LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Annabell Smith is visiting friends at Bloomsburg.

It's fine to begin at the bottom if you don't stop there.

D. Wagner Geiss' bazaar will begin on Tuesday, Oct. 4, at Bellefonte. adv.

Much news matter was omitted this week owing to lack of help.

The Penns Valley bank building was painted on the exterior last week.

Master Paul Smith is carrying his right arm in a sling, the arm having been badly sprained in a fall on the way home from school.

Miss Ruth Barges is assisting at the Reporter type cases. Although but a beginner, Miss Ruth composes the types very creditably.

Miss Elsie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Moore, of near Centre Hall, has been suffering greatly with rheumatism for several weeks.

Miss Miriam Huyett returned to her studies at Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, last week, and J. Frederic Moore to Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport.

A number of local sports witnessed the opening game of the football season at Penn State, on Saturday, when State buried Lebanon Valley under a 53 to 0 score.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kuhn came to Centre Hall the latter part of last week and remained here over Sunday with Mr. Kuhn's half-brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Smith.

On Tuesday of next week, D. Wagner Geiss will begin his bazaar season in Bellefonte, on the same lines as proved so successful last year. Farmers wishing to buy, sell or trade anything will find this a good place.

SPRING MILLS.

Quite a number of houses on the hill are being wired for electric light. Among them are those of Colonel and Thomas Decker, Andrew Shook, Calvin King, C. P. Long, Andrew Rote, A. C. Dunlap, Samuel Condo, Chas. Royer, and others.

Mrs. Chariss Zerby was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday for an operation.

Miss Laura Stegal is visiting her parents in this place.

Dr. Philip Shook, who is ill at the home of his father-in-law, John Rachau, is not improving very fast.

Quite a number of members of the local Encampment were to State College on Tuesday evening.

THE DEATH RECORD.

WALKER.—On last Thursday, Isaac G. Walker answered the summons of the Great Eternal at his home near Penn Hall. Up to his fatal illness he was the possessor of strong physical assets. On Monday of last week he assisted a neighbor thresh, and while engaged was seized with a cold which developed into pneumonia. A kindly Providence permitted the limits of man's earthly journey to be passed. The goal of seventy years reached, the shades of evening began to gather. Long shadows fall over the parting years. There were tokens of the approaching sun-set hour. The breezes grew chilly, the grey clouds turned into darkness. Death's night of sleep fell upon Brother Walker. But the night is short and the sleep sweet, and then the dawning of that long summer day of Life that knows of no sunset hours.

Isaac G. Walker was born March 23, 1850, at Sausburg. In 1879 he married Miss Kathryn Smith, of Laurelton. To this union were born, Milton G., of Warriors Mark; Willys S., of Tyrone; C. Roy, of Freeport, Ill.; S. G., of Spring Mills; Foster D., of Plano, Ill.; Irvin R., of Pine Grove Mills, and Clarence, deceased. Three brothers survive: A. S. Walker, of Pine Grove Mills; L. W., of Williamsport; and W. Miles, of Bellefonte. One sister, Doctor Clara C. Walker, of Baltimore, Md., also survives. In 1917 he wed Mrs. Sara Gentzel, who mourns his loss.

Mr. Walker was affiliated with the Christian church from young manhood, when he joined the Presbyterian church, later transferring to the Lutheran congregation.

The funeral was held from the residence on Monday, Rev. C. F. Catherman officiating. Burial in Salem cemetery.

CLOSE.—Mrs. Anna Close passed away at the home of Robert Floray, at Spruceown, on Sunday morning, aged about seventy years. Death was due to apoplexy. Burial was made Tuesday afternoon at Egg Hill, Rev. Bingman officiating. Her maiden name was Smetzler, and there survive these brothers and sisters: James Smetzler, Centre Hall; R. J., Potters Mills; David G., Clyde, Ohio; William and Clell, in Minnesota; Mrs. Caroline Peck, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Kathryn Armstrong, Avis; Mrs. Ed. Confer, Spring Mills, and Mrs. Alfred Lee, Boalsburg.

New Tenants on the Farm.

