

Weak and Miserable?

Does the least exertion tire you out? Feel "blue" and worried and have daily backache, lameness, headaches, dizziness, and kidney irregularities? Sick kidneys are often to blame for this unhappy state. You must act quickly to prevent more serious trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy recommended everywhere by grateful users. Ask your neighbor!

A Virginia Case
Mrs. Ella Craft, 122 Roxbury St., Clifton Forge, Va., says: "My back ached and was weak and stiff and I had nervous headaches and dizzy spells. Black spots floated before my eyes constantly and I was annoyed by the irregular action of my kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and two boxes of this medicine cured me."

Little Sister's Interest.
Little Jeanie gazed long and thoughtfully at the young man who was calling on her grown-up sister Maude.
"May I climb up on your knee, Mr. Greene?" she inquired at last.
"Yes, of course, dear!" smiled the young man, who wanted to make a hit with the family. "Want to pull my hair—eh?"
"No; I want to see if I can find that word," replied the little girl.
"What word?" asked the visitor, in bewilderment.
"I heard Maude say this morning that if a man ever had the word 'Idiot' written all over his face, that man was you!"—Stray Stories.
Our Business.
It is therefore our business carefully to cultivate in our minds, to rear to the most perfect vigor and maturity, every sort of generous and honest feeling that belongs to our nature.—Edmund Burke.
When looking for lodgings a man must either inquire within or go without.

Do you discriminate at the dining table—or are you thoughtless?
In thousands of homes, a "line" is drawn at the breakfast table. Tea or coffee is served for "grown-ups" and Postum for children. But some parents do not discriminate. Caffeine and tannin, the injurious contents of coffee and tea, seriously retard the development of the delicate nerve tissues in children.
Consequently, instead of rich, satisfying Postum, children are over-stimulated by the drugs in tea and coffee; and so may grow up irritable and nervous. Any doctor can tell you that this is a great evil and should be corrected.
Although some parents feel a certain justification for the personal indulgence in coffee, yet the harm to them may be equally serious. It may take a little while longer for the drugs in coffee and tea to affect

625,000 BOTTLES SOLD IN NEW YORK

Biggest Thing of Kind Ever Seen in That State, Declares Big Wholesaler.

The fact that 625,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold in the state of New York since its introduction there less than one year ago, is a big business item that will attract unusual attention throughout the entire East, for nothing like it has ever happened before. It breaks all records.
Mr. George B. Evans, manager of the Gibson-Snow Company, the well-known wholesale druggists, with branches in Albany, Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse, recently announced that the preparation was now selling in their trade territories alone at the phenomenal rate of approximately 500,000 bottles a year.
"If the present rate continues," said Mr. Evans, "this state alone will probably require considerably over 750,000 bottles a year. This is a tremendous figure, but I am really conservative in making this statement."
Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.

Grandmother always cooked the best meals, and when Charles was there for supper she had some of the best biscuits and jam—at least, so Charles thought. He had been eating for a while when his mother looked at him and saw that besides getting jam all over his face and hands he had a spot on his otherwise clean suit.
"Charles just look at your suit," she exclaimed.
Charles looked and then remarked, "Well, but most of its clean."

The SANDMAN STORY

THE FIREFLIES

ONE night when the fairies came scampering out to play at the last sound of the last stroke of midnight they found their queen talking with a moonbeam fairy.
Instead of joining in the revels as was her custom, she kept on with her that with the little silvery fairy who seemed to have much to tell her.
All the heltering, skittering little wands were tumbling over one another in a game of tag with the Dust Fairies, and the Water Fairies were flying altho and thither playing at hide and seek.
But after a while they began to wonder what the Moonbeam Fairy was doing.

telling the Queen, and when she beckoned to them, she did just then, they ran to her side eager to listen to what the little visitor was saying.
"It was last night that I decided to tell you about them," the Moonbeam Fairy was saying, "for I did not know before how lonely they are."
"How would you like some new playmates?" asked the Queen when the fairies gathered around her. "Moonbeam Fairy has been telling me about the Star Fairies who watch us all down here and want to visit us at night and join in our revels."
"They are very bright little creatures," said the Moonbeam Fairy, "but they are very lonely for you. See, even the Moonbeam Fairies run down on the earth at night and they have no one up there to visit.

