Must Obey Orders.

School directors of Lower Mahoning township, Northumberland county, were brought Justice of the Peace J. P. Engel on charges preferred by state health authorities who claimed that they had refused to obey instruction from the district health officer that certain children who were not successfully vaccinated should be refused permission to attend school. The directors were released on promise to carry out the orders.

Holdup and Robbery.

The following is from the Philadelphia Daily Journal of 8th Inst.:

John Allard, a Pennsylvania railroad conductor, was held up Saturday night about 9 o'clock while on his way home at Newtown, in Rush township. A small sum of money and his railroad pass was taken from him.

Later the same night the clothing store of Michael Christoff, opposite the old Pittsburgh & Susquehanna railroad, was broken into and robbed of merchandise amounting to $200.

Miss Rishel Wins Scholarship.

Miss Sara Rishel, the nineteen year old Centre Hall girl who two years ago won first place and the state championship in boys and girls cattle judging at the State College young farmers week, has made good as a student at Penn State. She has just been awarded the Olevine Scholarship, valued at $100 and awarded each year by Mrs. M. Elizabeth Olevine, of Bellefonte, to the Centre county girl student at the college who makes the best showing in the first half of the freshman year and in a competitive examination. As a result, she has convinced her father that she shall continue her college career in vocational home economics through to graduation.

Miss Rishel attended the Spring Mills Vocational school and while there became a member of the calf club organized by the Farm Bureau and won a place on the school's dairy cattle judging team. After winning the individual honors at the State College contests in 1920, she accompanied the winning team to the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield, Mass., in September of that year. Her team won second honors in the contests there. Others on the team were Sara Goodhart and Byron Decker, of the Spring Mills school. Decker is also a Penn State freshman now.

The scholarship award will make it possible for Miss Rishel to complete her first year at college at the lowest possible cost to herself, as she earns all of her living expenses in the town.

Guess Supper.

A guess supper will be held in the Spring Mills Grange hall, Wednesday, February 22, to which everybody is invited and urged to spend a social evening at the hall. Besides the supper there will be a variety of amusements, among them fish ponds, fortune telling, games of various kinds, etc., affording a splendid opportunity for all to engage in sports fitting for the occasion.

THE DEATH RECORD.

HOMAN.—Henry Emanuel Homan died suddenly at his home in Centre Hall, Sunday morning a few minutes after ten o'clock. He had just finished sweeping snow from the porch and returning to the house sat down, and it was when he arose to perform a similar work at another portion of the premises that he fell over dead. He had been in delicate health for two years or more during which time he was unable to do any work that exerted him. Just prior to his death his health had not been noticeably worse than at any time previous during the past six months.

Interment was made in the local cemetery Wednesday forenoon, Rev. M. C. Drumm being the officiating minister.

Mr. Homan was a son of John Homan and was born October 15, 1859, making his age sixty-two years, three months and twenty-six days. Miss Annie Royer became his wife in 1884, and shortly thereafter the couple began farming at Meeks Church, Buffalo Run Valley, later they purchased a farm near Oak Hall, and fifteen or more years ago Mr. Homan became the owner of the George Durst farm, east of Centre Hall, now tenanted by his son. On quitting active farm life, the family located in State College, but two years later removed to the farm, and from there in a year or two to where he died. He had always been an exceedingly active man, and as a farmer was successful not only in growing good crops but in making his tilled acres pay a profit each year. He was a man of frugal habits, and very much attached to his home. He was a member of the Lutheran church and held various offices in it.

There survive him besides his wife these children: Miss Cora, at home; John, Centre Hall; Vera, wife of Chester Homan, and Lulu, wife of William Reish, both of State College; Warren, of Centre Hall. Also one brother, B. Franklin, of State College.

CORL.—Mary, wife of Benjamin F. Corl, of State College, passed away at her home on Gill Street, after nine days' illness of pneumonia.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Yarnell, deceased, and was born in College township Twenty-seven years ago she was married to Benjamin Corl and resided in State College most of the time since then. She was a zealous member of the Lutheran church. Besides her husband there survive her the following children: Mrs. Fred Watts, of Trenton, N. J.; Luther, Ralph and Beatrice, at home; Grant, of Burlington, W. V.; William, of Louisville, Ohio; Griff, Beaver Falls, Iowa; Elmer, Wyoming; and Annie and Virginia, Michigan. Two brothers—Boyd and James—are dead.

Interment was made at Pine Hall.

DREIBLEBIS.—Mrs. Julia Dreiblebis, widow of Daniel Dreiblebis, passed away at her home at Pine Hall. She had been in feeble health for some time past but was able to be up and around her room until the day of her death.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grenoble, pioneers of Gregg township, where she was born on May 23rd, 1839, hence had attained the advanced age of 82 years, 8 months and 10 days. In 1859 she married Daniel Dreiblebis and all their married life was spent in the vicinity of State College.

Her husband died in 1910 but surviving her are eleven children, all of whom are among the most successful and respected citizens of that section of the county. They are Mrs. Harvey Bowersox and Mrs. Jacob Krumrine, of State College; Mrs. George Lutz, of Struble; Mrs. Allen Wrigley, of Pennsylvania Furnace; Misses Mary and Maude, at home; Martin A., of State College; William, of Houserville; Newton A., of Pine Grove Mills; John D., of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Walter, of Struble. She also leaves two brothers and two sisters, John Grenoble, of Aronsburg; James, in Ohio; Mrs. McCool, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Deitrick, of Hubersburg.

