

VOL. XCV.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1921.

ADOPTING WILSON'S IDEALS.

Bad in 1917-18, But Good Enough in Government Succeeded by Private En-1921 for Republicans to Follow Closely.

Below is an editorial from the Los Angeles Times, a Republican news- tic road building enterprise as Pennpaper that supported Harding last year on his "hit and miss" League of Nations attitude:

FOR FULL FELLOWSHIP. Supposing Japan and England should ask Uncle Sam why he doesn't come into the League of Nations and turn in his navy as a part of a world-service patrol. From their point of view America may still be a barrier to a smooth down. running universe. Uncle Sam doesn't want to associate with them in federal or state government as post the League and yet wants to fix the size of the world's fleets. There is a League with fifty nations in it and it is reasonable to expect that some of development of the toll road. these nations will not unreservedly accept America as the altruistic, unselfish and disinterested government we know it to be. If Uncle Sam would ance were laid largely on the should sit in and show that he was a regular fellow they would be less suspicious They want Uncle Sam as a partner, not as an executor.

If that was not the Democratic argument at the time, some of us were dreaming. Here is a quotation from Mr. Balfour's address a few days ago before the disarmament conference which our delegates, Messrs. Hughes, Root, A. ... atwood and Lodge (it comes natural to put Lodge last), received with "unfeigned" admiration:

This scheme, after all-what does i do? It makes idealism a practical proposition. It takes hold of the dream which reformers, poets, publicists, even potentates, as we heard the other day, have from time to time put before mankind as the great goal to which human endeavor should aspire.

Now, if what Mr. Balfour said was not what Woodrow Wilson was so roundly abused and ridiculed for last year, some of us again were dream. ing. Truly the ways of some American politicians are unfathomable: "for personal advantage," said Hudson Maxim, "he will stop at nothing under heaver or over hell." But what must the for eign delegates familiar with the facts, think about it all?

But to us Americans who reflect or the history of the case and the pitiful aspect of the situation, there comes a sense of mingled shame and delight. For we may convince ourselves that the conspirators are beginning to see the light, and that they are realizing with Emerson that "there is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is igno-With that realization they w terprises Then Committees, Then Townships Build Roads.

FEDERAL ROAD BUILDING.

To a state engaged in such a gigansylvania is, there is little incentive to obtain part of the 6,200 miles of roadway in which the federal government is preparing to invest.

But to some other states or the union that project will be a great boon and advantage.

Years ago roads were built by the highways. Then road building became a private enterprise with the introduction and Later counties became road builders and then followed a period when highway construction and mainten ers of townships. Thursday. With townships staggering under an impossible burden and transportation clamoring for improved highways state governments again became ac tive in highway programs and then came the greatest advancement 'in road improvement the country even saw. But there are still some common wealths where permanent roads are folks but rather that we are finding needed unable to carry the burden of building them, so the federal government is coming to their assistance with a proposal to share the expense of constructing the most important primary routes. Honest road building is a public work, the cost of which a taxpayer need never regret. It will ever return every dollar in vested and pay an excellent dividend while in operation of paying back the principal.

Bought Mountain Restaurant.

S. S. Horner, of Pleasant Gap, quite ecently purchased the restaurant of the new State road above Pleasant Gap from Robert Hendershot, who put up the building when work on the mountain road started, and who did a nice ousiness during the summer months-Mr. Horner intends to make a num per of improvements to. better serve tourists who will find the mountain res aurant located at an ideal spot for the partaking of refreshments.

Furst-Foster Wedding.

Stanley Foster Furst, son of Mrs. J Hoban Furst, of Lock Haven, and Hel-· of M

APPALLING CONDITIONS IN ARMENIA DE-SCRIBED BY W. NED KELLER, OF LINDEN HALL

In Letter to Mother from Far-off Country He Depicts Awful Scenes .-- Finds Group of 90 Men, Women and Children at Point of Death Through Starvation. Returning With Food He Finds Nearly All Dead.

The following interesting letter is work with.

from Ned Keller, who is directing re- Every day we bake in our bakery lef work in far-off Armenia, to his about 5,400 pounds of bread and that country has been very much up and Hall mother, Mrs. J. W. Keller, of Linden is not adequate for our present needs Hall, who has kindly consented to its and only this morning I laid out plans publication. Local people who have for building another bake shop. Our had any doubt as to the real need of demands this winter will be double, for these Armenian people, and whether aside from feeding our orphans we or not the call for help which has have a bread line of over 500 starv come time and again is truly genuine, ing children that we give a half funt will have all doubts removed by read- (1/2 lb.) of bread daily, and now we ing Mr. Keller's letter. Compare your are making plans to care for 5000 reflot with these people across the At- ugees over the winter. These are lantic, and then decide if there were people who were driven out of Kars by not a few more things for which you the Turks and they have carried their might have given thanks on last few possessions on their back and came here to Erivan. The Govern-

Last night Mrs. Sutton, Miss Beach

ould get under by that time.

appointment with the Government of-they brought in the dally ration for three-fourths of a fund of black bread

sials and when we were ready to go

At the foot of Mt, Ararat, Erivan, Armenia, October 7, 1921.

