Bootlegger Gets Heavy Sentence.

A fine of $5000 and three years imprisonment was the sentence imposed on Charles (Red) Ackey, who pleaded guilty before Judge Bell in the Clearfield court. Ackey did business in the Philipsburg district as well as in Clearfield county.

Where Twins Are Tramp.

Mrs. Harry Watkins, of near Swisssdale, Clinton county, gave birth to four children within one year. On February 14, 1921, twin sons were born. On Saturday, February 4, two daughters arrived at the Watkins home.

This is the third set of twins in this family. The first set, boys, are now fifteen years old. There are eleven children in the family. The father is out of employment and the family is in need. Lock Haven people are providing clothing and other necessities for them.

SPRING MILLS.

Harry Allison visited his sons and their families at Renovo over Sunday.

Workmen are quarrying stone for the new bank building.

Mrs. Riden's sister visited her last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Diehl, of Ohio, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Sarah Corman.

Miss Mary Zerby, teacher of the Penn Hall school, has been quite ill with sore throat and is unable to teach school.

The Encampment members held a waffle supper at the Frank Musser home on Tuesday evening. Quite a number were present and all had an enjoyable time.

The following boys from the Vocational school represented Centre county at the State Farm Products Show at Harrisburg: In dairy cattle judging, David Hosterman and Eugene Leister; poultry, Eugene Siegal; corn, Joseph Swabb, who won third premium, and Mary Bright, who took fifth place. The show was said to have been the best even held in Pennsylvania.

Henry Ford, on Saturday, purchased the properties of the Lincoln Motors Company, in Detroit, Michigan, for eight million dollars, at the receiver's sale. Two other bidders refused to go over this mark. Ford's bid being placed first was accepted.

THE DEATH RECORD.

ROCKEY.—John B. Rocky, a well known resident of State College, died Friday morning at 7:30 at his home after an illness of a year with bronchial and heart trouble.

Mr. Rocky was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rocky, pioneer settlers of Gregg township, where he was born October 13, 1847. In March, 1874, he was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Bowersox. To them the following children were born: Mrs. W. H. Mackey, of Bellefonte; H. N., of State College; Mrs. Oscar Whitmer, of Buffalo Run; D. Stuart, of Bellefonte; Andrew C., of near Centre Hall; Henry C., of Fillmore, on the home farm; Elmer E., of Bellefonte; Miss Clara, at home. There also survive one sister, Mrs. John Albright, of Spring Mills, and twenty-two grandchildren. He was a member of the M. E. church and most of his life was spent at the Brockerhoff farm, near Fillmore, as a successful farmer and stock raiser, and later became the owner of a good farm in Buffalo Run. In the spring of 1917 he and his good wife retired from the activities of farm life to spend their remaining days at State College.

The funeral service was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Revs. Peters and Hummel officiating. Interment was made in Myers' cemetery.

BARTOGES.—Randolf Emerson Bartoges died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bartoges, south of Centre Hall, at 4:30 p. m. Saturday, after a brief illness with membranous croup. He was aged five years, six months and 14 days. He was a sweet, quiet, loving child and will be sadly missed. He is survived by his parents and one brother.

This is the second child to die in this family during this winter, and the mother had just returned from the Bellefonte hospital a little over a week ago, where she spent seven weeks following a serious operation. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

Interment, which was private, was made Sunday afternoon in the Yearlick cemetery in Brush valley.

WEAVER.—James Weaver died at his home in Aaronsburg Friday of last week after an illness extending over a period of almost a year. At the time of his death his right side was paralyzed. Burial was made in Aaronsburg on Monday, Rev. Snyder performing the ceremony. The deceased was aged 72 years. He is survived by a wife, as well as several daughters and sons. Elias Weaver, west of Spring Mills, is a brother.

PETERS.—Mrs. Mary Miles Peters, widow of the late George W. Peters, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert G. Foster, 2816 north Broad street, Philadelphia, of diseases incident to her advanced age.

Her maiden name was Mary Miles Lucas and she was born near Unionville on June 8th, 1843, hence was in her seventy-ninth year. Her married life was spent in the neighborhood of Unionville but following the death of her husband over thirty years ago she went to Bellefonte with her family and lived there until her removal to Philadelphia. She is survived by the following children: John Peters, of DuBois; Davis L., of Walla Walla, Washington; Mrs. Frank Grau, Anna T. and Mrs. Robert G. Foster, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Cheney K. Hicklen, of Bellefonte. She also leaves three brothers and sisters: Edward Lucas, of Huston township; Mrs. Alviria Peters, of Boggs township; George W. Lucas, of Philipsburg; Mrs. William Witmer, of Bellefonte, and Curtin Lucas, in Ohio.

