$500,000 Fire at Clearfield.
Fire destroyed the sand room, rolling department and drying loft, all in one of the buildings of the Elk Tanning Company's plant at Clearfield, late one night last week.

The burned building was 50 by 200 feet and contained a great quantity of valuable tanned leather. A large portion of the leather, possibly all of it, was destroyed. A telephone message from Clearfield states the superintendent of the plant estimates the loss at between $200,000 and $300,000, including the building, valued at $50,000.

Revelations By a Queen of the Underworld.

A "Vamp" has come into such common use that it is being included in the new dictionaries, and why not when at least a third of the news of today is concerned with their activities.

Ah, but there are all kinds of "Vamps"—ranging from the one who wrecks homes, lives and fortunes to the innocent little big-eyed girl who practices the lures of her sophisticated sisters, merely to get a dance partner.

The professional "vamp" is a real danger to others and to herself. Yet she always makes interesting reading. Look at Cleopatra for instance; vampire of the old Nile, and now her name is still a household one.

Professional criminals formerly worked in gangs and depended on the resourcefulness and doings of men. But in crime, as in business, methods change. Lately a partnership was a pretty woman has been found to be the most valuable asset a criminal can acquire.

The respectable man or woman who has never seen a professional criminal who feels as secure from the traps of the underworld as from the venomous reptiles of the African jungle may be quite easily ensnared by these new and unsuspected crooks.

In the New York Sunday American an amazing series of articles, the confessions of a professional "vamp"—Mrs. Margaret Hill, begins next Sunday. This young and attractive woman was in partnership with some of the ablest criminals in America. She had a wide acquaintance with other "vamps" and other colonies of criminals, and her revelations of these newest and wickedest snares of the underworld may save some readers of these pages from falling into one of the traps she explains and exposes. adv.

KESSLER'S

IT ISN'T a difficult thing to appreciate fully just why we are all worked up about the New SPRING MERCHANDISE now on view in our store.

There have been few seasons when either the fabrics or models were as attractive as these. In fact we do not see how it would be possible to give more in style or value than we give in this collection. There are novelties, quite natural, and steps for quiet wear.

IN SHOES have every wanted perforation, stitching or finish. Some people want a shoe that is distinctive in looks; some like them severely plain. But all want them to be comfortable always. We can fit you properly, and at a price that you will approve.

Come in and see—no obligation implied—we are glad to see you.