Dearest Mother: pose to have a distributing center I guess it has been several weeks where they can come each week and since I have found time to write, but get their week's supply of food, and by the neglect was not due to the fact next summer they can start working that I was forgetting about the home the land. At present everything thru the country is dried up and there are more problems facing us than we are no crops of any kind to keep them able to handle from day to day. It is over the winter. The streets are impossible to tell you of the apalling ined with thousands of people who conditions as they exist here and much have no homes and they live from the nust be kept to your imagination. scraps they find on the streets, and My last letter to you was written when they can't find anything they shortly after I came down here from naturally have to steal to live. Alexandropol and I could not tell you very much about the work here. Since that time I have worked just about en times harder than I ever worked before in my life. But with it all I am thoroughly happy to be here. You can not imagine the many details we have o handle every day and when we think we have things about cleaned up for the day we find just as many probems to solve the next day. When I came here about three weeks ago I ound that there was no American to supervise the Finance and Supplies and o leave this work with the natives was imply to expect a terrible mess. Our ersonnel at the time was composed of Mr. Brown as Distrist Commander; Mr. Lewis as Superintendent of the Schools; Miss Beach, head of the Industrial Department ; Mrs. Sutton, Manager of the Orphanage; and Mrs-bread, and he very gladly cut a piece Brown, Manager of Hospitals.; and the for us. Well, I never tasted anything Finance and Supplies was run under more uppalatable than that bread. It local people. When I took over these was sour and soggy, and yet that is departments I had to put in my whole what the Government gives all thei system myself for before this all the mployees for a ration. They get n counts were kept in Armenian and I salaries to mention of, possibly a few ould not tell head or tail as to how hundred thousand rubles, which amthe accounts stood. It was a tedious ounts to thirty or forty cents a month. job for I can asure you that we are Everyone is suffering now for lack doing work on a large scale at presof food and clothing and I can not ent. For instance, we have thirteen imagine what it will be like this winorphanages and hospitals scattered all ter. Every morning as we go to the over the city and it is my work to see office we are greeted by several hunthat they get all their supplies and to dred people who haven't a bite to eat do this it fequires a great many em- and it is terrible to think that we can bloyees. In my department alone I not help them all. Nearly every day hire over 700 Armenians and the mat- we find a number of bables but a few ter of transportation here is something months old lying on our door step that to make one worry over. For instance some poor mother has forsaken simp we have our warehouses in the same iy because she had no food. We are burt where we have the main offices as busy as we can be all week doing to and our only means of getting the sup- our regular routine of relief work and olies out to the orphanage is by ox on Saturday afternoons we always arts, and then a guard must go with load up the cars with food supplies and every delivery to keep the people from go out to visit the refugees' house stealing everything. There is no other Nothing in the way of human existence alternative for these people, for they are simply compelled to steal anycould be more appaling. I have in mind two houses that we visited about thing they can get their hands on three weeks ago and that time we when they are starving to death by found about ninety men, women and he thousands every day. children simply lying on the floor and All our food supplies from America at the point of death. Practically all some by train to Erivan and then we of them were as sick as they could must cart everything three miles from be from this dreaded malaria which is the station to our warehouses. At so prevalent here in this country, and present I have 27 freight cars at the they had no medical attention and no station ready to unload but I have no food. There they were waiting for place to put them. I have gone to the Government every day for the past Yesterday afternoon when Miss Beach week and told them that we would and I took some more supplies down not ship another thing in until they to them we found that all had died but gave us warehouses to store the sup- about thirty and they were so near lies, and in the meantime I must death that the food we gave them hrow a heavy armed guard around the would not help them. Perhaps you ars until I can get some warehouses. will say that we should have gone to Every load we bring from the sta- their aid sooner, but such is the appalltion must be guarded for the people ing condition here that it is impossible here will steal anything they get their to reach all those in need. Every day hands on. Such are only a few of my the Government is making appeals to present worries. us to take over more children but the Many of the orphanage buildings situation is simply too much for us are nothing but four walls and a roof few Americans to handle. Even the and it is my duty to get them into Government itself is getting large shape before they can be used. For quantities of supplies from us in exnstance, they haven't one bit of fur- change for the commodities we need. atture in them and when we get the such as cotton, wool, wood and salt refugees out of them they are dirty. They are simply up against it and it is ousy, and not fit for a pig to live in. hard to say what the conditions would The walls must be plastered and white- be if the Near East Relief would cease vashed and windows put in, and tables, to function here. I know if the peobenches and storerooms prepared: ple at home could but half realize kitchens, laundries and toilets built, what suffering is going on here they and that is no easy task here in this would give their last cent. country where there is no material to