BURNS.—Mrs. Tillie Burns, wife of John W. Burns, died at her home in Shamokin, following a prolonged illness. Her age was 52 years. She was the daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Schieffer, of Millheim, at whose home funeral services were held Thursday afternoon of last week.

HEWITT.—A telegram received in Bellefonte announced the death of Mrs. Margaret Hewitt, widow of the late Rev. John Hewitt, at the home of her son, Stafford, in Georgia.

Fire Company Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the local fire company on Tuesday evening, February 14th, 7:30 o'clock, in the council room, for the purpose of nominating officers and transacting such other business as may come up at that time. All who were formerly members should be there. A very important matter concerning insurance on real estate and personal property will be explained.

By order of the president,
W. F. BRADFORD.

Gelss' Bazaar.

Saturday, February 11, at 1:30 p. m., is the time set for the next bazaar sale at the Gelss barn, Bellefonte. Horses, cows, pigs, chickens, furniture, potatoes, etc. Bring what you have to sell or come see, possibly there is something here you will buy.—S. H. Hoy, auct.

Let me have your order for fresh fish—halibut, salmon and other kind—and oysters. Deliveries will be made Thursdays as a rule.—Ray G. Decker, Centre Hall.

To Take Place of Farmers' Institutes in Centre County.

The State Department of Agriculture has discontinued the county Farmers' Institutes which were so popular in Centre county and many other counties of the state. Some of the farmers near Spring Mills were much disappointed as a result of this action. In order to replace the farmers' institutes, the Centre County Farm Bureau and Spring Mills Vocational School have co-operated in arranging for a series of six meetings at which interesting farm subjects will be discussed. These meetings will be held at the Vocational School and with few exceptions on Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

The speaker will discuss the subject generally but greatest benefits will be derived from the following discussions and questions so everyone should come prepared to ask questions concerning the subjects for discussion.

The first meeting was held on Wednesday evening of this week at which time C. F. Noll discussed Farm Crops, varieties and cultural methods.

The other meetings are:

Feb. 15—Lime and Fertilizers—J. B. R. Dickey.

March 1—Dairy Cattle—A. A. Bolland.

March 8—Spraying (potatoes and fruit)—E. L. Nixon.

March 15—Poultry (rearing chicks)—H. D. Monroe.

March 15—Summer Care of Hogs—E. M. Christen.

If any other communities in the county desire similar meetings call on County Agent, J. N. Robinson.

To Engage in Other Business.

The following is reprinted from the New Bloomfield Times of last week:

In the Centre Hall "Reporter" of the 26th ult., we note the publication of a charter notice for an intended corporation to be known as "Centre Hall Planing Mill Co." the incorporators being C. F. Deininger, Mrs. Lucy Henney, W. A. Henney, of Centre Hall, and James E. Stewart and Clem E. Stewart, of this place. Upon inquiry we learn that it is the intention of Mr. Stewart to quit the blacksmithing business here and about the first of March he and his son Herbert will go to Centre Hall and take an active part in the new enterprise. His son Clem will not leave until towards fall, when the family will take up their residence at Centre Hall and devote their entire time to the business. The plant includes a saw mill as well as a planing mill and there is a fine field for operations. The equipment is complete and has been secured at a bargain. Clem Stewart will be secretary-treasurer of the corporation. C. F. Deininger, of Harrisburg, a frequent visitor here, and an excellent business man, is a leading spirit in the business.

We regret to lose the Stewart family from our midst. They have resided here many years and have been prominent in our community life. They are among our best citizens. We wish them good fortune in their new venture.

BOALSBURG NEWS.

A union S. S. teachers' training class was organized at Boalsburg and the study will begin as soon as the books can be gotten.

The Boal & Cori bus company took the Penn State Glee Club to Lock Haven on Saturday evening, where the Glee Club gave a concert.

Rev. S. C. Stover held preaching services for the Pine Hall congregation last week, from Wednesday evening on, and communion, on Sunday morning.

The Lutheran S. S. held their annual banquet on Tuesday evening. There were various forms of entertainment by members of the school and things to eat pleasing to the taste.

Six companions of the Bear Meadow Commandery No. 416, Knights of Malta, were to Sunbury Thursday evening to take the Red Cross and Sepulchre degree. They report having seen something very good.

Preaching services this week in the Reformed church beginning Wednesday evening; communion on Sunday morning. Rev. Stover will have a visiting preacher to assist him during the week. All are invited to these services.

Maybe it's because you haven't any left and not because you lost the cork screw that you can't give your buddies just what they want.