"So I stopped on my way home last night to chat with them awhile and it was then they asked me if I thought the Queen would take them into her big family and let them run down the Moonbeam path with us each night to the earth."
"What do you say, my children?" asked the Queen. "Shall we welcome the Star Fairies into our family?"
"Oh, yes, dear Queen, let them come," said all the little Fairies, clapping their hands and dancing about their Queen; "and why not send for them tonight while the Moonbeam path is bright and then they will not trip coming along?"
"Very well," said the Queen, "tell the Star Fairies that I will welcome them for the summer months. That is when we have our gayest revels."
So the little Moonbeam Fairy hastened away to tell the lonely little Star Fairies the good news, and down they came flickering and twinkling with joy over their good fortune.
All this happened a very long, long time ago, and if you have any doubt about this story being a really true one, you can watch the stars smiling up in the sky as the Star Fairies fly hither and thither during the summer for though we mortals call them fireflies, the Earth Fairies call them their friends from far-away Land, the Star Fairies.

CHILDREN'S MANNERS
Whatever you do, do wisely and think of the consequences.—Lester Romanouin.
THE minute a child begins to eat with the assistance of its own small hands, the first lesson in table manners must begin. There is little excuse for the disgusting table manners of some children. They are due, really, to the fact that the mother or other caretaker finds it less trouble to let the child search aimlessly for its small mouth than to insist that it locate it daintily, surely and without excitement.
A very small child can be taught to eat nicely. Teach it that spotted bibs are beneath contempt. Patiently show it how to hold its spoon and cup, and help it to eat slowly. The lesson is a hard one for the teacher as well as for the child. But perseverance is the only way. And once the child has learned to eat daintily, the slovenly ways of untrained children when they are eating will be as distasteful to it as you would find them in a grown person.
Remember that children ape the manners of their elders. For this reason the greatest care should be used in the choosing of nursemaids, governesses or any one else who comes in constant contact with the child. Many well known men have talked, when excited, to their dying day in the brogue or burr of their childhood nurses.
And who can doubt that much of the gentleness of character and strength of spirit of Robert Louis Stevenson were inspired in him by the dear old nurse to whom he dedicated his "Child's Garden of Verse?"
The imitative method is the easiest whereby a child may acquire its manners. The small boy who adores his gallant father seldom forgets to take off his hat and stand in the presence of women. The small girl who looks up to her mother with affection is the pattern of loving courtesy to her father. Children often affect the graces of their elders in a most laughable way. But don't laugh at them. They will outgrow this priggishness. It is only a case of their imitative acquisition of manners.

It is the vogue of the day for small girls, up to the age of ten or twelve, to curtsy when they meet their elders. After that they, like small boys, stand and shake hands. It is also proper for children to be quiet and unobtrusive when they are in the company of grown-ups.
Some of the set rules of children's manners, like these, they cannot learn by imitation. But if they are courteous, thoughtful and happy they will take an interest in acquiring these little superficial manners that will make their acquisition easy.

HOW DO YOU SAY IT?

Common Errors in English and How to Avoid Them
"DIFFERENT FROM, THAN, TO."

IT IS quite common to hear or read sentences containing the word "different" followed by from, and never by than or to. One hears, "Yours is a very different case than his," whereas the proper form is "Yours is a very different case from his."
One hears also, "I have heard your story, and John's is different to it," or "differs from it." The Standard dictionary says that the use of different to is an undesirable English colloquialism.
The word "different" denotes distinction or contrast (indicated by the use of from), while comparison is shown by than; thus, "My hat is different from yours, but your hat is better than mine."

Viola Dana

Perhaps out of consideration of the feelings of her parents, Viola Dana, the dainty star, waited until she was quite grown up before going on the stage. Her first public appearance—she made her debut as a dancer—did not come, therefore, until Miss Dana was fully five years old. She was born in Brooklyn; has two sisters, both on the screen—Shirley Mason and Edna Flugrath.

WOMEN WHO CANNOT WORK

Read Mrs. Corley's Letter and Benefit by Her Experience

Edmund, S.C.—"I was run down with nervousness and female trouble and suffered every month. I was not able to do any work and tried a lot of medicine, but got no relief. I saw your medicine advertised in a little book that was thrown in my door, and I had not taken two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I could see it was helping me. I am keeping house now and am able to do all of my work. I cannot say enough for your medicine. It has done more for me than any doctor. I have not paper enough to tell you how much it has done for me and for my friends. You may print this letter if you wish."—ELIZABETH C. CORLEY, care of A. P. Corley, Edmund, S.C.
Ability to stand the strain of work is the privilege of the strong and healthy, but how our hearts ache for the weak and sickly women struggling with their daily rounds of household duties, with backaches, headaches, nervousness and almost every movement brings a new pain. Why will not the mass of letters from women all over this country, which we have been publishing, convince such women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help them just as surely as it did Mrs. Corley?
