LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. D. Daup, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Swabb, of State College, has been at the Richard Brooks home during the past few weeks.

On account of the heavy demand made upon our advertising columns this week, some correspondents' letters had to be omitted.

Information reached this office that Mrs. Fischer, wife of Dr. W. E. Fischer, of Shamokin, is very critically ill. Her daughter (Marion) Mrs. (Rev.) Charles Keene, of China, is at the Fischer home at present.

John F. Treatser met with an accident while working on his saw mill a few days ago. In some manner, it is reported, he was knocked down by a truck on a tram road hitting him, bruising him pretty badly about the head and other parts of the body.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moyer at Id Fort, a few days ago.

Messrs. Simons P. Hennigh, of Centre Hall, and former Sheriff A. B. Lee, of Spring Mills, who accompanied their respective pastors, Rev. J. F. Bingham and I. C. Bailey, to the U. Ev. conference at Lewisburg, returned much gratified over the work of the body. Rev. Bailey, who goes to York Bethany church, is the only minister in this section whose pastorate will change. Rev. Bingham, much to the delight of his people on his field, is again returned. Rev. G. W. Frey, now at Blossersville, Cumberland county, will come to Spring Mills. There are very few changes by the Bishop, in fact, less than ten in the whole conference.

Commissioners Asked to Resign.

The following is reprinted from the Huntingdon Monitor of 3rd inst.:
At a public meeting in the Court House Monday afternoon the County Commissioners were asked by a committee of representative taxpayers to resign their office.

The gathering consisted of citizens from every part of the county who came to Huntingdon to be present at the final appeal from the valuations placed upon their properties by the assessors and County Commissioners at the triennial assessment which was made this year. The men gathered in the court room were in various stages of indignation, from mild to fierce, and an organized meeting was perfected by making A. M. White, former commissioners' clerk, chairman. Many men arose and expressed their views, and eventually the crisis was reached when a petition was signed asking the Commissioners to resign. This action was precipitated when the Commissioners refused a resolution which requested them to place the valuations back where they were in 1919.

Sentenced to One Year.

William Fryberger and Morgan Shope, both residents of Philipsburg, and both indirectly connected with the Karthaus bank robbery of last December, were sentenced by Judge Bell. Each is required to pay $1 and costs and undergo imprisonment in jail for one year.

Shope, it will be remembered, plead guilty to being an accessory after the fact, having accepted $500 of the bank loot from the actual robbers. Fryberger was found guilty on one count brought against him in the recent trial.

109 Orphans Cared For.

It was reported to this office on Tuesday that one hundred and nine of the one hundred and forty-six orphans Centre county is asked to care for in the Near East work are provided for. The report is gratifying.

SPRING MEALS.

The sale held by Harry C. Reish, on Monday, was well attended, and everything brought fair prices. Mr. Reish will move to Centre Hall and Clair Ohl will move on the farm Reish vacates. Harry M. Allison has been appointed postmaster.

Mrs. Orris McCormick is very ill. The I. O. O. F. banquet last Wednesday evening, was attended by over three hundred people.

Rev. I. C. Bailey and Arthur B. Lee are attending conference at Lewisburg.

Mrs. Myrtle Hazel, of Ohio, came to see her sister, Mrs. McCormick.

THE DEATH RECORD.

KELLER.—Miss Sallie Keller died at the home of her sister, Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) Hall, at Wilmington, Delaware. The body was brought to Boalsburg and interment made Wednesday morning. Miss Keller was a daughter of the late Henry and Margaret Keller. Her great grandfather, Jacob Keller, came to Potter township and became the owner of the Rd Mill property, in 1806, coming from Dauphin county. Miss Keller like her ancestors, adhered to the Reformed church.

CARPER.—Mrs. Mary Anne Carper, a native of Boalsburg, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Ruppe, of Altoona, from a complication of diseases. She was born Sept. 12, 1842, in Boalsburg, where she was well known. Her husband preceded her to the grave and she had made her home for three years with her daughter in Altoona. She is survived by one other daughter, Mrs. H. Zeigler, of Spring Mills. Burial was made at Boalsburg Tuesday of last week.

BOWER.—Thomas Clayton Bower, a life-long resident of Haines township, died at his home at Aaronsburg, of a complication of diseases, aged 57 years and 8 months.

