WESTERN CANADA

Land of Prosperity

offers to home seekers opportunities that cannot be secured elsewhere. The thousands of farmers from the United States who have accepted Canada's generous offer to settle on FREE homesteads or buy farm land in her provinces have been well repaid by bountiful crops. There is still available on easy terms

Fertile Land at $15 to $30 an Acre—land similar to that which through many years has yielded from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre—oats, barley and flax also in great abundance, while raising horses, cattle, sheep and hogs is equally profitable. Hundreds of farmers in western Canada have raised crops in a single season worth more than the whole cost of their land. With such success comes prosperity, independence, good homes and all the comforts and conveniences which make life worth living.

Farm Gardens, Poultry, Dairying are sources of income second only to grain growing and stock raising. Attractive climate, good neighbors, churches, schools, good markets, railroad facilities, rural telephone, etc.

HEROIC MEASURES

"I wonder," remarked Mr. Crosslots, "if it wouldn't be a good idea for us to sell the home and buy a sailing vessel."

"But it takes so long for a sailing vessel to get anywhere," suggested his wife.

"That's the advantage. We'd be able to keep the same cook for two or three weeks at least."

Sauce for Both.

The rheumatic physician had remained seated during the consultation with the rheumatic patient. He rose, or rather pulled himself out of the chair to write the prescription for the magic rheumatism remover.

"What seems to be the trouble with you, doc?"

"Rheumatism!" groaned the medical man as a pain took a shot at the hand that held the pen.

Worthy of a Prize.

"Has your son gone into business yet?"

"No," said Mr. Grabeoin, "but I'm inclined to be lenient with Jack and let him loaf for several years if he wants to."

"Why so?"

"He got through college without getting engaged to a chorus girl, smashing his automobile and joining the glee club."

A Wise Banqueter.

Hemmandhaw—I saw you at the banquet last night.

Shimmerpate—Yes, I was there.

"But I couldn't understand why you passed up and down the aisles from one table to another."

"To be frank and confidential with you I was just trying to find a place where the cantaloupe looked good."

CAN'T PLAY WITHOUT FOOD.
"Let's invite the Dobb's in tonight for a game of cards."
"Dear me, no. I haven't got anything to eat in the house."

At the Lecture.

I am afraid that my command of information may seem small: So what I do not understand I oft applaud the most of all!

Lesson in Business.

"Pop!"
"Yes, my son."
"What is a gardener?"
"A gardener is a man who raises a few things, my boy."
"And what is a farmer?"
"A man who raises a lot of things."
"Well, what is a middleman, pop?"
"Why, he's a fellow who raises everything, my son."

The Modern Idea.

"The man who is always ready to seize an opportunity is great."
"Yes, but the man who can seize what somebody else has made out of an opportunity is greater."

The Time Consumer.

"Now, wife," said the gay suburbanite, "we are going to the city. How long will it take you to get ready?"
"About two hours."
"Why were you just boasting that you could pack your grip in ten minutes?"
"Yes, but I have to arrange my hair."

Colorless Biography.

"Mr. Wadleigh, I want to write the story of your life."
"It wouldn't interest anybody."
"But you've made millions of dollars."
"Oh, yes, but I've never slept in an attic. I received a college education and the first job I ever got, paid me $20 a week."

His Wedding Gift.

John—Have you heard about Molly Gilroy? Her husband beat her up in the hotel lobby before a crowd of people on their wedding day.

Fauna—How nice. He starts her out with cause for divorce and a throng of witnesses. And he's good for all kinds of alimony!

Unkind.

"Were you at the wedding?"
"Yes."
"Did you see the present we sent her?"
"No. I just had time to glance at a few of the expensive gifts."

New Kind of Horn.

"Mrs. Gawker made quite a hit with the paper she read before the Thursday club."
"Yes, particularly when she referred to the 'pharmacopoeia of plenty.'"

Sparkling Gems.
The humorist contributor looked in upon the editor of Answers upon his busy day. The humorist contributor should not have looked in upon the editor of Answers on his busy day. The editor of Answers can't feel humorous and busy at the same time.

What was more, the humorist contributor would not go.

At last the editor of Answers decided to stop being busy for one moment and be sarcastic.

"That was a gem, that joke you sent me," he said in his usual dry tone.

The contributor drew himself up with pride.

"Sir," he said, "you flatter me!"

"Not at all," replied the editor. "You should have seen it sparkle when I put it on the fire!"—Answers.

Give Him Time.

A neighbor was quizzing Betty about her new brother.

"Is your baby pretty?" she questioned.

"I don't 'zactly know," said Betty, struggling between truth and loyalty. "I guess he is going to be, but just now he looks pretty rare done."

