

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

It was 2 degrees below zero on Tuesday morning.

W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, Saturday evening, 7:30.

Mrs. J. L. Tressler, of Centre Hall, was a pleasant caller at the Reporter office on Monday.

Tanlac is appetizing, invigorating and strengthening. Try it and be convinced.—Centre Hall Pharmacy.

Mrs. I. M. Arney, who had been seriously ill, is gradually growing better. Last week a trained nurse took charge of the case.

In Clinton county twenty hotel men have made application for license, who will appear before Judge Eugene H. Baird, now holding his first session of court in that county.

Robert Neff has been teaching a school in Spring township, not far from Bellefonte, the past week, during the absence of the regular teacher.

Miss Rebecca Derstine is at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Puff, in Centre Hall, assisting in caring for her. Miss Derstine has been living in Philadelphia for the past few months.

Miss Catherine Bradford and Miss Helen Ishler, student nurses in the Bellefonte hospital, and Mrs. Frank Bohn, of Coburn, spent over Sunday at the Clyde Bradford home in this place, having been called here for the funeral of George W. Bradford.

Thomas A. Hosterman continues to suffer intensely from an ailment affecting his legs. Last week a trained nurse, a Miss Hoover, from Bellefonte, came to the Hosterman home and is giving her services in the case. Mr. Hosterman's many friends hope to see him soon restored to full health and strength.

Last week's snow storm and consequent tie-up of travel caused the postponement of two events in the Grange hall—the Odd Fellows' banquet, which was to have been held Thursday night, and the play by the Clinton county school boys and girls, on Saturday night.

Joseph K. Bitner, of Spring Mills, was a business caller on Saturday. Mr. Bitner has been a successful farmer, and now while he is enjoying the fruits of his labors, devotes a part of his time to financial affairs, being the vice president of the Spring Mills First National Bank.

At the annual meeting of the Centre Hall I. O. O. F. Hall Association, held on Monday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. H. Knarr; vice-president, John Delaney; secretary, V. A. Auman; treasurer, H. H. Mark; directors, Milton Bradford, Bruce Arney and Clyde Dutrow.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, on Monday went to York county for a stay of two weeks, during which time he will assist his brother-in-law, a Methodist minister, in conducting a series of meetings. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and the baby are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Haugh, at State College.

Mrs. F. V. Goodhart had the misfortune to make a misstep while descending a step at a neighbor's house and in falling fractured a rib. After being properly bandaged the injury became less painful. When she fell, Mrs. Goodhart had in her arms a little niece, Anna Jane Musser, and it was no doubt the effort to save the child that was largely responsible for the accident.

A picture post card received from D. Cleveland Mitterling, who left Centre Hall a few weeks ago for Eureka Springs, Arkansas, in quest of good health, says: "I got to this place on Friday noon; it is some town; has lots of fine hotels and boarding houses for the accommodation of visitors and health seekers. Not so many people here now as in the summer."

The eighteen inches to two feet of snow that fell on Wednesday, beginning at about six o'clock in the morning, gave plenty of work to many who hadn't handled a shovel for a year. By noon on Thursday every walk, except perhaps those where the big boy ruled, was cleaned of the snow and passage on the sidewalk from one end of the borough to the other could be easily paced.

Whimpering and slashing his arms above his head while buried to the neck in a snowbank, "Billie" Weaver, aged six, brought to his attention help that probably saved him from a calamity on the evening of the recent snow storm. The youngster is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Weaver, who live just east of the borough limit. The boy was on his way home from school when he became fastened in a deep snow bank a considerable distance from his home and at a point not frequented in such weather conditions. The lad was taken to the E. E. Zettle home and was cared for. In the meantime an alarm was sent out that the lad had been lost and there was a considerable time lapsed before the anxious mother was notified of her son's safety.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Any man who thinks he has no chance is correct.

Miss Emma Buck, of Lewisburg, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary on Tuesday. Miss Buck and Mrs. Geary are cousins.

We don't hear of the "large sales and small profits" motto any more, but how business would boom if it were dusted off and again hung over the counter!

Paul Ishler, of Linden Hall, is again improving from an attack of scarlet fever. He had had a relapse, his condition for a period having been very serious. He is a son of Station Agent Frank Ishler.

F. V. Goodhart, the undertaker, undertook and succeeded in the undertaking of running his Ford coupe thru town on Monday. He was the first local autoist to make his appearance since the big snowfall.

