

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Next Tuesday is election day. Mrs. H. W. Kreamer has been confined to bed owing to sickness for several days this week.

Miss Helen Brandt, of Altoona, spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Ruble, in this place.

Mrs. C. W. Geary, of Altoona, was among the many who paid their respects to the Reporter office during the week.

Miss Margaret Tolen, a nurse of Mercy Hospital, Altoona, spent several days last week with Miss Kathryn Ruble, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Catharine Martz, of Altoona was a guest of her son, William S. Martz, at Tusseyville, during last week, and, of course, attended the G. E. and F.

Miss Anna Stover, who is a nurse in the U. S. hospital at San Antonio, Texas, is enjoying a five weeks' vacation among relatives in Centre Hall and Altoona.

Mrs. H. H. Longwell was unfortunate in losing a wrist watch on Thursday on Grange Park. She offers a reward to the one finding it and returning same to her.

Mrs. Sarah Reeder, of Spring Mills, takes special delight in paying all bills promptly, and applies the same principle when the Reporter subscription comes due.

Mrs. Bruce Auman and two children, and the former's sister, Miss Elsie Slick, of Struthers, Ohio, have been spending the past week with the ladies' mother, Mrs. William Slick.

Paul Limbert, a student in Franklin and Marshall seminary, at Lancaster, will preach in the local Reformed church next Sunday evening. He will conduct Harvest Home services at that time.

Miss Ruth Shreckengast, of near Centre Hall, left last week for Greensburg, where she is teaching school. She has requested that the Reporter be sent her so that she may have the local news.

Mrs. James P. Herring, of Altoona visited her sister, Mrs. Laura Lee, in Centre Hall, over Sunday. She accompanied Mrs. Frank E. Arney to Centre Hall, Mrs. Arney having spent several weeks in Altoona.

Mrs. N. C. Royer, of Altoona, enjoyed several days last week mingling among old friends and acquaintances at Grange Park. On Friday Mrs. Royer, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Frock, of Lewisburg, were Reporter visitors.

Miss Mary Hess, who taught the grammar school in Centre Hall last year is teaching near Greensburg this year. Miss Ruth Shreckengast, of Centre Hall, is teaching in the same district, so the young ladies will not want for congenial company.

The G. E. and F. sported a great number of little children—everyone a lovely little being—who, more than all others, enjoyed the gathering and everything in sight. It was a pleasure to those who can see only good in youngsters, to watch the tots in their highest glee.

Luther Musser, of Spring Mills, is conducting a singing school at Beaver Dam, and later on expects to devote more time than ever to this particular work for which he is well fitted. Localities having in mind the developing of music in their communities should consult with him.

The weather condition during the great G. E. and F. just passed was the finest experienced since the gathering has been extended over one day. It was ideal camping during the entire week, the slight showers during Monday and Tuesday added rather than interfered with the pleasures of the campers.

Many of the younger readers of the Reporter recall Charles Weiser, who is located in the Pittsburgh district, and will be glad to learn that he is getting along splendidly. While his wife visited at her home in Union county, Mr. Weiser took a run up to Centre Hall where he was most kindly greeted by old cronies.

Mrs. Joana E. Miller and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, of Mt. Dora, Florida, are guests of Mrs. Miller's half-brother, P. H. Luse, and family, near Centre Hall. The Millers have been north since the 3rd of June and expect to return to their southern home about October 1st. They are traveling by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Lingle, of Sunbury, made their annual trip to Centre Hall during the Grange Encampment and Fair. Mr. Lingle is employed by W. T. Engle, an extensive milk distributor, and Mrs. Lingle is one of his distributing men. All their milk is pasteurized, and over two thousand quarts are handled daily, selling at twelve cents.

Mrs. Charles Lucas, of Manhattan, Illinois, and her mother, Mrs. Virginia Sweetwood, have been spending several weeks among relatives in Centre Hall and community. This was Mrs. Lucas' first visit to her old home since leaving for Illinois, about eleven years ago, and she was pleased to meet many old acquaintances at the Grange Fair.

Ex-Judge W. D. Meals and wife, of Cleveland, Ohio, were guests for a few days last week of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Picken, in Centre Hall, Judge Meals being a son of Mrs. Picken by former marriage. The Judge was on his way to Washington, D. C., to accept a position under the federal government in which he will make an investigation in the Shipping Board claim.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Even if you can tell a woman's age it is best not to.

Mrs. Mollie Gregg, of State College, visited friends in town this week.

W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. E. Tate, Saturday, 7:30 p. m.

The condition of Mrs. Sarah J. Kerlin has been quite miserable the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Moyer, of Daragh, were arrivals in Centre Hall this week, and will remain for a month or more. They are at the home of the former's brother, Archie Moyer.

Miss Gertrude Ruble succeeds Miss Ethel Rowe as clerk in the Penns Valley Bank. She is a graduate of the Centre Hall High School, and is well fitted for the financial institution.

Mrs. C. W. Slack was removed to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday, and on the following day underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor. Her condition is reported as quite favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Montelius, daughters Misses Margaret and Mary, of Piper City, Ill., who have been spending some time at their summer home at Millinburg, visited at the home of Mrs. Isaac Smith on Tuesday.

J. H. Detwiler has set up a register booth on the top of Nittany mountain, and more than 700 names have already been entered in the book placed there. Motor parties seldom fail to stop on the top of the mountain and take in the beautiful sights of Penns Valley.

Sumner Packer, son of Prof. and Mrs. L. O. Packer, of Centre Hall, will enter Hiram College, Ohio, where he contemplates taking a four year course. Miss Helen, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Packer, will attend a private school in Pittsburgh, East End.

Knisely-Decker.

A quiet wedding took place on Sept. 6, at the Reformed parsonage, Boalsburg, when W. B. Knisely, of Youngstown, Ohio, and Miss Helen Decker, of Philadelphia, daughter of the late James Decker, of Pine Grove Mills, were united in marriage by Rev. S. C. Stover. Mr. Knisely is an electrician, employed at Youngstown, at which place the young couple will be at home to their many friends.

SPRING MILLS.

The Laurelton baseball team came to Spring Mills last Saturday with their much thought-of pitcher, Guy Harter, with the intention of having an easy victory, but the S. M. boys went after Harter for a total of twenty hits for 12 runs, the final score being 12 to 7 in favor of Spring Mills. Gramley pitched good ball and had good support at times. They say Big Bill can't run, but he fooled them in the 9th inning. With one out and men on second and third bases, Sampell knocked a fly to Bill and they all ran, thinking Bill would drop it, but Bill caught it and ran for second, beating the runner, for a double play alone.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F.
