Take Yeast Vitamon Tablets To Get Job-Winning "Pep"
Easy and Economical—Results Quick.

Thin, run-down folks who find that business is had and employment is scarce should try taking two of Mastin's tiny yeast VITAMON Tablets with their meals for a short time and watch how their physical and financial conditions improve.

Mastin's VITAMON Tablets supply in highly concentrated form true yeast-vitamins combined with the other health-giving vitamins which Science says you must have to be strong, well and fully developed. If you are weak, thin, pale, generally run-down, or feel lacking in brain power and ambition, and want that firm flesh "pep" which gets the money, you surely need some of these precious vitamins in your system at once. Mastin's VITAMON mixes with your food, helps it to digest and supplies just what your body needs to feed and nourish the shrunken tissues, the worn-out nerves, the thin blood and the starved brain. Pimples, boils and skin eruptions seem to vanish like magic under this healthful influence. Mastin's VITAMON Tablets will not cause gas and they help to correct constipation. They are easy and economical to take. Be sure to remember the name—Mastin's VITAMON. You can get Mastin's VITAMON Tablets at all good druggists.

FOX HOUND GOES ON BRANDY SPREE

Sneaks Out to Secret Cache and Comes Home With Beautiful Jag.

Charlottesville, Va.—J. A. Dunn, a well-known farmer and fox hunter of this section, was out on a chase Saturday. The next day one of his valued hounds left home of its own accord, returning late in the evening. Mr. Dunn observed that the dog was acting peculiarly. He thought the animal had been poisoned and examined its eyes for symptoms. About this time he got a whiff of the dog's breath and detected a strong odor of apple brandy on it. Mr. Dunn took the animal

Begun to Show Signs of a Jag. mal in the house and gave it some milk to drink. Then it stretched out by the stove. It did not remain there long before it began to show signs of a jag, which would have been the delight of an old toper. The hound the next day acted as though it had a very bad headache. Mr. Dunn thinks the dog located the booze the day of the fox chase and kept it to himself, slipping back the next day. He is watching him closely, in the hope that he will lead him to the cache.

GIRL'S NERVE STOPS THEFT

Bookkeeper Grapples With Thief and Holds on Until Foreman Comes to Assistance.

Attleboro, Mass.—Thanks to the courage and determination of Mrs. Amelia Mitchell, a bookkeeper, a series of petty breaks in at an end and Joseph Morgera, nineteen years old, is back in Concord reformatory, serving time for larceny. Mrs. Mitchell is employed by the R. M. McDonald company, manufacturing jewelers. Young Morgera entered the office and made respectful application for a job. Mrs. Mitchell went to call a foreman. Returning sooner than she was expected, she surprised the visitor taking possession of $200 in an unlocked safe. She immediately grappled with the thief, a young man much larger than herself. Despite his desperate attempts to shake her off she clung to him until Irving Hodges, a foreman, came to her aid and subdued young Morgera. According to the police the boy has admitted stealing money from the waiting room of the Rhode Island hospital in Providence and to entering or attempting to enter three office buildings here. One of the offices was that of Judge Ralph E. Estes, who tried him and sent him to the reformatory.

Five Bullets. This Old Actor's Last "Hand"

New York.—Once upon a time there was a collie dog that did tricks in the circus. He walked on his hind legs and on his fore paws for applause. One day he got lost. He went hungry and grew thin. The other day he wandered into a schoolroom at Jamaica and, suddenly finding himself in the presence of spectators, this old troupier immediately began hopping on his hind legs and on his fore paws, expecting—applause. He got five bullets from a policeman's pistol. Somebody had yelled "Mad dog!"

SAVES HER SEVEN CHILDREN

Buffalo, N. Y.—Mrs. Mary Holler saved her seven children from suffocation by making four trips into her burning home. She was barefooted, and had to travel through three inches of snow outside the house. The woman was awakened by the roaring of flames. She saved three of the children in the first trip. She took them to a barn and wrapped them in blankets to keep them from freezing, then went back and rescued the others.

CONCERN WAS FOR MOTHER

Of Course Little Frank Was Not the Least Bit Afraid of the Darkness.

The family has moved from a gas-lighted house to one where there is electricity, and baby Frank, standing on tip toe, can just reach the two push buttons inside the rooms. They are a source of great amusement and he never fails to press them whenever he passes.

A few nights ago his mother came from the upper rooms and announced bedtime. Little Florence ran upstairs immediately. Frank, up to his usual tricks, pushed the button, and off went the light. The overwhelming darkness frightened the little fellow. After a minute he asked: "Mother, are you there?" "Yes, dear," said his amused mother. Another pause. "Mother, are you 'frail'?" "No, dear, are you?" "No, I ain't 'frail,' but you better put the light on. I'm 'frail you will be 'frail'."

UNUSED TO EVENING DINNER

Grownup Recalls Embarrassing Incident Which Occurred in Her Childhood Days.

As a child in our family I was accustomed to having dinner at noon and a light supper in the evening, because there were several of us, and my mother considered it too harmful to have a heavy meal at night. We had as a friend a woman who lived several blocks away. One day she called to me as I was returning from school and asked my two brothers and me to come to dinner the next day. The following day the three of us went to her house at noon. She looked a little surprised as we came, but said nothing. After about a half an hour we wondered when we were to have dinner. She asked me why we were back from school so early that noon. "We came to dinner," I said. She smiled and said, "My dear, we have dinner this evening." I called to my two brothers, and fled in embarrassment.—Exchange.

To win a race a Jockey doesn't put extra weight on the horse that helps him succeed

No man or woman who wants to succeed in the race of life can afford the handicap of headaches, insomnia, indigestion and debility. Nor can they afford to take anything that may keep up a continual irritation of the nervous system.

Yet this is what many people do who drink excessive amounts of tea or coffee. For tea and coffee contain caffeine, a substance that is sometimes very injurious. Many doctors say that caffeine raises the blood pressure, irritates the kidneys, and over-stimulates the entire nervous system. Also that it is especially bad for growing children, or for any one who has any tendency to nervousness or insomnia.

If you want to avoid a possible cause of headache, insomnia, or nervousness, it might be well to stop taking tea and coffee for awhile, and drink rich, satisfying Postum, instead.

Postum is a delicately-roasted, pure cereal beverage—delicious and wholesome.

Order Postum from your grocer today. Drink this fragrant, healthful beverage for awhile, and see if you will not feel brighter, more active, and more resistant to fatigue—as so many thousands of others have felt.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.