Mr. Bower followed farming until some years ago when he retired and moved to Aaronsburg. He was married twice, the second wife surviving. One sister, Mrs. Joseph Corman, of Rebersburg, also survives. Interment was made in the Union cemetery at Woodward.

WISE.—Mrs. Harvey Wise died at her home at Booneville after an illness of eight months. She had undergone an operation for appendicitis from which she never fully recovered. Her age at the time of her death was 67 years, 5 months and 1 day. She is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters.

Mrs. Wise was well known through Penns and Brush valleys, where she spent most of her life.

Interment was made at Booneville on Monday of last week.

SNYDER.—On Thursday, February 16th, Glover Snyder, of Port Matilda, started a fire in his garage with gasoline, and was seriously burned. He was taken to the Altoona hospital for treatment, where he died as the result of his burns.

Mr. Snyder was a well-known resident of Centre county, being born near Port Matilda, aged 37 years. Besides his mother, Mrs. Ellen Snyder, he is survived by his wife and daughter, Louise, all of Port Matilda, and the following sisters and brothers: Edna Snyder and Mrs. Dorsey Brumbaugh, of Roaring Springs; Lloyd, of Altoona; D. W., of New Enterprise, and Milbert, of Everett. Funeral services were conducted at his home on Sunday a week; interment in the Port Matilda cemetery.

SNYDER.—Mrs. Agnes McCormick Snyder died at her home in Tyrone following a year's decline in health. She was a daughter of James H. and Isabelle Pollock McCormick, and was born at Hubersburg, this county, on September 19, 1847, hence was in her seventy-fifth year. Her girlhood life was spent at Hubersburg and Centre Hall, and at the latter place she was married, in 1868, to Samuel Fisher Snyder. Some time afterwards they Lutheran Social.

The members of the local Lutheran church turned out strong on Tuesday evening to a social gathering. Although the weather was bad it had little effect on the attendance of men, women and children. The gathering was primarily for adult men and its purpose to organize a Brotherhood. The speaker of the evening was Prof. Ben. Apple, of Sunbury, a former superintendent of schools of Northumberland county, now taking a deep interest in the formation of Organized Adult Bible Classes and Brotherhoods, the latter a more recent religious movement in the United Lutheran Church. Dr. Apple's mission here was to put before the men the Brotherhood in its best light, which he did in a most pleasing, forceful and convincing manner.

Previous to Dr. Apple's talk the choir, assisted by E. W. Crawford, sang several selections, and a duet was rendered by Mrs. W. W. Kerlin and Miss Ethel Frank, Miss Grace Fye playing the accompaniment. The pastor made appropriate remarks and very gracefully introduced the speaker.

After the program as prepared was completed refreshments were served, and an hour or more was given over to social intercourse, in which feature all entered most heartily.

A Stricken Family.

A truly stricken family is that of Ezra Auman, of Pine Grove Mills. On Monday, Mrs. John Auman, who made her home with her son Ezra, died of diseases incident to old age. Arrangements for the burial had been made for Wednesday. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ezra Auman became suddenly ill, and died from congestion of the lungs and a weak heart. At the same time Mr. Auman and his son, Ellis, who is at home, are both ill and confined to bed.

The funeral of Mrs. Ezra Auman will be held Friday afternoon. Mrs. John Auman and Mrs. Ezra Auman are grandmother and mother, respectively, of John Auman, the miller, employed in the Bradford mill, Centre Hall. The junior Mrs. Auman is a sister of Mrs. M. L. Emerick of this place.

took up their residence in Tyrone where they spent the remainder of their lives. Mr. Snyder died in 1917 but surviving her are a daughter and two sons. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: W. F. McCormick, of Flemington; J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, S. C.; J. O. McCormick, of Spring Mills; Miss Kate, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Cora Bartholomew, of Pittsburgh. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and active in the work of the Ladies' Aid Society. Burial was made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrone.

THOMPSON.—Mrs. Margaret Johnston Thompson, widow of the late John I. Thompson, passed away at her home at State College Thursday last week as the result of a stroke of paralysis. She was stricken two weeks ago and failed to recover therefrom.

She was a daughter of Alexander and Ellen Johnston Johnston and was born at Boalsburg about sixty-four years ago. Her entire life was spent at the home of her birth until her marriage to Mr. Thompson in 1913, when she went to reside at Lemont, living there until four years ago when she took up her residence at State College. Mr. Thompson died some years ago but surviving her are one brother, James E. Johnston, of Canadagua, N. Y., and five step-children, namely: Dr. Mary Shaffer, of Altoona; Mrs. George Sellers, of Williamsport; Mrs. L. H. Crossman, of Oaks, Pa.; George B. Thompson, of Alto, and Charles M., of Lemont. She was a member of the Presbyterian church all her life.

