Spout put Pepper in Senate, and now it's up to Pepper to show that the first syllable in his name counts for something.

Although the State has collected millions of dollars in taxes during the past month, the school districts are looking in vain for five million dollars due them back in 1920 and 1919, out of money appropriated in 1919. It will require a Democratic Governor and a Democratic senate and house to give the people their just dues.

Pepper U. S. Senator.

George Wharton Pepper, a Philadelphia attorney was appointed the successor of Senator Penrose in the United States Senate. He will hold office until his successor is elected at the coming November election. He is an avowed candidate for the nomination for senator at the May primaries.

Corman—Stover.

On the 5th day of January, at the United Evangelical parsonage, Orvis E. Corman, of Millheim and Mabelle J.
Stover, of Aaronsburg, were united in marriage by Rev. J. F. Bingham. A host of friends wish them well over life's matrimonial sea.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our appreciation and thanks for automobile services and floral tributes, as well as for help and sympathy extended during the illness and death of our son, John William Blauser.—His parents. adv.

A Distressing Accident.

The other Saturday afternoon a distressing accident took place on College Avenue, State College. About 3:30 o'- clock a number of boys and girls were sliding down from the main entrance to the College onto the avenue. Among the lookers-on was Joseph Houser, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Houser of that place. The child was standing on the side of the avenue next to the campus. Albert L.
Peters, who operates a freight truck between that place and Bellefonte, happened to come along with one of his big trucks and the child started to cross the avenue in front of the truck.
The child was so close that Mr. Peters claims he was unable to stop the car in time to prevent striking him. He was knocked down and one of the wheels ran over him. The little boy was picked up and carried home and only a slight scratch could be seen on his face, though he died Sunday night following as a result of internal injuries.

Millheim Boro Council.

The Millheim borough council organized at the beginning of the year with J. C. Hosterman, the Journal man, as president; John F. Musser, secretary. The other councilmen are A. E. Barges, W. A. Stover, J. S. Mc-Mullin, T. F. Meyer and P. H. Musser, the latter having been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. F. Smith.

Farm Bureau Meeting.

A very interesting meeting of the Centre County Farm Bureau was held when more than three hundred farmers met in the court house Saturday afternoon.

It was a special meeting called for the purpose of acting on a resolution presented at the annual meeting held two weeks ago. The resolution authorized an amendment to the constitution providing for a paid membership to the Centre County Farm Bureau.
The purposes of the resolution were two fold; first, to supply funds to supplement the appropriation of the county commissioners so that the county agent could do his work more effectively. It appears that the appropriation of the county commissioners, although liberal, is not sufficient for the needs of the bureau. One very important thing that has been omitted in the past two years is the publishing of the annual report. The officers feel that the county agent's report should be published and placed in the hands of every farmer in Centre county.
There are other equally important phases of the work that cannot be properly done because of lack of funds.

But from what was heard on the street corners, in the corridors of the court house and other places where a group of farmers were assembled it was very evident that the record crowd at the Farm Bureau meeting were prompted by a motive other than to help the Centre county Farm Bureau financially.

It developed that by placing Centre county on a paid membership basis it would make Centre county eligible to join a state federation of Farm Bureaus if such a federation should be formed.
After the advantages of said federation and the benefits to the farmer as well as to the general public were explained Mr. Brinkman, Secretary of the State Grange, was asked to make a few remarks. Although this was a meeting for Centre county farmers only Mr. Brinkman was given the courtesy of the floor. It appears that the State Grange has definitely opposed Farm Bureau Federation in Pennsylvania hence the presence of their secretary at this meeting. Mr. Brinkman's talk dwelt largely on the merits of the Grange as a farmers organization, stating that it was well represented over the state and was equipped to do for the farmer all that was necessary, hence the folly of another state wide farmers' organization. From personal of the crowd and their secretary it was evident that the State Grange had come prepared and this was shown in an overwhelming defeat of the resolution.

As a considerable number of those present were farmers who had not previously taken a very active part in Farm Bureau work the president made a strong plea for the support of the County Agent and his work. It was evident from the remarks of the speakers on both sides of the question discussed that all those present were very enthusiastic over the present form of Farm Bureau organization and the work that is being done in Centre county. The officers of the Centre County Farm Bureau feel that the agricultural interests should center around the County Agent and his work.

J. N. ROBINSON, County Agent.

county. The admission is 15 and 25 esting and entertaining and should

LETTERS FROM SUBSCRIBERS.

