

How Wide Are You?

Every woman, and man too, has wondered at least once in life who it is that prescribes the width of chairs at the theatres and on the cars and so on. And wondered also what lunatic it was who set the standard at just so many inches.

There is real reason for this wonder. All men and women may be created equal—but they certainly vary in certain proportions as they grow older. Particularly do they grow different in the physical machinery used in the necessary operation of sitting down. Despite this fact, whoever it is that decides the width of seats goes right on doing it as though every man and woman was turned out by one pattern.

This long grievance of a long suffering public blazed up recently at the wedding of Princess Mary of England to the Viscount Lascelles. And in this case it was not folk who had long suffered the restraints of standardized seats, but scores of the nobles and peeresses of England who all their lives had never been forced to sit in narrower places than their width demanded for comfort.

Wide and comfortable chairs had at their castles, limousines of breadth and so on. Their wealth had made it possible for them never, in a way of speaking, to feel the pinch that lesser people did. Then the Duke of Atholl was picked out to make the arrangements for seating them at Westminster Abbey to see the wedding ceremony. The Duke over the ground, also the lists of the peeresses invited. By a single mathematical calculation he divided one by the other. The result was a sixteen-inch wide chair for each peeress to sit on.

But—Ah, there was one. What happened when those noble ladies learned they were supposed to sit side by side like sardines, each on a sixteen-inch chair, makes perhaps the most amusing and interesting incident of the whole royal wedding.

Any one who has ever felt like lynching the genius who prescribes the width of public chairs for us will miss a real treat if they do not look at the pictures and read the story of the Duke of Atholl's tragic error and what happened after it in the New York Sunday American next Sunday.

POTTERS MILLS.

Quite a number of children are ill with mumps in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Witmer E. Lee spent a day at Burnham.

Morris Burkholder and family spent a short time at the Lott Condo home.

Mrs. Treaster, of Milroy, spent Sunday at this place.

In attempting to crank his car, on Saturday, Clarence Zettie sustained a broken arm.

Elmer Stump and family and Pat Wagner, of Mount Union, spent Sunday at the John Wagner home.

Miss Anna Berkins, of Milroy, spent a few days at the J. C. McClenahan home.

John McNitt, of Milroy, stopped a short time to see his mother-in-law, Mrs. McClenahan, who is not improving in any at this writing.

Bobby McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick, had the misfortune to break his arm at school on Friday.

Albert Allen and wife, Robert Smith and wife and baby Mildred, of Centre Hill, were callers at the Michael Smith home one day recently.

A Rat That Didn't Smell After Being Dead for Three Months

"I swear it was dead three months," writes Mr. J. Spikes (N. J.). "I saw this rat every day for some time. It was behind a barrel. Months afterwards, my wife looked behind the barrel. There it was—dead. It had been there for three months. It was sold and guaranteed by"

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.
Cure free. All Druggists.

PRODUCERS OF HOME ECONOMY

"SILVER LEAF" Flour is made from the wheat you see growing in the fields of our own country. This wheat is grown by our farmers who know how to harvest and deliver it to our mill door in the most perfect condition. Our miller takes the golden wheat, puts it through the cleaning conditioning and grinding processes, and the resulting flour is "SILVER LEAF" Flour.

In addition to "SILVER LEAF" flour this wheat yields two products called Bran and Middlings. "Silver Cream" Bran and Middlings are bought by the farmer for his cows in order that he may be able to furnish the rich milk that, together with the delicious "Silver Crust" Bread, made from "Silver Leaf" Flour, makes that nourishing Bread and Milk for the kiddies. When you buy a sack of "Silver Leaf" Flour you are making a market for your farmer friend's wheat and you are helping him secure the feed he needs for his cows, which in return give the wonderful milk that, together with "Silver Crust" Bread, is the most nourishing and economical food for your family.

You get the best food for the smallest amount when you buy "Silver Leaf" Flour and you help keep the horn of plenty filled. The farmer, you see, is getting all the value without paying needless freight and our mill is getting all the value without paying needless freight charges. "Silver Leaf" Flour is a Home Economy Flour. Buy it from your grocer or from mill direct.

HAND IN YOUR ORDER FOR—
FLOUR, CORN CHOP MIXED CHOP, MIDDINGS, BRAN AND CORN MEAL. It will be filled satisfactorily.