LAND DIES AT PHILIRSBURG. TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS. FORMER CONGRESSMAN ROW-

Passes Away on Thanksgiving Day as Result of Heart Trouble.-Served Four Years in Congress from This District.

Hon, Charles Hedding Rowland, one of Philipsburg's most prominent citi- the Allison farm at Spring Mills and zens, pased away at his home in that will ocupy it in the spring. * place at noon Thanksgiving Day, death resulting from heart trouble.

Charles Hedding Rowland was born debilitated condition and make you feel at Hancock, Maryland., Dec. 20, 1860, just like your old self again-Centre making his age 61 years. He was the Hall Pharmacy. son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowland.

Mr. Rowland was known to the citi ens of Philipsburg to be a construct or in the enterprises of that community and served four years as a mem per of Congress for the 21st Distric of Pennsylvania. He served his home ommunity with great respect and nelped to pass bills before Congress hat have been of great benefit to that ommunity.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowand, moved to Huntingdon county in ment wants to get them out of the 1860 and made that part of the coun city so we are going to issue rations try their home until the year 1874, to 500 at a time and they are going to when they moved to Houtzdale, where move out to the village, and we pro the husband died in 1893. The wife reared three children, namely Anna, wife of H. J. McClure, of Pittsburg; Mary, wife of M. J. Herman, of Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Charles Hedding Rowland.

The deceased began his life as lerk and later became interested in he coal business.

Mr. Rowland and his wife moved to Philipsburg in 1904. He purchased in the majority of the utilities of this omonwealth, namely, light, trolley ind steam. During his career at Philipsburg he erected the Rowland the Mr. Lewis and I thought we would atre. The Pittsburg and Susquehanna take a walk thru the park, and what Railroad company was taken over by a pathetic sight we saw! Possibly 500 him which made great progress under people were sleeping on the ground and his management. He was, in fact nothing to protect them from the cold a general up-builder of that communi

We asked them what they would do ty and before his death completed sevwhen the snow came and they said eral of his plans to erect homes for they supposed they would die. Others citizens who were unable to secure were more optimistic and said they housing in that locality. He also rehoped they would find a roof that they moved the repair shops of the P. & S. Railroad company from Ramey and year. Yesterday Mr. Lewis and I had an erected a new building for the shope at Philipsburg. He was president of the Moshannon Coal Mining Company and a director of the Moshannon Nathe Government supply officer. It was tional Bank, of Philipsburg, proprietor and owner of the Rowland Theatre, and a cup of tea. He asked us if we was one of the original stockholders of quite active. would have some tea with him and we the Penn Public Service Corporation said no, but we would like to taste the and was interested in many other local utilities.

Mr. Rowland was a thirty-second degree Mason and a member of the Osceola Mills Lodge No. 515, F. and A. M. Jaffe

NO. 47

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS.

A pipe organ is being installed in the Lutheran church, Bellefonte,

Cloyd Fiedler, of Fiedler, has rented

Taniac will overcome that run down

A news dispatch says that there were more than a score of roses in full bloom on Thanksgiving day in the capital park, Harrisburg.

Only three years ago the world was seeking far and wide to find the man for the job, and now it is seeking far and wide to find the job for the man.

The Reporter would like to have a omplete return of deer and bear killed in Centre county during the next two weeks. Send in the hunting news stories.

Ed. H. Weiser has returned to his home near Coburn, after spending about six weeks near Clearfield, where he was running a steam roller on a state road job.

Bellefonte and Tyrone boroughs to Centre Game Preserve, tract in Taylor, Worth and Rush townships:$3,357.54. Clark Herman, et ux, to Fred A. Robison, tract in State College; $8,000.

Miss Corpenning, State Secretary of the W. C. T. U., organized a Young People's branch of that society in Millheim, with Mrs. A. H. Stover as president, and Miss Blanche Smith, secretary.

