LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

If you are feeling badly, put your troubles away by taking Tanlac.—Centre Hall Pharmacy.

Tanlac is well advertised, but advertising alone could not have produced Tanlac's popularity. It had to have merit.—Centre Hall Pharmacy.

Charley Stump took advantage of the cheap excursion rate to Washington, D. C., from Centre Hall, on Saturday night, to make his annual trip to Virginia, where he will spend the winter.

A slight blaze on the roof of the Crider's Exchange building, Bellefonte, ignited from a fire at Knisely's restaurant, was quickly extinguished by prompt use of a fire extinguisher, on Friday morning.

Mrs. Sheridan P. Garis and two children, of Altoona, came to Centre Hall to be present at the annual butchering at the Byron Garis home, this week. Miss Anna Garis, who had been in Altoona for some time, accompanied them home.

A return game of soccer ball between the Centre Hall High school and the Gregg Township Vocational School teams, on Friday afternoon, at Spring Mills resulted in a victory for the Vocational School by a score of 1 to 0. This makes victory No. 2 over the local team.

A warrant was sworn out by J. Cloyd Brooks of near Centre Hall, for the arrest of George Page, charged with stealing a new auto tire a short time ago. It appears the tire was taken from the Brooks garage, and the fact that a man got onto the west bound train at Gregg station about that time carrying an auto tire led to issuing a warrant. Page is said to be at Meadville, Crawford county, where Sheriff Dukeman will make search for him.

Ray—Ruble.

Walter E. Ray, of Bellefonte, and Miss Pearl Ruble, of Centre Hall, were married in Lock Haven on Saturday night. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. John Ruble, of Centre Hall, and is a graduate of the Centre Hall High school, class of 1921. After her graduation she entered the Bellefonte hospital to take the course in nursing, with which Cupid has suddenly interfered. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Terpsichore was the ruler of the dance before St. Vitus.

Prices are falling fast, but some shopkeepers never read.

Entertainment at Spring Mills.

A Christmas movie and entertainment will be given by the Vocational School, in Grange hall, Spring Mills, on Friday evening, 23rd, that no doubt will be pleasing to every one. See posters for further description. Admission: Adults, 35c; children, 20c. Seats on sale at First National Bank, Spring Mills.

Christmas at Meiss's.

George R. Meiss, the Colyer merchant, has on sale at retail and wholesale, a fine assortment of candies suitable for school teachers at the holiday season. Also, oranges, bananas, and oysters. Also, a collection of toys for the children.

Little Tot Burned to Death.

Awakened by the smell of burning wood, Eugene Six and his wife, carrying a two months' old babe, escaped from their burning home near Fulton Tunnel, near Clearfield, early Friday morning. Lavonne Six, two-year old daughter, left behind in her crib when her father rushed out to get water to fight the blaze, was trapped by the flames before she could climb out of the crib to safety, and nothing but charred remains of the little body could be found when the frantic father, aided by neighbors, plowed their way through the cooling ruins later on.

Neighbors took charge of Six and his wife and surviving babe, all of whom escaped from the house barefooted and clad only in their night clothes.

All of their belongings went up in smoke. Not a thing was saved.

One Shot Kills Buck and Doe.

Dr. E. J. Williams, veterinarian, who resides in West Huntingdon, went hunting in Diamond Valley the first day of the deer season, accompanied by Game Warden Myers, of Blair county. In their quest for game Dr. Williams discovered a large buck about twenty yards away, and taking deliberate aim dropped the deer in his tracks. Much to the surprise of Dr. Williams and Mr. Myers, a dead doe lay at the side of the buck the ball having passed through the animal's jugular vein.

Dr. Williams remitted his fine to the game department at once, and is awaiting their disposition of what is a new thing in the hunting of deer in this section of the state.

THE DEATH RECORD.

MILLER.—Wallace Miller, husband of Virginia Geiss Miller, died in St. Luke's hospital, Philadelphia, on December 9, after an illness of a month, due to Bright's disease.

