

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A new floor was laid in the dining room of the C. F. Emery home, last Thursday. Although we are in the second month, oysters have failed to put in any appearance locally.

Messrs. D. A. Boozer and L. L. Smith made a motor trip to Huntingdon, on Monday, and while there visited the Huntingdon Reformatory.

Get rid of that nervous, fretful feeling. Be ce up. Take Tanlac and you will everybody in the face with a smile. Sold at Centre Hall Pharmacy.

Messrs. Bright and Colyer will hold public sale on the Colyer farm, east of Old Fort, on March 8th, 1922. A full line of farm stock and implements will be sold.

Tax collector C. D. Bartholomew turned in $3387.73 in school taxes to the treasurer of the local school board, beginning of the week. This is nearly 95 per cent. of the face of the school tax duplicate, and speaks well of the taxpayers' ability to pay promptly.

A new low price for hogs was reached locally, last week, when A. Riegel, the stock buyer from Salona, was purchasing hogs at 7½ cents a pound. It has been some time since porkers have touched that figure, and the biggest squeal is coming from the raiser.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Colyer and family motored to Hyde, Clearfield county, on Saturday, where they visited cousins of Mr. Colyer—Mr. and Mrs. John Cronin. The Cronins accompanied the Colyer family to Centre Hall, beginning of the week, and are now guests at the Colyer home.

Aaron Thomas, on Tuesday morning, left for an extended trip through the west. He is accompanying two of his nieces, Miss Rebecca Snyder, of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Lizzie Kerstetter, of State College. The first stop will be at Buffalo, and then Niagara Falls, through Canada to South Dakota, then to the southwest, probably as far as Texas. No time is set for their return.

Philipsburg, Centre county's most progressive town, is looking forward to the appearance of an octette of musical celebrities who will appear in the Rowland theatre on Thursday, October 20. The song birds, all Victor artists, are: Billy Murray, Campbell, Burr, Van Eps and American Quartette. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the community playground of that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bailey, newlyweds from New York City, are enjoying their honeymoon in Centre Hall, at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Wm. W. Kerlin. The bride was formerly Miss Edna Melissa Wright, and the marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert H. Wright, Sr., in New York City, on last Saturday. They are a real loving young couple and we hope that all their days may be as full of sunshine as are the present ones.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. F. Floray, Saturday evening of this week, at 7:30.

Rev. J. M. Kirpatrick, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, is attending the sessions of Presytery in Petersburg.

James I. Fetterolf has purchased a large boiler which he will place in his garage for the purpose of heating both his garage and home. The outfit will provide steam heat.

Miss Helen R. Kessinger, of State College, was among the recent winners of the McAlister Scholarships in Penn State, amounting to $90 in cash, each. These are awarded to Penn State freshmen each year on competitive examinations held in the five Pennsylvania counties that have the largest per capita representation in the student body in the college.

Must Display License.

Every person going into the fields or woods with a gun unless upon his or her land must display a hunter's license, says a warning sent out by the State Game Commission in announcing that 440,000 of these tags have been sent to the treasurers of the various counties in the State. The tag must be worn in the middle of the back and the receipt available to show. It is expected that over 450,000 licenses will be issued this year as against 432,000 last year.

THE DEATH RECORD.

MILLER.—John W. Miller, a well known and highly respected citizen of Ferguson township, died at the Miller home at Shingletown on Tuesday evening of last week after a long illness of heart trouble, aged 76 years. He was a stone mason by trade but was a farmer some years. His wife was Alda Rishel, who died in 1915. He is survived by one son, Alexander, of Pittsburg, one daughter, Mrs. Raymond Rudy, of State College, and one brother, D. W. Miller, of Pine Grove Mills, and a sister, Mary, at home. Deceased was affiliated with the Lutheran church from his youth. He was a good citizen, a loving father and husband. Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church Wednesday morning, Rev. A. M. Lutton officiating. Burial was made in Boalsburg cemetery.

I ought to know I grow tobacco

You can't beat a Camel, because you can't beat the tobacco that goes into Camels.

That's why Camels are the choice of men who know and love fine tobacco. They know what makes Camels so smooth, so fragrant and mellow-mild.

They'll tell you that the expert Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos makes a cigarette smoke you can't equal—no matter what you pay.

But it doesn't take an expert to tell Camel quality. You'll spot it the very first puff. Try Camels yourself.