Rev. T. J. Frederick Would Like to Hear from Distant Subscribers Through "Reporter" Columns.— Such Letters Welcomed by All.

Springchurch Pa.,
January 7, 1922.

Editors The Centre Reporter:— Enclosed please find P. O. order to advance my credit on your books. In our home The Centre Reporter is a regular weekly guest. It is as eagerly welcomed as any of the newspapers which stately reach us. All are anxious to learn what our "Home Paper" has to say about a section of the world whose interests, because of early associations, are very closely entwined around our hearts. We are always glad to learn of the good fortune of early friends as well as sympathize with those who are in anywise unfortunate. We regret that we do not hear more frequently from that portion of our early associates who form a large class of adventurers who, from necessity or otherwise, chose to seek Dams Fortune in other parts of the country.
Through the columns of the Reporter we of course hear from some of them occasionally. Thus we hear from fair California, from prosperous South Dakota, from musical Chicago, from healthy Junata, from the City of Brotherly Love; from even literary Brushvalley. Hence our happiness is very considerably enhanced and we are thankful. May we not earnestly hope that a still more widespread interest in the welfare of early but now distant friends and associates may be more generally shared. The "Home Paper" is one of the best available means by which this may be brought to pass.
More anon,
T. J. FREDERICK.

Letter from Minnesota.

Sebeko, Minnesota.
January 4, 1922.

Dear Editor:— Find enclosed a check for $1.50 for another year's subscription, wishing you a happy new year. We greatly enjoy your paper. See that there are to be some changes—hope not, for the old way suits me the best.

Will write you a few lines to tell you that we are having some winter just at present. Last week the thermometer hit the 30 mark a couple of times, so we know that summer has past; but just the same we had pretty fair crops and have lots to eat. We killed two hogs that weighed over 400 pounds each, and a beef that weighed 500 pounds dressed—so let 'er storm.
Our cows are doing fairly well; we are getting 42 cents for cream and 45 cts. for eggs, but we do not get any price for our grain and cattle. We ought to, for everything that we buy is still high, so I think as farmers we are not getting what is coming to us. I hope that a better day is coming for the poor class. The capitalists ought to be satisfied pretty soon; that is all I have to say.
Yours truly,
J. H. MERSINGER.

THE DEATH RECORD.

BRADFORD.—Although the relatives of George W. Bradford had received a telegram from Phoenixville stating that he had suffered a paralytic stroke some time Sunday or Monday, the community was startled to hear in the evening of a telegram announcing the gentleman's death, which occurred some time Tuesday afternoon. At this time nothing is known of a previous illness, except that contained in the telegram which simply stated, he had been stricken.

The remains were brought to Centre Hall, and from the home of his son, William Bradford, at Phoenixville, where he had gone the beginning of December to spend the winter, and taken to the home of his youngest son, Paul Bradford, near Potters Mills, where Mr. and Mrs. Bradford made their home, at which place the funeral will be held, Saturday forenoon, interment to be made in the Bradford burial lot, Boalsburg, Saturday forenoon.

Mr. Bradford was a miller by trade, but for a number of years was engaged in farming. He was a good citizen, and following the footsteps of his elders, the late William and Catherine Bradford, was long a member of the Reformed church.

Mr. Bradford would have reached the age of 66 years had he lived until next Sunday.

Surviving him are his wife who before marriage was Nancy Bohn, and the following children: Albert, William, Mrs. John Auman of Phoenixville; Daniel, of Willard, Ohio; Mrs. John A.
Martz, D. Milton and Paul, of Centre Hall; also these sisters and brothers—deceased is survived by a widow, who before marriage was Miss Lulu Hosterman, a daughter by previous marriage of Mrs. Robert M. Smith, of Centre Hall, and two children, one of which is but eight weeks old, the other about three and one-half years old.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

Mr. Hosterman is survived by a brother, Stuart, of Coburn, and his mother, Mrs. Nora Hosterman, also of Coburn. His father, William Hosterman, died when the subject of this sketch was but seventeen years of age, at which time he took charge of the father's interest in the Coburn Grain and Creamery Corporation, Limited, and has since been its mainstay.

He was aged about twenty-five years. The loss of this young man will be keenly felt in his immediate family, and in the community as well.

ago. When a young man he went to Illinois where he was located at the paign in Virginia, where he participated in some of the fiercest battles in that section. At the close of the
