COX FAVORS ENTERING LEAGUE.

Former Presidential Candidate Lays "Business Adversity" to Our Failure to Join.

Directly attributing our present-day "business adversity" to the failure of the United States to join the League of Nations, former Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, in an address Saturday night at New York, urged a continuation of the campaign to have this country join the League.

His address was made before the National Democratic Club and was one of his few public utterances since his campaign as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1920.

Asserting that "as one surveys conditions at Washington he finds little ground for hope of a stable prosperity," Mr. Cox declared "the average person of the average community believes there is something radically wrong in Washington and that it consists chiefly of a lack of leadership. There is no captain of the ship."

Mr. Cox told his audience that "while there is much regret throughout the country over the aimless way in which things are drifting, it is not fair to criticize the President of the United States, who, he said, is simply keeping his contract with the people."

"He was open and frank in expressing his opinion as to what the function of the Executive is," Mr. Cox said. "The campaign waged by his party was largely directed against the alleged autocratic policies of Mr. Wilson."

Speaking of United States Senators it is well to recall that William E. Wallace was the last Democratic Senator to serve from Pennsylvania, holding office from 1875 to 1881. Charles R. Buckalew served previous to this, representing the same party from 1863 to 1869. Pennsylvania has reason to remember both these men with gratitude and admiration. Both were elected by the way, under conditions of popular reaction against Republican incompetency (and worse) such as now stir the best citizens of the Keystone State.

Turn Down Inter-County Bridge.

Northumberland county commissioners on Monday flatly refused to join with Union county in building a bridge across the Susquehanna river between Watsonstown and White Deer at an estimated cost of $200,000. The matter has been in the courts for five years, three successive grand juries in both counties having recommended the structure.

RE-ELECT D. O. ETTERS.

Receives 92 Out of 147 Votes Cast for Office of Superintendent of Schools of Centre County.

Prof. D. O. Etters was re-elected for a four-year term to the office of superintendent of schools of Centre county at a meeting of the directors at the court house, Bellefonte, Tuesday forenoon of this week. Out of a total of 175 school directors in Centre county, 147 were present to cast their votes. The roll was called according to districts, in alphabetical order, and each director upon hearing his name called was required to rise to his feet and name the candidate for whom he wished to vote.

Two candidates were nominated—first, Chester H. Barnes, of Bellefonte; second, David O. Etters, of State College. The vote was as follows: For Etters, 92; for Barnes, 55.

Centre Hall borough school directors vote 3 to 2 in favor of Chester Barnes while the entire Potter township board supported Mr. Etters. The entire proceedings were over in less than an hour's time.

The First National Bank.

The final papers for lifting the charter for the proposed First National Bank, at Centre Hall, were forwarded to the Comptroller of Currency beginning of this week. Before the charter may be secured one-half of the stock must be paid, that is, each individual subscriber for stock must pay to the treasurer fifty per cent. of the stock, and this had been done some time ago. The latter part of last week at a directors' meeting H. Leigh Ebricht was selected as cashier from several available candidates. Mr. Ebricht has been in town since Monday. He is a resident of Thompsettown, Juniata county, and was most highly recommended by the banks in Millintown, in one of which he was employed, having been connected with the bank from its organization.

Local Fire Signals.

In order that the location of a possible fire within the borough limits may be easily determined, the local fire company has arranged with the Centre Hall flouring mill to sound its whistle in this manner: For a fire north of the Reformed church, one long and two short blasts; for a fire south of the Reformed church, one long and five short blasts. It will be well to remember these signals so that in the event of a fire all possible haste may be made to get to the scene, and confusion reduced to a minimum.

Order to Clean Up.

All residents of Centre Hall borough are urged to clean their premises of rubbish and remove ash piles from alleys; also to refrain from burning rubbish on streets. Same made be burned on lots, but on streets it is forbidden, and persons persisting in disregarding this order will be dealt with accordingly. Let us keep up our reputation for the cleanest town in the State, and use common sense in building fires.

—By order Borough Council.

Letter from California.

Palmdale, Calif., Apr. 4, 1922.
I am enclosing a letter for brother Mack pertaining to my brother Willis's death, March 19, 1922, at Hampton, N. Y. Will you please forward it to him, as he no doubt is a subscriber to the Reporter, or you may know of his last appointment of last Conference. The last I knew was Howard, Pa.

We both love the beautiful California. We live in the greatest county in the U. S. (Los Angeles county.) We have a paved boulevard right through our ranch for one mile. We are 69 miles from the city, which takes only two to three hours by auto (we used to take that much time to drive to Bellefonte).

This is a great Bartlett pear section; also grapes, peaches and apricots and figs and almonds; also much alfalfa and grain. The oil buzzer is very busy with some in this locality.