OCEANIC LADIES QUINTET.

The Oceanic Ladies Quintet is a singing orchestra with an exceptionally interesting history. It is composed of five vivacious, accomplished artists whose versatile musicianship and genuine artistry have earned for them remarkable successes in many parts of the world.

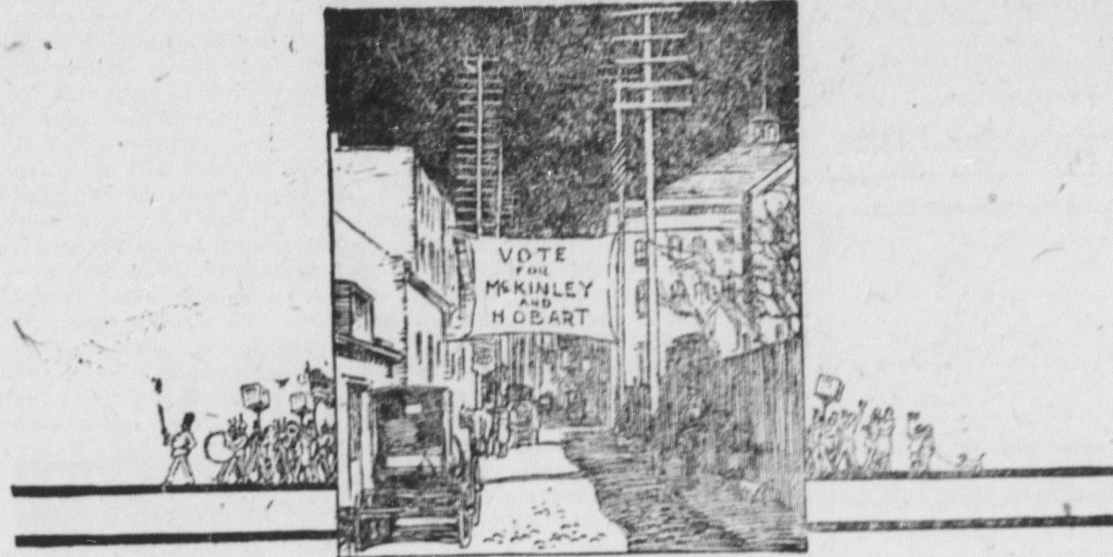

Frequently versatility presupposes mediocrity. But these musicians are artists in each of their varied lines.

Miss Ferguson is a wonderful cornetist, but could major in voice; Miss Germond, one of America's best lady cellists, is a professional pianist and soprano; Miss Carstensen, the violinist and leader, is equally good on the saxophone; Miss Laddy, the vocal soloist, is also a pianist, and Miss Truitt, flute and traps, is a reader of exceptional ability. Their musical monologs, violin and vocal selections, and varied orchestral numbers will thoroughly delight Lyceum audiences this season.

The Oceanic Ladies' Quintet come to Centre Hall as the last number on the Lecture Course for this season. They will appear in Grange hall on Saturday evening, March 11th.

I am prepared to take your order for salt fish, in pails or buckets, which will be delivered to your door. Let me have your order in person or drop me card.—Ray G. Decker, Centre Hall.

Tuesday's hard rain chased the snow.

The Telephone Pole is a fruitful tree.

On its angular branches are bright crystal apples, and the wires they bear aloft are the pathways of the world's conversation. They tell of the birth of a baby across the street or of the death of a monarch half way around the world.

The stately trunks of cedar and chestnut stretch from farm and town and suburb to the larger cities where the burden of wires is too great for poles, and the lines are underground.

To carry all of the telephone wires of a great city overhead would be out of the question. To put all wires underground in the less densely populated places would be just as impracticable, for it would make the cost of the service prohibitive.

Ideal telephone service should give to every subscriber, whether in city, town or country, quick communication to near or distant points in the most economical manner.

It is such an ideal that the men and women of the Bell Telephone System have constantly in view. Something new—whether it be developed in Sacramento or Kalamazoo—is immediately available to every other town in the Bell System where it may be introduced to advantage.
