First National Buys Equipment.

The Bellefonte Trust company made public sale of its old equipment, on Saturday. The sale was knocked off by Auctioneer Mayes to First National Bank, at Centre Hall. It is understood this new institution was also in quest of other fixtures offered, but since these are all set up in the rooms the First National Bank of Bellefonte will occupy during the remodeling of its home, few bids were made for it. The fixtures were purchased by the First National of Bellefonte.

This is all that need be said at present about the organization of a new bank in Centre Hall.

Penna. Hens Pile Up Millions in Wealth During Past Year.

The Pennsylvania hen, during 1921, added more than $34,000,000 to the wealth of the farmers of the state, according to figures compiled by L. H. Wible, statistician for the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture and embodied in a report just made to Secretary of Agriculture Fred Hammussen.

The estimates show that the hens of the state laid 75,593,325 dozens of eggs during the year and the average price received was 45 cents per dozen. Lancaster county's hens produced eggs to the value of more than two and a quarter millions of dollars during the year. While more eggs were produced in Lancaster county than any other, yet York county, on account of the greater price received for the eggs, leads the state in the value of its eggs. Berks, Bucks, Chester and Montgomery counties each produced more than a million dollars worth of eggs during the year.

In Centre county 858,925 dozen of eggs were produced during 1921 for a total value of $345,570, at an average price of 40 cents a dozen.

REBERSBURG.

It is now Squire Ziegler instead of Squire Corman.

Harry Garrt, employed at Lock Haven, spent Sunday with his family in this place.

Electric light is a sure thing for Rebersburg. During the past week several dwelling houses were wired for light.

The carpenters have finished the interior of Harry Ziegler's new dwelling house. Next to follow are the painters and paper hangers.

Jerry Brungart is confined to the house with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Joe Smull, who is suffering with gall stones and whose case has become alarming, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment, by Dr. Frank.

Two new Dodge cars have been recently sold, for April delivery, to two farmers living close to town.

James Carson, tenant on the Scott Stover farm, east of Rebersburg, will quit farming in the spring. Mr. Houser, of Pine Creek, will occupy the farm after April 1st.

Henry Ford carries a nice bank balance of between 130 and 140 millions. Upon being questioned he stated that his bank account would pay operating expenses but for 100 days. Something like $500,000 are paid daily for wages, and $750,000 for material. Henry is a billionaire, but he sates he is working for the good of humanity.

THE DEATH RECORD.

CORMAN.—James T. Corman, an aged and respected citizen of Rebersburg, born Dec. 12, 1839, departed this life on Friday of last week, aged 82 years, 1 month and 12 days. He was married to Sarah Walker. This union was blessed with five children; one child, Daniel, preceded him in death on Feb. 17, 1917. Surviving him are his wife and four children, seventeen grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, two sisters and one brother.

In 1862, at the call for volunteers, he being 22 years of age, he enlisted for service, August 20, 1862, and served till the close of the war. He was mustered out of service June 1, 1865. After his return from the army he took up farming on one of his father's farms till about sixteen years ago, when he bought a home in Rebersburg and lived there until his death.

In youth he was confirmed and became a member of the Reformed church in Rebersburg, being a staunch and firm member there, as well as a faithful and consistent member. During his lifetime he held offices in all the varied official capacities and was frequently a representative as delegate to Classis and Synod. He never failed in attendance at church services, prayer meeting or Sunday School as long as his health and strength permitted. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning in the church in which he worshipped all his life. The charge being without a pastor, Rev. R. P. Gass, of Howard, who is on the supply committee, officiated. Burial in the Union cemetery, Rebersburg.

TREASTER.—Mrs. Mary Treaster died at her home near Colyer on Monday morning, aged fifty-six years, one month and thirteen days. Interment was made in the Evangelical cemetery, Zion Hill, this (Thursday) forenoon, Rev. Maneval conducting the services.

Mrs. Treaster was the wife of Frank Treaster and a daughter of the late Henry Shadow. She is survived by her husband and two children—Mrs. James Fetterolf, Centre Hall, and Leslie Treaster, of Colyer. Also, by two brothers, Howard Shadow, of State College, and William Shadow, of Chicago, Illinois.

BURRIS.—Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burris, of near Bellefonte, died Saturday of last week, and funeral services were held on Monday afternoon from the home of George L. Horner, grandfather of the child, at Pleasant Gap, Rev. Piper being the officiating minister. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery, Pleasant Gap. The child had been suffering from rheumatism for some months, and finally pneumonia developed, resulting in death. His age was five years and some months.

GLOSSNER.—Mrs. Rebecca Fearon Glossner, widow of the late Samuel H. Glossner, of Blanchard, died at the home of her lifelong friend, Mrs. William Young, in Arglen, Chester county, where she had been visiting. The deceased was a daughter of the late William and Elizabeth Fearon, of Beech Creek township and is survived by three brothers, Joseph, of Manhattan, Kansas, and John and Frank, of Mill Hill; by her daughter, Margaret, of State College, and the following step-children: Harry Glossner, of Monument; Hugh Glossner, of Blanchard; and Mrs. D. F. Fredericks, of Flemington. Before her marriage and after the death of her husband she taught in the public schools of Chester, Clinton and Centre counties, having taught both the Dauberman and the Tusseyville schools in Potter township with exceptional success. She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Beech Creek. The body left Arglen last Thursday morning for Blanchard. The interment was made in the Baptist cemetery in Blanchard.

HOUSEMAN.—Rev. John H. Houseman, a veteran minister of the Lutheran church, died at his home in Juniata after an illness of several months the result of a general decline in health. He was eighty years old on January 9th, and was born at Pine Grove Mills where the early part of his life was spent. During his pastoral career he filled appointments in Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, his last charge before his retirement about eighteen years ago being at Mill Creek, Huntingdon county. He was married to Miss Louisa Buck, of Centre county, who survives with one son, John Corbin, at home, as well as a number of brothers and sisters.

MUSSER.—Luther Emanuel Musser, a resident of Haines township, whose serious illness was mentioned in last week's issue, died Wednesday afternoon of last week at his home near Woodward, aged 71 years, 7 months and 20 days. Asthma and pneumonia were the causes of his death.

He is survived by his wife and one brother, James Musser, of near Woodward.

Funeral services were held at Woodward Saturday afternoon following, and interment was made at Wolf's Chapel.

BENNER.—Frank Benner, a native of Penna valley, died suddenly of pneumonia at the home of William Neese, near Spring Mills, aged 63 years.

He is survived by three brothers—Daniel, William and Thomas, all of Woodward, and two sisters—Mrs. Samuel Williams, of Mohessen, and Miss Sarah, of Danville. Interment was made at Woodward.

Lutheran Officials Named.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the United Lutheran Church, at a meeting held in York, elected Rev. Charles J. Smith, president of Roanoke College, as general secretary to succeed Rev. Dr. H. H. Weber, who will retire after a service of 33 years. Rev. Dr. George E. Holtzapfel, of York, was elected a member of the board to succeed Harvey C. Miller, of Philadelphia.

Rev. J. Elmer Bittle, of Pittsburg, was elected western district general superintendent of the board. Rev. J. E. Whitaker, of Chicago, head of the board, presided.