A number of young couples will begin farming next spring, believing farming conditions will improve and become as profitable as other lines of work. Locally the beginners on the farms, although not unacquainted with farm work, are mentioned as follows:

Ralph Tressler will succeed James C. Goodhart, near Center Hill, both landlord and tenant having an equal financial interest in the farming operations. George Fetterolf, who for several years was employed by Edward Durst on his Earlstown farm, will stock the C. A. Krape farm, east of Center Hall. Ray Sharer will come up from Georges Valley to succeed Fetterolf.

Others who will change locations are Gardner Long, who will leave Farmers Mills to occupy the Rossman farm at Center Hill, which he purchased. Milton Barger, tenant on the Harter farm, at Stone Mill, will take up the John H. Burkholder farm at Center Hill. George Sharer, who two years ago quit farming the Barges farm when it was sold to the Barges brothers, will take up his favorite line of work and move to the Keller farm, east of Center Hall. This farm will be vacated by Edward Homan, when he moves to his father's farm adjoining the Keller place.

The above changes are partially brought about by the retiring from the farm by W. H. Homan, James C. Goodhart, both of whom will move into their properties in Center Hall, and John H. Burkholder, whose future move is not known to the writer. W. H. Haney, on the Krape farm, goes to near Millheim to continue farming.

Wieland-Hoy.

The marriage of Daniel A. Wieland and Miss Florence Hoy, of State College, took place on Saturday, Sept. 17th, at Lebanon. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wieland, of Palmyra, and is a junior at Penn State. The bride is an operator in the Bell telephone exchange at State College.

BOALSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrison, of State College, spent Sunday at the John Ishler home.

Miss Isabell Stevenson, of Wilkesbarre, is visiting her cousin, G. L. Feibiger.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lenhart, of Millroy, were over-Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Jennie Fortney.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. L. W. Ruble, of Cleveland, O., were guests of Mrs. E. A. Fisher from Friday until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ludwig and two sons, of Johnstown, visited at the H. O. Barr home Saturday and Sunday.

D. W. Meyer, Ralph Rishel, Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller, and Mrs. Wm. Stover and granddaughter were Sunday visitors in Altoona. Samuel Glenn spent Saturday at the O. L. Mothersbaugh home.

FOR SALE.—Large sweet pumpkins, 25c up. Mrs. W. Howard Durst, Centre Hall, Pa.

TWO MEN RUN DOWN BY CAR AT NIGHT.

Alleged Bootleggers, Operating Auto Without Lights, Crash Into Men Near Bellefonte.

John Speece and Wesley Hockenberry, both of Bellefonte, are in the Bellefonte hospital in a very serious condition as the result of being run down by an automobile on the road west of that place, Friday night of last week. Both men were unconscious when found.

It is reported that the injured men were struck by a car operated by a band of bootleggers out after some liquor which it is said, had been hidden near the Brant house near town. The men in the automobile, it is said, had learned that some other men had gone out after the liquor and they started in the car to reach the scene first. They were operating the automobile without lights and shortly after leaving town ran into the men who were on foot. A third man, George Reed, who was with Speece and Hockenberry, was also struck but not badly hurt.

Fined for Firing Pistol.

William Austin, colored, who lives in Phillipsburg and conducts a barber shop, appeared before a special session of Centre county court, with Judge Henry C. Quigley presiding, Friday, and plead guilty to the charge of firing a pistol with intent to kill. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs and be confined six months in jail.

Sentence was suspended for a year in connection with a like charge against Sylvester Jones, colored, also of Phillipsburg, and who was arrested at the same time Austin was arrested.

Harry, or "Smoke" Whitton, of North Phillipsburg, arrested on the charge of being intoxicated while driving a car, also plead guilty and was fined $100 and costs of prosecution and placed on parole for a period of one year.

1600 Bushel Potato Crop.

A potato crop of sixteen hundred bushels is a crop of some size where potatoes are not the principal crop. It is Robert P. Strouse, north of Penn Hall, who is the grower of the potatoes that are being talked of in his community.

Noted Lecturer Coming.

J. Arthur Schlecter, a popular orator and noted lecturer, of Coatesville, will deliver an address in the U. Ev. church, Centre Hall, on Tuesday evening, October 11. Subject, "Out of the Depths." Everyone is invited to come hear him.

LINDEN HALL.