HARDIN PUT BACK ON HIS FEET TWICE

Was Relieved of Both Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble by Tanlac, States Los Angeles Man.

"For the second time Tanlac has put me on my feet, and you may know by that what I think of it," said William T. Hardin, 1409 Garden St., Los Angeles, Calif.

"Three years ago, I had rheumatism in my shoulders and neck so bad I could hardly work. I tried medicine after medicine only to get worse, but finally I got hold of Tanlac, and I haven't had a trace of rheumatism since."

"Then last summer my stomach got out of order. I lost my appetite and what little I did eat made me feel bloated, all stuffed up and miserable. I always felt weak, tired and worn out, and was so nervous I couldn't sleep."

"Well, Tanlac did a good job for me before, so I just got some more of it, and now it has again fixed me up, and I'm feeling strong and energetic like I used to. I'll tell the world Tanlac's the medicine for me."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

AUTO HITS TEAM

Laurel, April 18.—Unable to see a team driven by Lester Briscoe, 1303 Myrtle avenue, yesterday in the heavy mist, a large touring car driven by an unknown man ran into the team and seriously injured the driver and killed one of the mules. The accident occurred on Main street near Johnson's hardware store. A crowd quickly gathered and one of the by-standers was heard to remark that a person should be punished for not protecting himself against such an accident. He said that he knew of a preparation called "SEE THRU" that could be bought for a dollar from a concern in Baltimore, Maryland, called the Baltimore See-Thru Corporation that would have prevented the accident as no matter how hard it should be raining a wind shield treated with this preparation would always remain as clear as on a bright summer day and that every person who drove a car should not endanger life by going without it. He said that he had driven over from Govanstown several nights before and could not understand how the driver of the jitney could make such speed on a rainy night until he told him he always used "SEE THRU". After the driver explained to him how simple it was to have a clear wind shield and guaranteed to be so as long as it rained, he said he did not lose any time sending off his dollar for a box and that he found that it certainly did the trick. TOURIST SEEKS MAIN STREET

First Inquiry Made by Man From Middle West on His Arrival at Washington.

Nobody can tell what a traveler is going to ask when he gets off the train at Union station.

Ask the street car superintendents who load 'em on winter and summer. Ask the men who run the sightseeing busses. Make inquiry of taxicab drivers.

They will tell you that it is an ordinary happening to have a stranger ask if "that big building with the dome is the White House."

One of those funny spring days last week a traveler from the Middle West came marching forth from the station portals to bask in the infrequent sunshine which that moment was pouring down upon Washington.

There was no doubt about him being from the Middle West. It was written all over his sturdy frame, tanned face and hospitable manner. He felt at home. He had no fear that anybody might rebuff his cordiality.

"Good morning," he said.

"How are you?" I replied.

"Where is Main street?" he asked.—Washington Star.

FROST KEEPS GRIP ON GOLD

Placers in Alaska That Are Only Thawed to a Depth of About Three Feet in Summer.

Certain Alaska gold placers lie in ground that is permanently frozen, only the surface being thawed to a depth of two or three feet in the heart of summer. In this respect they resemble the gold-bearing gravels of Siberia, and the methods of working are similar. Summer is the best time to prospect for new leads, but excavation of the gravel from shafts and tunnels can be as well carried on in winter. The ground at the end of a shaft is softened by a fire of wood and then attacked with the pick. But, instead of breaking under the blows, it mats together, and this tendency renders gunpowder and dynamite comparatively ineffective in dealing with the frozen mass. With any less powerful incentive than the gleam of gold to spur on his human antagonist the frost king would doubtless win an easy victory in so desperate a conflict.

How is it that we so seldom hear the denial of a story first? It would help much.

Many a sharp retort is made in blunt language.

To keep a secret—forget it.

At What Age Should You Take Needless Risks With Your Health?

Is that a queer question?

Then many people are doing a queer thing—and often it turns out to be a serious thing.

The Federal Bureau of Education says in its rules for the health of school children that children should not drink coffee or tea.

This rule is based on the well-known fact that the drug element in coffee and tea whips up the nerves, and that serious ills often follow.

If it's a good rule for children to keep away from the harm of nerve-stimulation, isn't it a good rule for everybody?

Think it over.

Granted that your body may stand more, can your judgment afford to risk more? Any doctor can tell you what coffee and tea often do to the health of adults as well as children.

There's no sacrifice in being safe. Postum is a delightful, satisfying mealtime beverage, wholesome and pleasant alike for adults and children. Postum has no age limits!

Your grocer has both forms of Postum: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for fully 20 minutes.
