Baumgardner, at Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Baumgardner is a daughter of Mrs. Knoffsinger.

BOALSBURG

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Tinsley and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Weamer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wagner and daughter, and Nevin Wagner, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the George Fortney home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fry, of Philadelphia, returned to their home on Tuesday after spending several days with the latter's parents, here.

Mrs. J. P. Wagner and niece, of Altoona, spent Monday at the D. W. Meyer home.

Mrs. Paul Stairs and Miss Molly Trout, of Greensburg, visited at the Mrs. Emma Stuart home from Monday until Wednesday.

Miss Myrtle Houtz, of Harrisburg, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Houtz.

The Organized Class, No. 9, of the Lutheran Sunday School will hold a chicken-corn soup supper, Thursday evening, Sept. 22, in the Malta hall.

From New York state we have a homely slogan which sounds like this: "Wilson kept us out of war," but "Harding kept us out of work."

It will require many long messages, many schemes from the financial wizard Mr. Hays, many handshakes and many games of golf to counteract the psychological effect of the above short sentence.

Some Good Baseball Games.

Two Other Games.

On Thursday morning, Potters Mills and Linden Hall played a game which ended by a score of 9 to 0 in favor of Linden Hall. The pitching of Wayne Keller for Linden Hall was responsible for the victory.

On Thursday afternoon Hecla Park and Millheim played the most exciting game of the series, ending in a victory for Hecla by a 12 to 7 score. Hecla appeared beaten up to the seventh inning, when they came up from the rear and batted out a victory, scoring 9 runs in this frame.

Torrington CLEANER

ELECTRIC VACUUM
BIG BRUSH POWERFUL SUCTION

Gives you the time that other women have

A Torrington Cleaner will do your cleaning in a few minutes in the morning, leaving your afternoons free.

Or, if you have a maid, a Torrington means a more contented servant, and more thorough, careful cleaning. To maid or housewife, Torrington electric cleaning brings easier, quicker, better cleaning and more "time off."

Big Brush—Powerful Suction

The carpet-sweeper brush in the nozzle of the Torrington, working with the powerful suction generated by the sturdy Torrington motor, will mean more leisure time for you.

To appreciate fully how much a Torrington can help, you must try one in your own home.

There is a Torrington Dealer near you. If you do not know him, write at once to THE TORRINGTON COMPANY, National Sweeper Div. Torrington, Conn.

MILLHEIM.
From The Journal]
Mrs. Louisa Weaver, of Philadelphia, is visiting relatives and friends in Millheim.

Miss Mary Kessler returned to Cleveland, O., Wednesday to resume her college studies.

David Kessler, after spending his summer vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kessler, returned to Uniontown Saturday to be in readiness to open school in that city on Monday.

A baby boy several months of age, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kishel, of Madisonburg, died Friday morning. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the parents' home and were conducted by Rev. H. P. Maneval. Burial was made at Madisonburg.

Saturday night while all the family were sleeping some one entered the B. W. Rossman home on Penn street, and went to Russell's room and stole his pocketbook, which contained a sum of money and the young man's automobile license. Russell says that if the thief needs the money worse than he does he should at least return the auto license. Thieving seems to be getting common in Millheim, as only a few days before a sum of money was stolen at McMullin Bros'. mill.

Are You Still Sick?

—in spite of everything you tried?

It is because you had the effects treated, not the cause. As long as the cause of your trouble is present, the effects, even if temporarily suppressed, will re-appear again.

Chiropractic spinal adjustments should remove the cause of your disease, which is nervous pressure in the backbone. There is no reason why you should not get well permanently.

Come to my office and I will gladly explain Chiropractic, and prove to you that the cause of your trouble can not only be found, but also in many cases corrected.