LOVE.—Hudson Williams Love died at his home in Pittsburgh Wednesday night of last week from the effects of injuries received Tuesday afternoon while working at his vocation as a carpenter in the Carnegie Museum.

Deceased was a son of the late Judge W. W. and Jane Wilson Love, of Tusseyville, this county, where he was born and grew to manhood, and for several years with his family lived in Centre Hall, occupying the home in which Chas. D. Bartholomew now lives.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Margaret Evey, and two children—William and Mary. He was a full brother of Mrs. J. Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hall, and Mrs. Harriet Krise, of Shamokin, and a half brother of Mrs. Margaret Runkle, of Pittsburgh.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and services were held at his late home Saturday afternoon, and interment made in Pittsburgh.

GRIMM.—Mrs. Minnie J. Grimm, a former resident of near Madisonburg, passed away at her home in Flemington.

Local Presbyterian Church Activities.

$250 in cash has been given to Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick as a gift to help him pay for his automobile. A few of the members of the Centre Hall church also gave him two very nice robes, and the ladies of the church have placed a desk light in the study, and a chandelier in both the living room and the parlor, all of which adds much to the Manse in beauty and service.

This same group of good ladies have also given to the church a pulpit lamp which was a real need and is much appreciated.

On Tuesday night of last week the elders and trustees of the church convened in the Manse. Those present were Messrs. J. T. Potter, D. Reaick, G. O. Benner, I. A. Sweetwood, Charles Arney, John Heckman, F. V. Goodhart and J. C. Goodhart. They took up the problem of the New Era movement and planned to meet the obligation which has been placed on the church by Presbyterians. On the same evening the women of the church and some of their friends also spent the evening at the Manse at which time they sewed rug rags for Mrs. Kirkpatrick and they had a social time while doing this.

At ten o'clock the doors between the business room of the men and the social and working room of the women were opened and the groups joined in melting ice cream and masticating cake. The women present were Misses Emma McCoy, Elsie and Magpha Boal, Grace Smith, Mary Delinda Potter, Mesdames Charles Arney, F. V. Goodhart, Charles Slack, G. O. Benner, I. A. Sweetwood, W. S. Slick, John Heckman, George Emerick, Daniel Daup and Mary Goodhart, Charles and Russel Slack and William Slick were also visitors at the Manse the same evening.

On Wednesday evening the prayer meeting was held in the Manse and on Thursday evening both the missionary societies met at the Manse.

One day recently the Presbyterian ladies of Centre Hall and Spring Mills met in the Manse at Centre Hall and made thirteen shirts for the Wanless hospital.

The members of the Presbyterian church wish you to attend their services at any time and especially this week. Services every evening except Saturday.

Installing Burglar Alarm.

An electric burglar alarm, of the most approved type, is being installed in the Penns Valley bank at Centre Hall, this week, and in a few days we may expect to hear the alarm sound on a try-out of the instrument.

Boalsburg High Entertainers.

The members of the Boalsburg High school, on Tuesday evening, entertained the pupils of the Centre Hall High school in the Malta temple. The purpose apparently was to bring the young people, who had met in games and literary contests on various occasions, together socially. The evening was devoted entirely to social features, a period being given over to refreshments. Those who participated in the affair from our local High school were delighted with the treatment received and express themselves as having had a most enjoyable evening.

School Entertainment at Colyer.

On Saturday evening of this week, at 7:30, the pupils of the Colyer school, of which Boyd Jordan is the teacher, will hold an entertainment in the school house which will be in commemoration of the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. The public is invited.

ton. She underwent a serious operation in the Williamsport hospital in June of last year from which she never recovered. For months she had been bedfast and a great sufferer. She is survived by her husband, five sons and two daughters: Roy, of Chicago, Ill.; Claude, Harry and Mrs. Frank J. Flaig, of Lock Haven; Walter, Robert and Mary, at home; by five grandchildren; two brothers and one sister—William Luce, of Altoona; Frank Luce of Bellwood; and Mrs. C. L. Sones, of York. Funeral services were conducted at the late residence. Burial was made at Madisonburg.

STEWART.—Mrs. Jennie Stewart, widow of W. D. Stewart, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Stiver, Altoona, from old age. She was born Jan. 25, 1837, near Pine Grove Mills, and was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian church; she belonged to the Second Presbyterian church of Altoona for fifty years. Survivors are two daughters—Mrs. Rose Moore and Mrs. Stiver, of Altoona; nine grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and a niece, Mrs. Maud Bigelow, of Altoona.

BURCHFIELD.—Mrs. Burchfield, widow of the late W. E. Burchfield, a former register of Centre county, passed away at the home of her son, Town send Moran, at Buffalo, N. Y., with whom she had been making her home. The deceased was formerly Miss Mary Shugert, daughter of the late Hon. S. T. Shugert, and was born in Bellefonte 84 years ago and grew to womanhood there. The remains were brought to Bellefonte where interment was made.

"Do Rats Talk to Each Other?"
Asks Mr. M. Batty, R. I.

"I got five cakes of Rat-Snap and three pieces around feed store. Got about half a dozen dead rats a day for two solid weeks. Suddenly they got fewer. Now we haven't any. Who told them about Rat-Snap? Rats dry up and leave no smell. These mice 35c, 65c, $1.25.