Mr. Miller was born in Rebersburg about fifty-two years ago, the son of Harvey Miller, the once popular auctioneer of Brush and Penns Valleys. As a young man he spent a year in Centre Hall as a student in the local railroad ticket office.

After several years of travel in the Western states, he returned to the East and entered the employ of the Horn and Hardhart Baking Company, with whom he remained for more than twenty-five years. At the time of his death he held the position of auditor.

The remains were shipped to Centre Hall, arriving on the train Tuesday afternoon and burial was made direct in the Centre Hall cemetery.

BOLLINGER.—Emanuel Bollinger, an old-time resident of Centre county, died at the soldiers' home at Erie, of general debility. He was a son of Michael and Sarah Goldman Bollinger and was born at Hubersburg on July 31, 1831, making his age 90 years, 3 mos. and 25 days. His grandfather fought in the Revolutionary war; his father was the second sheriff of Centre county and also served two terms in the State Legislature, while Emanuel Bollinger served throughout the Civil war. As a young man he learned the tailor trade and followed that occupation all of his life. Early in life he spent a few years in Ferguson township later moving to Phillipsburg where he was in the tailoring business for almost half a century. He was married to Miss Jane Minnick who died in August, 1920, and his only survivors are two daughters, Misses Margaret and Lucy Bollinger, of Pennsylvania Furnace. The remains were taken to Phillipsburg, where burial was made.

SCHUYLER.—Miss Elizabeth Schuyler died at Haddonfield, New Jersey, aged almost seventy-four years. She was the sister of the late Dr. W. H. Schuyler and during the latter's residence in Centre Hall she made her home with him. She was a school teacher by profession. One sister, Mrs. T. K. Simkins, of Philadelphia, survives.

John Stewart Atlee, of Tyrone, died from uremic poisoning. He was born at Pine Grove Mills, a son of the late Samuel and Jane Atlee, and was reared in Ferguson township. He engaged in farming in Sinking valley until four years ago when he moved to Tyrone, where he was held in high esteem. Burial was made at Tyrone on Wednesday.

Mrs. Nancy Ellen Hall, wife of Allan A. Hall, of Unionville died of acute dilation of the heart. She was born at Unionville Oct. 9, 1863, and spent her entire life in that section. She is survived by her husband; four children, one brother and one sister. Funeral services were held at Unionville.

Mistaken for Wildcat.

James Gummo, of Pittsburgh, a former resident of Mackeyville, was shot through the left cheek while hunting with the Gummo-Bierly party in Rag Valley, above Clintondale. Gummo was up a tree watching for deer when he was shot at by an Altoona member of the party who mistook him for a wild cat. One of the buckshot passed through his left cheek bone. Gummo was taken to his home, his injuries dressed, and he went out with the party again the following morning.

To A Gentleman. The "gentleman" who has been trying to enter houses from rear doors, and by climbing upon balconies, had better change his methods before he lands at Rockview.—Contributed.

That Cheerful Xmas Season

The Vacuum Cleaner with Special Housework Features

Suction is only one of the reasons for the remarkable success of the Torrington Electric Vacuum Cleaner. The Torrington has a cool-running motor of simple, strong design. It is low, so that the cleaner can go under most furniture.

To guarantee successful cleaning, the Torrington has a spiral brush. This brush revolves like a carpet-sweeper brush, independent of the motor.

Torrington ELECTRIC VACUUM CLEANER
BIG BRUSH—POWERFUL SUCTION

It loosens all the ravellings, lint, and bits of litter held by the nap of the rug. Where a Torrington is used, all the dirt is collected in the dust bag.

You will like the lightness and handiness of a Torrington both in using and carrying the cleaner about the house, and, for economy, it's great—about 2c worth of electricity a week. It pleases servants and makes a cleaner home.

Easy-Payment Selling
Buy a Torrington now, because of the work it will do for you and because of our plan of a little down and a little each week or month.

There is a Torrington Dealer near you. If you do not know him write at once to
THE TORRINGTON COMPANY