Last Friday was a beautiful day, and itwas the last Friday in last month-Let us hope the good weather forecast by old prophets will at least last until the last day of the last month of this

Elias Krumrine, of Weikert, spent several days, including Thanksgiving. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. O. Packer, in Centre Hall. Mr. Krumrine is eighty-one years of age, and is

> Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and son, of Altoona, motored to Centre Hall last Thursday and enjoyed their Thanksgiving dinner at the C. F. Emery home, be willing to see the "ideals" that and Mrs. Philip Foster, of State Col ege, were married at noon last Fri . odrow Wilson in reiteration promulgated become the settled policy of a day at the home of the bride's parents war-weary world.

New Judge to Take Seat.

An attempt to prevent President Judge-elect Miles I. Holler, of Middleburg, from taking his seat in January as president judge of the Union-Snyder district, was abruptly stopped when Judge Heck, of Potter county, dismissed a petition to audit his primary expense account. Holler was the veteran of the World war. successful Republican candidate, de feating Andrew A. Leiser, of Lewisburg, who, as counsel, represented six taxpayers who brought the appeal for audit before the Court.

Judge Heck dismissed the petition on the ground that the legal technacalities upon which the petitioners based their appeal were incorrectly interpreted. The decision put the burden of the costs incurred in the case upon the petitioners.

Injured by His Own Gun.

at the Lock Haven hospital suffering from a serious wound in his right arm, resulting from the first hunting accident in that vicinity this year. He was hunting near Ritchie Friday afternoon and was standing on a log when his shotgun slipped from his hands. The weapon was discharged and the shot lodged in his arm, above the elbow and in his shoulder. He is a son of Albert Cole, of Lock Haven.

Could Caruso's Life Have Been Saved?

Could the life of the great Caruso have been saved?

Were the distinguished specallists who attended him treating only a sympton and not getting at the real cause of the trouble which finally sent him to the grave?

Dr. Francesco X. Sauchelli, a wellknown New York chiropractor, believes that the famous singer would be alive and as well as ever today if the twisted vertebrae in his spinal column had been put back into place and thus relieved the pressure on the nerves which nourish the pleura and lung tisues.

In a full page article in next SUN-DAY'S NEW YORK AMERICAN, Dr. Sauchelli reveals the surprising fact that Caruso came to him and had an X-ray photograph made of his backbone which showed, the doctor claims the real cause of his illness.

Dr. Sauchelli's explanation of the cause of all Caruso's trouble and how he believes it could easily have been remedied is most interesting and instructive, and you can find it only in next SUNDAY'S NEW YORK AMER-ICAN.

according to the census of 1920. Clear-Washington.

by the Rev. Samuel Martin, pastor of the State College Presbyterian church-Only members of the families witness ed the ceremony. Robert F. Furst, brother of the bridegroom, and Miss Juliet Glazier, of State College, were attendants. After a wedding trip to Pittsburg Mr. and Mrs. Furst will live at Connellsville, where Mr. Furst is a member of the high school faculty. He is a graduate of State College and a Cantatta, "The Child of Promise," Be Given by Lutheran S. S.

The Christmas Cantatta entitled "The Child of Promise," will be render ed by the Lutheran Sunday-school of Monday evening, December 26. This is a gorgeous and complete story in song and drama, of the prophecy and fulfillment of the birth of Christ. It promises to be even bette than last year.

James Cole, aged fourteen years, is $1,000,000 CORPORATION FOR PHILIPSBURG.

To Establish Chain of Oil and Gas Service Stations Throughout Four States.

Philipsburg is to be the headquart ers of a million dollar corporation which has just been incorporated un der the laws of Delaware.

The new corporation, of which number of Philipsburg men are interested, bears the title of Pensylvania Auto Service Corporation, the object and purpose of which is establishing and maintaining service stations for the sale of gas and oil and to afford conveniences and comforts for motor travelers. The corporation is capitalized at 10,000 shares without par value but with taxable and appraisable value of $1,000,000.

The officers elected are the following: A. B. Curtis, of Philipsburg, president; C. G. Avery, of Philipsburg, first vice president; S. E. Chapman, of Omaha, Neb., second vice president; F. C. Todd, of Philipsburg, secretary and treasurer George W. Ziegler, gen-Dog License to Be Available Shortly eral counsel.

The board of directors consists of the folowing: A. B. Curtis, of Philipsburg; H. J Roberts, A. L. Roberts, O. E. Chapman, of Omaha, Neb.,C. G. Avery, F C. Todd and George W Ziegler, of Philipsburg.

Service stations will be established along the highways in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware. Three stations are now nearly completed. By the first of next May the the corporation expects to have thirty of them operating. A year later it is planned to have at least a hundred

The smallest incorporated borough stations and in five years 250 of them. in Pennsylvania is Friendsville, Sus- At the meeting of officers and direc quehanna county, with 74 inhabitants, tors held in Atorney George W. Ziegfield has one small' borough, New poration has in mind the erection later Washington, with 122 inhabitants. But on of an immense plant in Philipsthere are 18 smaller boroughs than New burg for the converting of crude oil into products for the chain of stations.