Mrs. John H. Puff and Mrs. I. M. Arney, both of whom had been seriously ill during the past two weeks or more, are reported as improving, the former, however, is yet quite ill. Both were sufferers from pneumonia.

The state road from Milroy to the top of the Seven Mountains has been scraped of snow. This was done prior to Sunday, on which day a car from Huntingdon crossed the mountains. No work whatever has been done in this section on any of the state roads.

A $25,000 fire was experienced in Phillipsburg Monday morning when the Exchange Garage, Graham building and Haagen barn were destroyed. Twelve automobiles, some of them new and expensive ones, were destroyed, the Exchange loss being between $17,000 and $18,000.

Mrs. C. P. Long, of Spring Mills, who had been very seriously ill for several weeks from pleuro pneumonia, on Tuesday was able to sit up in bed for the first. She is yet, however, very feeble, but her immediate household and friends are now anticipating complete recovery. Mrs. A. N. Finkle, also of Spring Mills, has been a sufferer from the same disease. Her condition is now very materially improved.

A dab of molasses on a stick will enable you to discover whether there is any water in gasoline. Minnesota oil inspectors used the test last year with satisfactory results. Water is heavier than gasoline and sinks to the bottom. The molasses will pass thru the gasoline unaffected, but as soon as it encounters the water some of it comes off the stick and so reveals the dividing line between the water and the gasoline.

Had Appendix Removed.
Mrs. Milford Luse, of Centre Hall, on Tuesday was operated on for appendicitis in the State College hospital, by Dr. Locke, of Bellefonte. Her condition was reported as very favorable.

Notice of Teachers' Institute.
Notice is hereby given to the teachers of District No. 1, composed of Miles, Haines, Penn, Gregg, Potter townships and Centre Hall and Millheim boroughs, that a local institute will be held in the Auditorium at Millheim, Friday afternoon and evening, February 2. On Monday, 23rd inst., in the Court House, Bellefonte, there will be held a meeting of special interest to all ex-service men. A clean-up squad from the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, Philadelphia, will be on hand and will be prepared to assist in preparing applications for compensation, medical examination and evidence, and applications and decisions for training. Take your discharge and any letters received from the bureau with you, Mr. Ex-Service Man. Your cooperation is absolutely necessary if you are to receive the full benefits of what the Government has provided for you.

Card of Thanks.
It is with grateful hearts that we express our appreciation and thankfulness for the help, sympathy and many kindnesses extended to us during our recent bereavement in the death of husband and father. Neighbors have proved themselves real friends in our hour of sorrow. Words fail to convey our true feelings. For the many floral tributes we too are thankful.—Mrs. G. W. Bradford and children.

Dry Law Brings Profit.
Enforcement of prohibition in Pennsylvania last year cost much less than the amount collected in taxes and penalties, according to a report made public a few days ago for federal authorities. The profit to the government, the report said, was "considerable, as all fines collected and all goods seized were clear gain, the excess tax deficiency having been made up in special taxes."

The total appraised value of property seized in the state last year exceeded $336,000 and the taxes and penalties collected amounted to more than $185,000. The expenses incurred in the seizures and in enforcing the prohibition amendment were given as approximately $44,000.

The seizures included 129 illicit stills, 10,764 gallons of spirits, 9,261 gallons of mash, 1,041 gallons of wine and 172,761 gallons of beer.

TUSSEYVILLE.

The snow storm last Wednesday closed up the roads in many places so that there were no mail deliveries for two days.

Miss Yerna Donahy, who is employed at State College, spent several days at her home.

Rufus Ripka is very ill with pneumonia at the home of Wm. Rocky.

Bolsa Brown is confined to his bed with a severe attack of grip.

Many farmers are filling their ice houses this week with a good quality of ice.

John H. Horner, who had been seriously ill for the past few weeks, is slowly improving.

Resolutions of Respect.
Whereas John, in His infinite wisdom has called unto Himself our beloved Brother, Homer O. Barr, therefore be it resolved by the Men's Bible Class and the members of the Lutheran Sunday School, that we hereby express our deep sorrow over the loss of so faithful and earnest a co-worker, and our heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved family. His sympathetic friendship, his constant efforts for the promotion of good, and his firm stand for the right will ever remain an inspiration to the class and the school.
