DOUGLAS HURLS BEST GAMES
Star Spittballer of McGraw's World's Champions Credited With Two One-Hit Contests.
The last year in major league baseball was productive of no perfect game and only four one-hit games.

Phil Douglas, the star spittballer of the world's champion Giants, was credited with both one-hit games in the senior circuit, against Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

TERMS GOLF CHILD'S SPORT
M. Briand Tells Lloyd George, British Premier, Game is Fit Only for Schoolboys.
Golf has no attractions for M. Briand, former premier. The "bug" that finds so many victims in America and England failed to affect him when he tried the game at Cannes under the tutelage of Mr. Lloyd George.

YOUNG'S SPINAL COLUMN HAD BEEN DISLOCATED

Ralph Young, Detroit second baseman, has been told by a muscle and bone doctor in Philadelphia that the reason he makes wild throws is that he has a section of his backbone dislocated.

GOLFERS OF ENGLAND WANT 36-HOLE PLAY

Petition St. Andrews to Copy America's System.

If Efforts of Britishers Are Successful There Will Be Increased Interest and Keener Competition in Contests.

Increased interest and keener competition between the amateur golfers of America and Great Britain is promised if amateur players in Britain are successful in their effort to have the manner of deciding the British champion changed from the present all-match play tournament at 18 holes to the American plan of 36-hole qualifying round and match play at 36 holes.

Harold Hilton, John Ball, Cyril Tolley and Lord Charles Hope, as well as practically all of the other leading British amateurs, have signed a petition to the royal and ancient committee of St. Andrews, begging that severe organization to change from the British to the American plan.

Members of the American amateur international team which visited Hoylake last year were not satisfied with the short 18-hole matches, and maintained that the better players do not have the opportunity over 18 holes that is offered in a 36-hole match.

Sporting Squibs of All Kinds

More than one-fourth of the students at Amherst college played tennis during the past spring and fall, 127 out of an enrollment of 510 indulging in the racket game.
New York yachtsmen are getting tuned up for next summer's races against the British boats, although the baseball opening comes between the preparedness and the eventuality.

Dartmouth has found a radical fault in its new $7,000 ski jump. The captain of the ski team could make only 75 feet, where it was confidently expected the new jump would shoot them out 100 feet. Blame it on the machine.

A COMPLACENT PATRON
"This vaudeville act puzzles me."
"In what way?"
"I don't know whether it's good or bad."

Strange, indeed.
The company record was being prepared. Swallow Tail Smith was obtaining the biography of Private Murphy.
"Are you married, Murphy?" he asked.
"Yes," replied the recruit with a sigh.

1st Street Lamp: He's in pretty bad shape this morning.
2nd Street Lamp: Yes, he was in the midst of a street fight and got a fractured skull!
Out With Him.
The busy man who gets my goat is he who hasn't time to vote.

Selecting From the Storehouse.
"You don't appear to have very many original ideas on governmental matters," remarked the critical constituent.
"I doubt whether originality is needed," said Senator Sorghum. "The world has been accumulating original ideas for centuries. A statesman is doing very well nowadays if he can use good judgment and pick out a few of the best ones."

Knows What He's About.
"The fair defendant has a smart lawyer, but it seems to me he has just been killing time since he produced her in court."
"His giving the ladies of the jury a chance to take in all the details of her costume, so they will then be able to pay some attention to the testimony."

Troubles of a Farmer.
"I envy you," said the city man.
"Why so?" asked Mr. Cobbles.
"You are monarch of all you survey."
"Guess again, brother. I have a son who's been to college and won't work, a filver that won't run and a hired man who is always trying to teach me socialism."

Reluctant Admiration.
"D'jevver see Harold Heartbreak on the screen?" asked Sayde, who presides over the tinware counter.
"Yeh, I've seen him," said Flora Bell, of can-openers and cutlery. "That fellow's a snake, that's what he is."
"Yeh, he's a snake all right, but Gawd, what eyes!"

"I asked you very particularly to stay home while I met George today."
"Yeh. You was so particular about it, my curiosity was roused."
Fate of the Dreamer.
A dreamer of dreams woke up one day
And what do you think he found?
A bundle of bills that he could not pay
And collectors snooping around.

Courtship Days.
"Does the young man seem thrifty?"
"Well, he doesn't believe in wasting gas," replied Paw Hoptoad.
Some Information.
"The other day I paid a medium $3 for a reading."
"Did she tell you anything that was true?"
"Her first statement was a bull's-eye—said I spent my money very foolishly."

Too Inclusive.
North—I don't think Jackson is much of a fellow.
West—Why not?
North—He's popular with everybody.