After December 1. Efforts are being made by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture to have the 1922 dog license tags in the hands of the various county treasurers throughout the state by the first of December.

Under the new dog law of 1921 the Department must furnish all tags liense blanks, application blanks and other supplies to the counties. All the upplies save the tags, are now on hand and the tags are being manufactured as rapidly as posible at the Huntingdon Reform School.

Everybody welcome. Dog owners have until Jaunary 15 ler's offices it was announced the cor- to secure their 1922 tags but all coun-A splendid program is anty treasurers will be in a position to ticipated. issue the tags after the first of the coming month.

(Continued next week.)

THANK-OFFERING SERVICE.

Sunday Evening, 7:30

In the Lutheran Church.

Centre Hall.

Temple, of Altoona, Mysti Shrine, of Williamsport, and a membe of the L. O. O. M. and B. P. O E odges of Philipsburg. Interment was made in the Philips ourg cemetery on Saturday.

EDWARD AMHERST OTT.

Edward Amherst Ott is one of the greatest lecturers on the Lyceum platform. Over a million people have heard his "Sour Grapes" and he now lectures to practically two hundred thousand people a year.

His newest lecture, "Victory," is not a war lecture. It is an after-the-war lecture. Countless questions are facing Americans of today. "What did we gain by the war?" "Has the end of war come?" "What can we do locally to get the full benefit of the or real construction the word?" answered by Mr. Ott in his popular bequest. lecture on "Victory."

EDWARD AMHERST OTT.

Edward Amherst Ott's treatment of vital national problems makes a vivid and lasting impression on every community.

Dr. Ott will appear in Grange Arcadia, Centre Hall, to-morrow (Friday) night, as the second number on the Lecture Course.

Exhibit College Livestock.

Some of the prize winning livestock at the Pennsylvania State Colege agricultural school is exhibiting next week at the International Livestock Show at Chicago. Angus and Shorthorn steers that won the championships at the Eastern States Exposition this fall are included in the eleven head of beef cattle that were sent to the show. There will also be 52 head of hogs and 38 sheep.

The old-fashioned mother used to given during the showing of the picspank Willie for smoking cigaretes; ture, was alone worth the admiss now she spanks him for stealing hers.

arental home of Mrs. Foss. The party returned home Friday.

M. L. Breon and C. O. Musser, of Mälheim, took a number of old band instruments to Williamsport, where they were they were turned in as part payment for new instruments. They returned with five new horns and a new bass drum. The Millheim band is now fully equipped with good instruments.

A new ruling governing hunting parties in quest of deer is that a complete roster of the camping party, whether day hunters or campers, must e made, giving full name of hunters, the number of their license tags, and other information, one copy going to the State Game Commission and the other to be posted in the camp.

The jury appointed by the court to appraise the value of the extra piece of land recently taken from the Jacob Gephart estate for school play ground, in Millheim, viewed the grounds. The viewers were S. Kline Woodring, of Bellefente; L. E. Swartz, of Hublersburg, and W. M. Grove, of Spring Mills. The report of their findings has not been made known.

Burdine Butler, the Howard township scrapper, is under arrest again for a violation of the compulsory school laws. It is only a short time ago that he was arrested on the same charge, ran his case through the county and supreme courts and came out with all the lower court verdicts sustained, which, of course, meant that he was obliged to settle the costs.

Several weeks ago Nelson E. Robb, idministrator of the estate of the late Harriet L. Kurtz, paid over to the trustees of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church the sum of $1065 on a $2,000 equest made to that church in the interest of missionary work. Last week a five hundred dollar bond was found in the First National bank at military victory?" "Is re-construction State College, which belongs to the estate and it will also be turned over to These and many other questions are the Presbyterian church to add to the

> The home of Hary S. Miller, about three and a half miles north east of Port Matilda, was totally destroyed by fire. The family were awakened by the smoke about two o'clock in the morning and barely escaped with their lives, losing not only their home but all their household goods and $135.00 in money. Miller is employed as a flagman on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad and had only recently purchased the little farm on which his home was located.

> A movnig picture operator from Williamsport showed the wonderful photoplay, "Isobel," in Grange hall last Thursday night. The picture was one of the best ever presented to a local audience, and was worthy of a much better patronage. It might also be said that the splendid music by Mrs. Della Reiber, pianist, and her son, William Reiber, vollinist, which was price.