Yours very truly,
G. H. RISHELL.

BOALSBURG NEWS.

The Forestry Department gave a very interesting and instructive moving picture show in Boal hall Saturday evening. The pictures consisted of logging and lumbering; also mountain fires and methods used in fighting same. Prevent Forest fires.

On Monday afternoon Dr. William Woods wrecked his automobile on the State road leading from Boalsburg to Oak Hall at the bend in the road at the bridge. He was coming down the hill too fast for the car to stay on the road and hence the car went over the bank. The doctor had taken Mrs. Daniel Myers out just for a little ride and she was with him when the accident occurred. Neither one was hurt of any account.

E. C. Riley has opened an ice cream parlor in the Malta Temple. He means to help you keep cool.

Mrs. John Charles has been confined to bed for the past two weeks suffering from internal ailments.

JORDAN.—George Jordan, Sr., passed into his eternal rest Saturday. He had not been in good health for some time and was confined to bed for several weeks preceding his death. He lived in Shingletown and was aged almost seventy-five years. His wife and the following children survive: Jessie and George, both married; Mrs. Tillie Garbrick and Mrs. Bruce Miller. Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning. Burial in the Boalsburg cemetery.

GEORGES VALLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Irvin expect to move to Milesburg this week.

The farmers are all busy plowing.

John Condo lost a valuable mule by death one day last week.

W. K. McClellan of near Centre Hall visited friends here over Sunday.

Mrs. Caroline Confer is spending some time at the home of her son, J. K. Confer.

C. W. Logle is not a quarrelsome man, but one day last week he got into trouble that resulted in a black eye and a badly scratched face. He was clearing away some brush and limbs and came into contact with a large limb with the above result.

A large wild turkey flew down from the mountains, alighted on the Commons in the heart of Lawistown. Friday of last week, strutted about for an hour and returned to its native heath without being disturbed even by the game warden.

SPRING REPAIRS.

Mrs. Jasper Wagner spent Sunday at Centre Hall.

Mrs. Carrie Wolf, teacher of the primary school, is ill, and Mrs. Mabel Musser is finishing her term.

The new bank building is going up rapidly.

Harry M. Allison, who has been appointed post master, has had the office painted and papered. It makes a fine appearance and is appreciated by the patrons.

Lightning struck the stable on the premises occupied by Harold Stover, on Tuesday afternoon, and burned it to the ground. Mr. Stover saved his automobile. The building belonged to William Allison.

Lightning also struck the house of Mrs. Jefferson Heckman, demolishing the chimney and roof, but doing no serious damage.

Drank Moonshine and Died During Night.

George Radrovicky, of Madera, was found dead in bed at the home of Mike Haenell, at Clover Run Sunday morning.

An inquest conducted by Dr. W. R. Heaton, coroner of Centre county, resulted in finding that the man's death was due to drinking moonshine liquor.

About two weeks ago the man located at Clover Run, having secured employment as a miner at the Harbison-Walker operations. He was around all day Saturday at the Haenell home, where he boarded, and after supper Saturday night went to Retort, returning after midnight.

Investigation, after he had failed to respond to a summons to breakfast, revealed that the man was dead. Another boarder at the Haenell home said Radrovicky was sick after he had returned after midnight.

Doctor Held for Murder.

Dr. Herbert Bryson, 48 years of age, a hero of the Forty-Second (Rainbow) Division and one of Huntingdon county's most prominent physicians, is held at Huntingdon on the charge of murdering his pretty young wife. She died at 5:30 Sunday morning in the Blair Memorial hospital of a bullet wound in the stomach inflicted Saturday night by a shot fired from Dr. Bryson's 45 calibre Colt's army revolver after he had broken down the door of her bedroom, according to a statement made by his wife while dying.

Dr. Bryson declares his wife shot herself at their home in Cassville, a farming community of 140 inhabitants twenty-three miles south of Huntingdon. Mrs. Bryson, who was 26 years of age and an attractive brunette, in her dying statement, accused her husband of firing point blank following a quarrel.

Hangings Between the Two.
Last summer the Hulman brothers, at Terre Haute, gave the Rose Polytechnic the grounds for the new school. The year before that they gave the land for Calvary cemetery. One of their townsmen recently met Herman, the younger brother, on his way to his farm, which is between the two pieces of ground above mentioned. "Well, Herman, he remarked smilingly, 'I see you've solved that often disputed question of whether we should consider our cemeteries or seminaries of the more importance.'"
Mr. Hulman looked at him, and then his eyes twinkled. "Not exactly solved it," he drawled. "You know where my farm is. Well, you see, I'm still just hanging between the two."—Indianapolis News.
